AROUND AND ABOUT.

Cotton sold at 84 cents on the local market yesterday.

A new walk is being made in front of the A & N C depot.

The markets will be found on the second page of this issue.

Mr. Thorne of Norfolk is conducting a writing school in the Academy building.

The city authorities are killing unclean dogs and consequently the streets are a little free from an unmitigated nuisance.

A false alarm was turned in from box 54 shortly after midnight Wednesday. A repetition of this offense may cause some trouble.

The Rivers Co. presenting the Lonely Widow will appear at the opera house next Monday night. The item concerning the cancellation was a mistake.

Mr. N. M. Arnold of Craven county and Mr. W. L. Barnett, have accepted positions with J. R. Parker Jr the Broad street grocer and will be glad to greet their friends at the store.

Preparations for the Elks Carnival and Street Fair are progressing finely and the people are assured of five days of consummate mirth. The best of entertainments enterprises have been engaged. Remember, its Oct. 6 to 11.

Hon. E. W. Pou who will speak at the Court house next Monday evening is one of the brilliant orators whom the campaign committee sent to Maine a few weeks ago. Mr. Pou is a gentleman of more than state wide fame as a speaker. He is a master of his subject.

Mr. G. N. Ennett is a versatile man. He can give you something to edify your mind or can relieve you of an aching tooth with equal cheerfulness. Yesterday a gentleman complained to him that he was suffering from an aching tooth, with all the erudition of a D. D. S. he examined the man's mouth and located the offending member; he then improvised a pair of forceps out of some tweezers and yanked the fang with the skill of a veteran dentist. Hereafter people with an aching tooth will remember Mr. Ennett.

Mr. R. Duffy, of Catherine Lake, is in the city today.

Mrs. S. E. Dawson has returned from a visit to New York.

Mr. C. L. Ives, left yesterday for New York, on a business trip.

Mrs. Earl Rivenbark who has been the guest of her mother, Mrs. T. J. Baxter returned to her home in Goldboro yesterday.

Mr. Harry Pennypacker, representing the Human Hearts Company, was here yesterday, and goes to Wilmington, N. C. today.

Miss Jeannette Jones has returned from New York where she went to inspect the new millinery fashions with Miss Mamie Dawson.

Miss Smallwood's School. Miss Smallwood will re-open her school Monday, October 6th. Those desiring places apply to her at her residence, 116 Craven street, on Thursdays and Fridays from four to six o'clock.

An Appreciated Play. Norfolk Virginian Pilot Sept. 10th.

W. E. Nankeville's beautiful idyl of the Arkansas hills, "Human Hearts," drew an audience last night, despite the heavy rain, that filled nearly every seat in the Academy of Music. This strong play was presented here last season for the first time and the company presenting it this year is even better than the excellent company of last year. "Human Hearts" is one of the strong dramas that, while strong in thrilling situations is far above melodrama. It possesses a well defined plot and plainly tells the story of human passions, love, fidelity, dishonor, shame and death. The part of the hero of the play, Tom Logan, is ably taken by E. P. Sullivan. The parts of male and female villain were most acceptably filled by Edwin B. Bally and Miss Grace Lockwood. That their efforts succeeded was evidenced by the loud applause for Mr. Sullivan and the storm of misgibless and applause for the male and female villains. Little Master Percy well sustained the child part of Little Grace Logan. The other members of the company also ably filled their roles. The performance was very well received and seldom is seen an audience more appreciative than the large one that greeted the play last night.

Fresh Grape-Nuts, Postum Cereal, Saratoga Chips and Oat Flakes at J. R. Parker, Jr's.

There are No Flies on the Oaks Market.

PEPSI-COLA Is the most refreshing and invigorating drink at Soda Fountains. Cures headache and improves the appetite. Try it for your stomach's sake. 5c.

ANOTHER BIG DAY.

One of the Best Tobacco Breaks of the Season.

The biggest tobacco break that has yet been made was held yesterday when 75,000 pounds went "under the hammer," so to speak, at prices that made the farmers heart glad.

The scene was lively and interesting at the warehouses. A large crowd gathered to hear the golden wood rattled off.

Not one farmer gave any evidence he thought he could do better elsewhere. It is a fact worthy of note that planters from quite distant points are beginning to find that the New Bern market is offering them good prices.

The manager of the Planters warehouse, Mr. Hester, was kept busy till late yesterday afternoon writing out checks. More money has crossed the bank counters on account of these tobacco sales than any other transaction in which the farmer is concerned during the year.

The prices paid were not more than the goods called for but they were plenty. They ranged from $7.50 to $40.00.

Hustled For Marbles.

The Sunday School class of Miss Fannie Holland at the First Baptist Church gave a very enjoyable "marble party" on the church lawn yesterday afternoon.

The scheme of the play was to find marbles which were hid in different places and the one finding the most was given a prize. The prize was won by George Holland. Fine refreshments were served.

TRENTON.

Prof. W. H. Hammond will open school in Trenton, Monday, Sept. 22. If any one is going off to school, they would do well to come here.

The colored base ball teams of Trenton and Pollocksville played a match game at Pollocksville Saturday. Trenton won by a score of 10 to 2.

A marriage was solemnized by Rev. D. C. Geddie in the M. E. church yesterday at 1.30 o'clock. The contracting parties were Rev. L. Johnson, of Fayetteville and Miss Virginia Windley, of this place. Mr. T. A. Windley was best man and Miss Cattie Koonce was maid-of-honor. Messrs. Jno. R. Barker and W. M. Whitaker, were ushers, and Misses Mildred McDaniel and Etta Burt were flower girls. Mendelsohn's wedding march was beautifully rendered by Miss Birdie Koonce. After the ceremony the bridal party left for the home of the brides mother, Mrs. Indiana Windley, where congratulations were extended. Rev. and Mrs. L. Johnson left at 4 o'clock to meet the 7 o'clock train at Core Creek to go to Fayetteville, where Mr. Johnson is stationed.

IN MEMORIAM.

Mrs. Margaret S. Smallwood, nee Miss Margaret S. Waters, was born at New Town, Long Island, Dec. 25, 1834.

She was married to Dr. Edward S. Smallwood, New Bern, N. C., Feb. 10, 1850, by Rev. W. N. Hawks, rector of Christ Episcopal church, New Bern, N. C.

She survived her husband about 21 years, and died Aug. 27, 1902, and was laid to rest by the remains of her husband, in Cedar Grove Cemetery, New Bern, N. C., Aug. 28, 1902.

She was a lovely, lovable woman. Her conspicuous characteristic was the adaptation that made the central figure of the home, where she had the admiration, devoted love, and the filial loyalty of both sons and daughters. Hers was a character of remarkable strength, becoming a woman who finds it her lot to rule her house alone, yet it had that softening and sweetening gentleness which made it beautiful and attractive. Thus she won from her children the tenderest devotion, and leaves with them the sweetest memories of a noble and tender mother—and they "arise up and call her blessed."

Hers was the good fortune to possess the love and admiration of many friends. These she numbered in the home of her childhood, as well as in New Bern, where she spent her life. There is an aching void in their hearts, as they mourn, with her loved, the death of a friend.

Her influence bids all to strive to leave behind them the testimony of a noble and useful life. This tribute would be incomplete without mention of Mrs. Smallwood as a Christian. In early years she took her stand for Christ, and remained ever a faithful and true witness. She joined the Presbyterian church, New Bern, N. C., June 19, 1876, and was a devoted, faithful member, till the time of her death.

Her life was a beautiful exemplification of the principles of the Gospel. One observing her godly walk was reminded of this scripture: "The hoary head is a crown of glory, if it be found in the way of righteousness."

She had lived almost 4 score years, realizing the meaning of this promise, "Thou shalt come to thy grave in a full age, like as a stock of corn cometh in in his season."

We are confident that her spirit was greeted with, "well done good and faithful servant. Enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

A MODERN PHARMACY.

The Pleasant and Convenient Drug Store of D. R. Davis.

Mr. D. R. Davis has a perfect right to be proud of his drug store which is one of the neatest and best arranged in the city. Carpenters and painters have worked a transformation pleasant to behold and one can but notice the improved appearance of the store. He surely is deserving of high praise for having such pleasant quarters.

An addition of fifteen feet has been added to the rear of the building and a new plate glass front gives a metropolitan air to the place. The building has been painted a rich olive green color.

On the inside a metal ceiling designed by the Penn Metal Ceiling Co., of Philadelphia has been put in and painted by Mr. Ed Berry. The walls have also been adorned with light tints of green.

A beautiful soda water fountain made of solid Mexican onyx with a rich mahogany top made after the colonial style makes a very attractive place for the dispensing of hot weather drinks. The counter is of cherry and finely carved.

The fixtures are made by the Reine Bros., and Sannon, of Baltimore. They consist of cherry counters, patent medicine case, tincture shelving, wrapping counter prescription case with beautiful plate glass mirror. The case has all modern appliance for prescription work. On the counters are five plate glass show cases of the newest designs.

We are still selling meat at 12c per pound, not 20c as reported, Oaks Market.

Fresh lot Force Food just received those having tickets can send them in with 5 cents and get a 15 cents package at J. R. Parker Jr.

Public Speaking, E. W. Pou.

Hon. E. W. Pou will address the citizens of New Bern on Monday night September 15th, 1902, in the Court House at 8.30 p. m. Mr. Pou is one of the finest orators in North Carolina, being the present Congressman from the Fourth District. Let everybody come out and hear the issues of this campaign discussed.
