A lady in Baraboo, writes:-"I ha used coffee for years; it seemed one of the accessities of life. A few months ago my health, which has been slowly falling, became more impaired, and I knew that unless relief came from some source I would soon be a physical wreck. I was weak and nervous, had such sick headnes, no ambition, and felt tired of life. My husband was also losing his health He was troubled so much with indiges-tion that at time she could est only a few monthfuls of dry bread.

We concluded that coffee was slowly poisoning us and stopped it and used hot water. We felt somewhat better but, it water. We fell somewhat better but, in wasn't satisfactory. Pinally, we and Postum Coffee advertised, and bought a package. I followed directions for mak-ing carefully, allowing it to boil twenty minutes after it came to the boiling point and added cream, which turned it to the loveliest rich looking and tasting drink I ever any served at any table, and whave used Postum over since.
