Oh, So Good!

What makes our Soda Water taste so good is its quality. Every thing used in the making is First Quality pure.

The water is pure and sparkling. The ice is pure and clean. The cream is pure and rich. The flavors pure and delicious. The fruits are the best and fresh.

People who know our soda go out of their way, if necessary, to get it. It is so satisfying, so refreshing, so full of what they want in good soda. They come and come again—that's what we're working for constantly, because we want regular customers who know our Quality.

RALEIGH.

Senator Pritchard's Statement on the Election Law.

Sen Bern to Gov. Aycock. The 16th Biennial Convention of Instructors of the Blind. Gov. Aycock Offers $200 Reward for the Arrest of Lambert, White, Who is Wanted for Murder.

RALEIGH, July 9.—Early this morning a son was born to Governor Aycock, in the executive mansion. It is the first child born to a Governor there.

The sixteenth Biennial Convention of the American Association of Instructors of the Blind began here today, at the institution for the blind, where the many delegates are all quartered. Michael Anagnos of New York is presiding. State Treasurer B. R. Lacy made the address of welcome on behalf of the State for Gov. Aycock, and to this President Anagnos responded. There are 65 members present representing Canada and 36 States. An "institute" was held by La-Pierre Williams of Kansas; Miss Winifred Moseman of Canada read a paper on the Kindergarten; with discussion by Mr. Dymond of Canada and others; another institute by W. A. Bowles of Va., with discussion by Miss May Schenck, W. K. Argo of Colorado, W. C. Hill of Michigan and John A. Simpson of Raleigh. The attendance is the largest on record, as usually only 35 to 40 are present. Misses Mary Percy, Connor, and Keyser and Prof. J. A. Waddell represent Virginia. President Anagnos is of the Parker School, at Boston the oldest in the country, founded in 1823. The first movement for a school here was in 1827, but it failed.

Senator Pritchard makes a long statement regarding the new election law, in which he says the provision requiring prepayment of poll tax is unquestionably not violative of the constitution of the United States.

A charter was granted today to the St. Lewis Cotton Oil Mill company at St. Lewis, Edgecombe county, capital $5,000.

Raleigh is well represented at the annual convention of the State bar association at Asheville.

Gov. Aycock offers $200 reward for the arrest of Columbus F. Lambert, a white man, who in Cherokee county murdered Comeback Wolf, a full-blood Cherokee Indian.

A register is being prepared for the adjutant general in which will be entered the name of any enlisted man in the State Guard. In this way the exact status of each can be ascertained.

It is said the 5th Georgia regiment will take about 550 officers and men into camp at Wrightsville.

Four tobacco companies will have buyers on this market, these being the American, Imperial, Universal and Continental.

Examination of Teachers.

The examination of applicants for teachers certificates for this Craven County will be held in the city of New Bern, Thursday, July 10th, beginning at 10 a. m.

White teachers will be examined at the White Graded School building on Hancock street.

Colored teachers will be examined at the Colored Graded School building on West street.

First grade certificates are valid for two years.

Second and Third grade certificates are valid for only one year.

B. M. BARNES, Supt. of Schools.

Notice to Tax Listers.

The County Commissioners of Craven County will be in session on Monday the 14th it being the second Monday in July and will sit for a few days for the express purpose of rectifying any mistakes or errors on the tax list, in accordance with the law.

This is the time to correct mistakes, and it is hoped that every tax payer in the county, will examine his list, and if wrong, will come before the Board and have it rectified.

Don't neglect this.

E. R. JOHNS, Chm's Board of County Commissioners.
