Yes, August Flower still has the lar est sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers' and grandmoth ers' never thought of using anything else for Indigestion or Biliouaness. Doc tors were scarce, and they seldom heard of Appendicitis, Nervous Prostration or Heart fallure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the sysem, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is noth ing serious the matter with you. You can get this reliable remedy at your druggist. "Formerly there was no classification of any kind. American life was a chaos, socially, full of all sorts of anomalies and incongruities. Every section of the country had its own standard of distinction, and this stand ard was recognized and respected no where else. Thus in New England literary, scholastic or theological emihence was held to confer a certain cachet upon those who had obtained it. In the microcosm of which Philade phia used to be the center ancestry counted most of all. This was also true to some extent of the south, yet there as in the west, political prominence carried with it social leadership. New York-always more or less impossible to formulate-was a place where there existed social wheels within whee and social planes that never touched though, on the whole, perhaps the com-bination of ancestry and money meant in those days what money alone means at the present time."

It is from these constant sufferers that the great army of rheumatic cripples is recruited. Their bodies are worn out by the incessant pains and the joints become so stiffened and bent that they are at last compelled to give up or hobble about on crutches. Nobody ever outlived Rheumatism; the disease never loosens its grip or leaves of its own accord, but must be driven out by intelligent and persistent treatment through the blood, for Rheumatism of every variety and form is caused by an over acid condition of the blood, and the deposit in muscles, joints and nerves of corrosive poisons and gritty particles, and it is these irritating substances that produce the inflammation, swelling and pains,
