A startling effect.

"Was that an earthquake last night?" inquired the guest of the household.

"Did you hear it? We hoped you wouldn't," said the polite hostess. "You see, we have a cousin visiting us from Chicago. She was at a dancing party last night and came in rather late, and I think she must have dropped one of her shoes."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

POOLED HIM.

But in the Pleasant Ways of Peace.

Good thing some men are married. Their wives keep a sensible watch over them, and have a way to help overcome their troubles.

Mr. E. Lewis, of Shamko, Ore., was located for several years at various points in South America and fell into the native custom of frequently drinking coffee. He says: "I took to using it the same as those nervous, excitable people in South and Central America. They make very black coffee and it becomes more or less an interesting beverage. At the end of about four months I began having severe sick headaches and nervousness, but supposed it was from the tropical sun. At last my wife became alarmed at my headaches and stomach trouble. She tried to induce me to quit drinking coffee, but my troubles to that, but I continued to use it.

She read of Postum Food Coffee, and ordered some from the States, but kept it secret from me. The very first time she made it, when I came in for my coffee and roll, I noticed that peculiar pleasant flavor of Postum, and asked her what it was, she said it was her new brand of coffee and asked me how I liked it. I tried two cups of it with rich "Lando-de-Cream," which is used by everyone as milk in Panama, and thought it excellent. After a couple of days my headaches stopped, and in a short while my nervousness disappeared as if by magic. I have been using nothing but Postum for the past year, and have been completely cured, and my wife has also been cured of her troubles by changing to Postum and she shall never go back to coffee again."

AS TO REGISTRATION.

Speculation as to Number Negroes Registering.

Crop Estimates. State Charter. Supreme Court. Drummers Say Business is Good. Coal Famine Catches Public Institutions.

RALPH, Oct. 13.—While it is the view of such democratic leaders as Chairman Simmons that the negro vote this year will be perhaps 15,000 or 20,000, some persons express a very positive belief that it will not exceed 10,000. In some sections of the State some registrars are following what may be termed a policy of exclusion of negro voters. This is reprehended by Chairman Simmons, who says it is really very rare. He says more negroes will register under the grand father clause than was expected. Those who can thus register are the descendants of free negroes who could vote prior to 1835, those who have white mothers and those who are descended from negroes who prior to 1837 in which they were qualified to vote. Chairman Simmons says the registration will be fairly heavy. It will be of course larger than the vote. He urges Democrats to get as full a registration as possible and after that is done to get as large a vote as possible. There are persons who say that the smartest thing the negroes could do would be not to register or vote at all; that this would ally practically all the feeling against them, which arises out of politics and their use of the franchise.

It is said by some cotton growers that the crop in this section will be as much as 90 per cent. John S. Cunningham says the tobacco crop will reach that figure.

A charter is granted by the State to the Atlas Table Company of Lexington, capital $10,000.

The Supreme Court will this week hear arguments in appeals from the 8th district.

Commercial travellers say that business is very good, particularly in eastern North Carolina. In the tobacco region, where more money is in circulation than ever before and where along all lines there is prosperity.

A great many people and public institutions too are caught in the grip of the coal famine. The government building here has no coal. There is a contract to furnish it, but the contractor can not get the coal. There was neglect to put this in early in the summer.

The State tobacco-growers association will hold its annual meeting here on Thursday of the State Fair and its president says he expects a great attendance.

The last arrivals at the penitentiary are Joe Cole, Jr., and Charles Ferguson, alias Thompson, accessories to the murder of road master Stevens on a S. A. L. train. They get 30 years.

RENTON.

Oct. 11.—Miss Jennie Monk is visiting her brother, Dr. H. G. Monk.

Mr. Jno. R. Barker, who has been attending Trinity College, returned home last night.

Storm parties have been all the rage for the past week or two.

Several new pianos have come in Trenton this week. The old ones are being exchanged and some of them are being placed in other homes of the town.

Quite a number of young people are having their "beauty" struck. The photographer has been very busy this week. The camera has been tested so others need not be afraid.

Mr. Herbert Barbour, of Swansboro is in Trenton working at the carpenter's trade. Trust he will be successful in his undertaking.

There was a bustling business carried on in Trenton yesterday. The trade is increasing. There was right much cotton on the market, and it was a very good price. Trenton is a fine cotton market.

A new party is being put on the warehouse which belongs to the steamer Howard. They need more room to store the goods.

Several new buildings are being erected on the place of Mr. James Redmond, and things are being changed around which adds greatly to the looks of the place.

There are a few cases of diphtheria in the county, but they are getting along alright so the Doctor says. We trust however that it will not spread.

Mr. F. W. Foscoe is the registrar of Trenton precinct. He has refused several negroes registering, and they seemed to be sad and somewhat "puffed up."

Trenton was greeted this morning with a nice rain. It lasted until ten o'clock.

The county candidates are canvassing the county making "big speeches" at various places at different times. They speak at Tusculum the 9th, Hon. C. R. Thomas, the candidate for Congress, will be with them.

The correspondent at Merriam who signs his name "Grit" wishes to know of the whereabouts of "Plink" in this place. In reply will say that Plink is still in the land of the living, and is not ready to die yet. The items have been shown, it's so scarce that the cowbird's and to see her light. Can stand most anything. Wonder what Grit could stand to see? If Grit wants to sing mad, or do what Plink is ready at any time.
