RALEIGH

Continued Large Crowds Attend State Fair.

Good Conduct on Part of Visitors. Suicide on Account of Despondency at Rocky Mount Casino to be Built at Pinehurst.

RALEIGH, Oct. 30.—Yesterday broke the record for any Wednesday during all the long series of State Fairs, and today, the great day, was likewise a record breaker. The city was packed to the limit with visitors, the trains brought in fresh thousands during the day and by noon the grounds at the Fair, spacious as they are, were so full that walking was by no means easy.

The farmers and their families came in today from all parts of the county, in their vehicles, happy and with money in their pockets.

The weather was superb, even finer than yesterday. There was a white frost, but a little later the air became warm.

It was re-union day. It was the day for meeting and shaking hands. There was a half holiday in the city. The departments in the capital were closed. The Supreme Court met at 9 and was in session only an hour.

Everybody talked about the Fair and about yesterday's splendid pageant. All the visitors say it is the top-notch Fair.

The industrial plants shut down and all hands went to the Fair Schools from various parts of the State were represented. The inmates of various State institutions were present in large numbers.

At noon today chief of police Mullen said no accidents had occurred and that no robberies were reported. The good behavior of the people and the almost total absence of drunkenness were much remarked.

Virginians were here in large numbers and some South Carolinians. There were solid trains from the Chesapeake & Ohio and the Norfolk & Western railways, it being the first time these have ever run here.

The Republican executive committee of this Congressional district was in session here last night, but made no nomination.

News reached here today of the suicide at Rocky Mount this morning of John W. Phillips, a brother of ex-Judge Fred Phillips and a brother-in-law of John P. Arrington. He blew out his brains with a revolver. For about year he was chief of police at Rocky Mount. His age was 58. Despondency, due to reverses, is said to have caused the suicide.

It is learned today that work is to begin at once on a casino at Pinehurst, the winter resort and model town in Moore county, owned entirely by Leonard Turk of Boston. The building will be 300x600 feet and of beautiful design. It will be one of the largest structures in the State.

The North Carolina Horticultural Society has selected J. Van Lindley of Guilford county president and has elected T. K. Brewer secretary.

The State Farmers' Association's officers are all continued for another year. At its meeting here addresses were delivered by S. B. Alexander, J. Bryan Grimes and W. A. Darden.

DOBBS.
Oct. 29.—Miss Lizzie Lancaster and Miss McLaughlin left Monday for a visit to Winterville. They will also attend the Christian Convention at Wilson.

Misses Hattie Dixon, Lottie Wilcox and Mr. Walter Dixon of Bellair attended church here Sunday.

Mr. J. B. Hill went to Kinston Tuesday. We guess he had "special" business, as we notice he has about completed his new dwelling.

Several people from Jasper attended church Sunday, among whom were Miss Meredith and Mr. W. R. Dixon.

Mrs. Lela Lathrop of Vanceboro and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Lancaster went on the Carolina to New Bern Monday. The small pos scars has kept a great many away from New Bern, but we believe they are heading that way again.

Miss Aye Huff and brother John of Maple Cypress attended church here Sunday.

Rev. Mr. Tyndall of Wilson filled his regular appointment at Ellsworth Sunday and preached to a large congregation. After services the church met and elected delegates to the Convention at Wilson. Mrs. Charles Lancaster, and Mr. J. O. Griffin were elected and left Tuesday. Mrs. J. O. Griffin also accompanied them.

A collection of $400 was taken up to send to the convention. Mr. Tyndall will preach every fourth Sunday at 8 o'clock.
