WINTHROP

Fine Sport in Hunting. Shot a Pelican. Persepolis.

Oct. 22.—The meeting at South River is progressing finely. Mr. Henry Marshall is here on business connected with the Roper Lumber Co.

Miss Pearl Taylor was a very welcome caller at Winthrop Tuesday.

Sporting men on board the tug Winthrop are having good luck shooting squirrels and woodpeckers.

What has happened to old Harlowe? We never hear from there in the Journal at all. We don't hear from Dover either. We are interested in both these places and should like to hear from them through the Journal.

Mrs. A. L. Becton returned home Wednesday from a visit to her parents in Foreman.

Capt. W. G. Dixon shot and killed a pelican a short time ago. The first one we have ever heard of being killed in North Carolina. Capt. Will is a good marksman with a rifle.

Mr. A. D. Holton left this week for Jones' Bay where he will engage in the lumber business.

COVE.

Oct. 12.—Cotton picking and bird hunting in the order of the day and bird the topic of the conversation.

Mr. M. A. Hill visited the future Mrs. Hill down the road Sunday.

Miss Lizette Ewell spent Saturday and Sunday in New Bern and says she did not catch the small pox.

Miss Nellie Taylor and Mr. E. J. Hines visited near Ft. Bernwell Sunday evening.

Wonder if grapes will be ripe by next Sunday.

A car load of people went from here to New Bern Saturday night on a pleasure trip, this don't seem like we are afraid of New Bern.

The above was a section car with a capacity of only 6.

Mr. Fred Ipeck spent Sunday at the Railroad bridge, Core Creek bridge, we mean.

Mr. J. S. Roberson our registrar is doing some good work. He is faithful to his post and every effort of his is being exhausted in seeing that no white person is left out.

The heaviest pumpkin of the season is to be seen at the store of Messrs. Eubanks and McCoy, weighing 100 lbs. 23 boxes of cotton were sold on our market Monday, pretty good we think in our market is young and in its infancy.

We hope to see every white man who has not registered come for the books Saturday and attend to this important matter.

ALLURING COFFEE

Nearly Killed the Horse.

When one of the family latch, Mother seems to be the only person who can tenderly nurse the patient back to health. But we forget sometimes that it is pretty hard on Mother.

Mrs. Probst of Albany, Ore., says—“About twenty-seven months ago, Father suffered with a stroke of paralysis, something like to his bed for months, and as he wished Mother with him constantly, his care is a great measure fall to her lot. She was seventy-four years old and through constant attendance upon my father, lost both sleep and rest, and began drinking coffee in quantities until finally she became very weak, nervous and ill herself.

By her physician's order, she began giving Father both Postum Food Coffee and Grape-Nuts, and in that way began using both herself. The effect was very noticeable. Father improved rapidly, and Mother regained her strength and health, and now both are well and strong. Mother says it is all due to the combined use of both Postum and Grape-Nuts.”

RALEIGH.

Seaboard Air Line Wreck Due To Flagman.

Only $4500. Damage Done. Light Registration in Wake. Reports on State Registration Soon. Notable Society Wedding.

RALEIGH, Oct. 22.—The registration in Raleigh township is only about 1800. It is said that 2076 whites paid poll tax or are free from it. There were two years ago 1600 negro voters. Of these only about 183 have registered.

It is said that the damage to the Seaboard Air Line by the wreck which occurred at Rockingham last Sunday was only $3000. Engineer Robertson, who was hurt, will recover.

This wreck was entirely due to the carelessness of a flagman. He opened the switch after two trains had passed and the third train dashed into it. When the engine was only 200 feet distance its fireman saw the flagman frantically waving a flag, but was too late. These instances of carelessness move a railway official to say that there ought to be a law to punish carelessness. He expresses the belief that such punishment would check much of the damage and loss of life caused by open switches, disobedience of orders, etc.

President Joseph G. Brown of the Citizens National Bank here accepts an invitation to deliver an address on the New South, at the annual meeting of the American Bankers' Association at New Orleans November 11-13. Among the other speakers will be Messrs. Dawes and Ridgely.

President J. A. Long of the State Fair is here. He is greatly pleased at the outlook and says the railroads are cooperating very heartily and promise plenty of cars and trains.

Democratic State Chairman Simmons will in a few days give out the figures as to the registration, which closes Saturday. He will get reports promptly, showing the white and colored registration.

Apples for the great apple show at the State Fair are arriving rapidly at the agricultural department. Moses Cone sends 39 varieties from his orchard in Watsuga county.

At Christ church this evening there was a notable assemblage of society people to attend the wedding of Prof. Henry M. Wilson and Miss Mary A. Turner. Prof. Wilson is in charge of the textile department of the Agricultural and Mechanical College here. The bride is a daughter of Dr. Vines E. Turner. She was attended to the altar by her cousin, Miss Sadie Root of Raleigh as maid of honor, and by Misses Sophy Duabee, Eliza Duabee and Florence Boylan of Raleigh, Miss India Turner of Quitman Ga., Miss Margaret Oltner and Miss Elsie Wilson of Baltimore, as bridesmaids. The best man was Mr. Albert Carroll of Baltimore and the groomsmen were Dr. Charles B. Turner, of Philadelphia, Henry G. Turner, Watkins Roberts, of Raleigh, David Clark of Charlotte, Charles McCreery of Birmingham, Ala. Directly after the wedding there was a reception at the home of the bride's parents.

His Observation.

“Why don't you try to do something for your country?” asked the earnest citizen.

“Young man,” answered Senator Borah, “I have read history, and I have observed that all of the troubles countries ever have are made by people who claim to be trying to do something for them.”—Washington Star.

Not Inappropriate.

Church—I see it's the thing now for a man to have his initials on the back of his automobile.

Gothen—Yes; that is so one can tell who the fellow is who owns it.

“Well, that fellow who took up all the road had E. O. G. on the back of his”—Yonkers Statesman.

Market Letter on Cotton.

By private wire, J. E. Latham & Co.

New York, Oct. 22.—We don't think we overstate the case when we say that October is about the worst month in the year. It does not make any difference whether a man is long or shorter has any interest at all, the month is disgustful. This is due to weather. There is a general feeling that a few good days in October adds several thousand bales to the crop. Before frost actually comes this is aggregated until the crop is augmented by about a million bales, and it would seem as though there was a limit to the crop. As long as weather keeps good and operators refuse to buy no material advance can be expected. We don't like to advise heavy buying in the Fall of the year, at least until reports begin to fall off. The situation though, does seem favorable to buyers. Even though the crop is 10,000,000 bales this season higher prices next spring. Anyone buying cotton now must expect this uncertainty for a time. There is not likely to be much of an advance as long as weather keeps good. Should we get a falling off next week in receipts we might have a more active market. In the light of fine weather there was very little weakness on the whole and we are satisfied with the market. As we have said before we expect a steady market with a steady increase in price.
