Naval Reserves Disbanded.

Special to Journal.

RALEIGH, Aug. 22.—An order was issued today disbanding the Kinston Division Naval Brigade upon the recommendation of Inspector General.

Fatal Frestling.

As the result of a wrestling match, Thursday night, at Bellair, about four miles from the city, the body of a young strong negro youth now lies cold in death.

Tobias Peyton and Will Evans, were two strapping young colored men in prime health, and were employed on the farm of Mr. George Wilcox, at Bellair, Being friends their days work ended, they went to the house of Will in the absence of the others of the family, to have a good time. At length wrastling became a part of the good time, and both being well matched some severe tusselling ensued.

Tobias finally succeeded in throwing Will off and in twenty minutes the latter was dead.

Coroner J. W. Duguid, M. D., was notified of the occurrence, and summoning a jury, he went out yesterday and investigated the case. Finding no signs of violence on the body, a post mortem examination was deemed necessary and the jury rendered the following verdict. "The deceased, Will Evans, came to his death by a rupture of blood vessel in abdomen, accidently caused by wrestling with Tobias Peyton."

AN ALL NIGHT SESSION.

And 310 Ballots Required to Secure a Nomination in the Congressional Convention, 6th District.

After an all-night session the Democratic congressional convention of the sixth district nominated Gilbert B. Patterson of Robeson county.

At 3:30 o'clock Friday morning there were evidences that the end was near. Many delegates were asleep in the hall. Leading men—Hale, Brown and Patterson—were in deep conference, and the prediction was made of a break. But Chairman Myrover called ballot after ballot without change of much importance. Once N. A. Sinclair, chairman of the Cumberland delegation cast 54 votes of that county for Patterson. In an instant there were wild yells, and reporters jumped to their feet and skurried to their tables. The alarm was false, and the balloting continued. At 5:45 o'clock the vote cast was: Bellamy 121, Patterson 90, Hale 55, and Brown 54: and this went on quietly till the 300th ballot Cumberland now throwing her vote to Patterson and then to Brown.

On the 303rd ballot the beginning of the end was clearly at hand. McLean of Robeson rushed across the hall, followed by McCormack to the delegation of Columbus. Just as the 310th ballot was called there was indescribable excitement as the voting began, Bladen giving Patterson 14, Columbus 16½, Cumberland 55, Harnett 8, and Robeson 82, making his total 174½. The convention hall rang with yells for five minutes. Messrs McIntyre of Robeson, Sinclair of Cumberland and Stewart of Harnett a committee, escorted Mr. Patterson to the hall where he eloquently addressed the convention, which adjourned after one of the stormiest sessions ever held in North Carolina.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

Why Change Officers.

MR. EDITOR:—What does it matter what Mr. Green said or what any of the County officers may have said in connection with being candidates for office two years ago. The continued talk of it by those interested is becoming tiresome now. It is sufficient that the present officers are good ones and accommodating to the public, and the people are satisfied for them to remain. It is all the more reason why we should retain an officer who has expressed willingness to retire, especially when they are good and accommodating officers.

What is the use of changing officers who, we are satisfied with simply to let another fellow get in.

It is now time to return to the policy of the office seeking the man, and we believe that with Mr. Guion in the Legislature and the present County officers returned, a long step will be made toward that end and the County's affairs will be in good and capable hands.

TOBACCO BREAKS

Yesterday. Warehouses Busy. Crop Moving Briskly. Big Prices Paid for Week. Planters Smiling. Merchants Hustling.

Early yesterday morning, despite the rain of the night before, long trains of carts and wagons could be seen wending their ways to the two warehouses in this city, until by noon the floors of the Planters and Farmers, were thickly covered with piles of the golden week.

Two breaks were made at the Farmers yesterday, one in the fore and one in the afternoon. Ten to twelve thousand pounds were knocked down at from $6.00, all the way to $35.00. Bidding was brisk and in earnest.

The Planters did herself proud, and all the afternoon handlers were busy clearing her floor for another big install ment. Some of the prices paid there yesterday may be found in another column.

Yesterday looked like Farmers' Day in the city. After the breaks many of their smiling faces were noticed on the streets: Everybody seemed pleased and satisfied, and many families were made happy by the bundles that were carried home last night.

Grocerymen, dry goodsmen, haberdashers, furniture dealers, restaurant people, "Booze" distributors, in fact everybody were hustling yesterday, and many dollars exchanged hands, and as many hearts were gladdened.

Even the crafty politicians take advantage of the good feeling induced by these good tobacco breaks to get in his wily work, and many can be seen hanging out at the warehouse doors in wait for their prey.

Don't fail to try our 40 cent Tea, it is a goer and pleases them all at J. R. Parker Jr.
