RALBIEH, November 1.—Democratic late chairmen Simpons was interglew-Binds chairman Simpless was intercieved by your correspondent regarding the election prospect, and said: "In the lagistature there will be only about 30 votes not Demogratic. We will elect all our Congressuss. We will energy the State by from 50,000 to 60,000 majority. The whites registered better than expected. Full reports are not yet in from over half the counties. I have partial reports from nearly all. The megroe vote will not be much over 8,000. The negroes as a rule did not sak for registration. There is a larger registration of segroes here in Wake and in Alexance than in any other counties. The negroes resent the way in which Benator Pritchard treated them. Hence they did not seek to register."

Josephus Daniels was present when these inquiries were made of the chairman, and his views were also asked. He said, "Mr. Stimmons' figures are, I am sure, very correct. We will have 100 of the 130 members of the lower house, and we will have 45 of the 30 senators. We will carry the State by not less than 50, 000 majority. and if there is a big vote we will carry it by a yet larger majority. We will elect all the Congressmen."

Market Letter on Cotton.

By private wire, J. E Latham & Co.

Naw Yone, November 1.—There are several things about the market that require thought. Bulls or those looking for higher prices may be able to explain them. To us they are ominous and we are frank to say aigns of the times are not such as to encourage buyers. In the first place every firm in the market in connection with the south is selling for delivery in December. Today one of the most conservative traders in New York sold 5,000 bales against cotton of York sold 5,000 bales against cotton of fered him in the south. The action of the market, the price of southern mar
