Upon you rests the responsibility of getting your full allotment of brightness from your vacation. A vacation without a Kodak is a vacation wasted. Kodaks—there's none but Eastman's—cost from $1. to $15. every one good, add this to cost of films makes a total of from $3. to $17. which will be repaid by the nice pictures brought home as mementoes of a pleasant outing. TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

After a hard fight requiring 1200 ballots Mr. R. N. Page was nominated for representative from the 7th Congressional district by the democrats at Monroe, N. C. Friday.

Hon. Chan. E. Price is elected president of the State Bar Association which met at Asheville.

Prof. N. C. Newbold has been elected superintendent of the public schools in Roxboro, N. C.

The work of rescuing the imprisoned miners at the Johnstown mine is being carried on as rapidly as possible. 45 have been taken out alive and 143 dead bodies recovered there are still a few of the miners missing.

The Legend of Rougetort Cheese.
Rougetort cheese, like many other famous food productions, has its legend of accidental origin. A shepherd lad, being for once more lonesome than his could eat, while tending his flock of sheep, laid a large portion of his bread and cheese upon a natural shelf in one of the caverns nearby. Boylike, he forgot all about it until several months later on returning to that cavern he found his luncheon. The cheese, instead of being dried up or rotten, was rich, moist and creamy and streaked with greenish blue veins of mold, the remains of the bread which had lain on or under it. He probably told his mother of his discovery and shared his piece of cheese with others. The villagers were quick to recognize the improved texture and quality of the cheese, and henceforth all their cheeses were taken to these caves to ripen.
The caves are owned by a joint stock company, who employ about six hundred women to tend the cheese. Oak shelves on which the cheeses are placed and so arranged that each cheese may have one side next the cold wall of the cave give over 65,000 square yards of shelving space.

CECIL RHODES' WILL.

Provides for Proper Food for Students.
Cecil Rhodes in his late will left a bequest of $50,000 for the improvement of the high table for resident Fellows and tutors at Oriel College, Oxford.
"I am rejoiced to find that one millionaire has at last given some thought to the question of dietetics in educational institutions," says Elizabeth Cady Stanton in the New York Journal.
"One of the crying evils in our schools colleges and universities is the bad system employed in feeding growing boys and girls.
Students, above all other classes, need plenty of good, well-cooked food, and a happy state of mind in anticipation of their various meals.
Dyspepsia is one of the common diseases among the literary classes, and the foundation for this prevalent ailment is laid in our colleges and seminaries. Of what avail is a knowledge of arithmetic philosophy and government when health is seriously undermined?"
All this comes from ignorance as to the kind of food element the body must have to supply the daily loss from brain work. Bacon, meat, potatoes, white bread and coffee absolutely will not keep a hard brain worker well. A food expert perfected a perfect food for brain workers.
Not only in the schools but in the home should the food be looked after. The necessity of selecting food to supply proper nutrition to replace the daily waste of tissues of brains and nerves is of the greatest importance.
Grape-Nuts is the ideal food for young and old who use the brain actively, the disease of the grains being perfectly developed and the starch transformed into grape sugar in the most perfect manner. In this condition, Grape-Nuts is ready to be quickly absorbed into the blood and tissue without taxing the "intestinal digestive machinery." The phosphate of potassium found in the cereals is retained, and this with albumin, supplies the elements required to build the gray matter in brain and nerve centers.
Dr. Max Grimshaw of New York City recently called the attention of the Board of Education to the fact that "puffs of the defective class are apt to be weak physically. Temporary aberrations are often mistaken for real defects, when they are only symptoms of physical growth, of indigestion or other malady. Indigestion has been responsible for more than one talismant, and its cure has often been followed by a return to truthfulness."
In its predigested form, the daily use of Grape-Nuts for the central part of the meal, aids digestion, nourishes the body, tones up the nervous system and quickens the mental faculties.
Coffee should also be banished, for it unreasonably stimulates the brain and nerves so that proper nutrition is interfered with and they cannot get sufficient rest to take the food needed for the work they must do from day to day. For the morning beverage, Postum Food Coffee should be used in place of coffee.
Let the daily breakfast, particularly at this time of the year, consist of Grape-Nuts and cream, a little fruit, a cup of Postum Food Coffee, some whole wheat bread and possibly one or two soft-boiled eggs. It is impossible to make one have what a wonderful change in health, strength, comfort and ability would in our days when eating wrong food and living on substantially exhausted food.

RALEIGH.

Opinion Handed Down on Rockingham Bankruptcy Case.

Corporation Commission Gives Out Railway Assessments. Peculiar Situation in State League. 281 inmates in Baptist Orphanage.

RALEIGH, July 12.—The corporation commission today gave out the assessment of railway properties, this being as follows: Southern $15,825,977; Atlantic Coast Line $12,978,440; Seaboard Air-Line $8,712,728; Miscellaneous roads $4,105,526. The total is $43,705,871, which is $100,715 more than it was last year. This does not include steamboat lines, canals, street railways, etc.

A charter was granted today to the Blue Ridge Lumber Company of Woodlawn, McDowell county, capital $100,000, John R. Cokeran and others owners.

Judge Purnell today filed an opinion in a bankruptcy case from Rockingham, in which he said some very plain things about lawyers who try to get exorbitant fees out of bankruptcy cases. A lawyer in this case wanted a $500 fee on $650 assets. The judge says an attorney in a bankruptcy case must make a statement which will show plainly what he has received from his client. Another matter on which the judge dwells in the opinion is that persons cannot claim personal property exemption in cases in which they have sent property out of the State or attempted other frauds.

There is a new and rather sensational feature about the base ball situation. Charlotte voted itself out of the State League, but president Busbee of the League said today: "The league will hold onto the Charlotte players. Charlotte is trying to sell them all around, but they must be kept here and allotted to the clubs which are in the league. The constitution of the State League is plain on this point."

Mrs. Ellen Von Herrmann, mother of C. F. Von Herrmann, weather observer here, is dying.

James Pittman, who cut his cousin's throat at the Soldiers' Home is bound over to the Superior court, on his own recognizance. Pittman Harris, who was out was bound over in the same way.

There are now 231 inmates of the Baptist orphanage at Thomasville. There are forty boys in the Dennis Simmons memorial building. Mr. Simmons bequest to the orphanage is $70,000. Part of this will be used to make the memorial building accommodate 70 boys. The interest on the remainder of the fund will be used to maintain all the boys in the building.

It is asserted by some observant people that the democratic convention next week will nominate Clark for Chief Justice, Connor and Platt D. Walker for associate justices, Joyner for State Superintendent and Biddlingfield for corporation commissioner.

The following item was taken from the Manufacture Record, published at Baltimore: Just before the adjournment of Congress Hon. John H. Small, of the first district of North Carolina submitted, under the rules of the House of Representatives, some remarks which ought to have a wide influence for the welfare of his State. The remarks were quite extended and were a splendid description of the resources of North Carolina. With a great deal of pains Congressman Small had gathered and arranged in attractive and comprehensive form an array of facts about the climate, the people, the agriculture, the manufactures, the forest, mineral and timber resources, the fisheries and the educational conditions in the state. Circulated already in the Congressional Record in all parts of the country, the speech is to be scattered broadcast in North Carolina and other States. It is really a condensed guide to the investor and home-seeker, and ought to direct greater attention than ever to the opportunities in North Carolina, and to encourage the people of that State and of other States to avail themselves promptly of those opportunities.
