Market Letter on Cotton.
 By private wire, J. H. Latham & Co.

New York, November 10.—After Saturday's temporary advance, we were treated to another break this a. m. and only once more obliged to report new low levels. March proved weakest when the break came selling down to 8c, early, then to 7.94, January sold at 8.07, as compared with 8.16 the low last week. There was again an attempt to hold the market by purchase of May, but this did no good. It was the January business that did the trick. A sharp break in stocks helped to unsettle cotton, and it looked very much as though the January people had all they could do to look after what they had, to say nothing of trying to hold the price by buying more. During early p. m. January sold at 8.06, to May 8.08. The market begins to look better on every break in January, that lessens the premium. If we could be confident the January people had been forced to sell a good share of their cotton, we would advise buying with more confidence. This is the one menacing factor. It's carrying prices lower than naturally expected—as we said last week cotton should be bought on breaks, profits should be taken on advances, as the market will be unsettled and irregular at best.

Does it Pay to Buy Cheap?
 A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the ONLY remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Roche's German Balm." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but always inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try ONE bottle. Recommended many years by all druggists in the world. You can get this reliable remedy at all druggists. Price 25c and 75c.

CHILDREN'S HOME
 A Well Run Place.
 At a children's home in Fort Wayne, Ind. they have entirely abandoned coffee because of the bad effect of it.
 Mrs. M. B. Gordine, who is the matron is meeting with great success. She was compelled four years ago to discontinue the use of coffee and after making several experiments concluded that Postum filled the bill and has used it ever since.
 She has charge of a family of children numbering from 25 to 30 and writes me, "I give Postum Coffee freely, using no coffee at all. The children are always well, we have had no sickness for two years, except such as they contract at school like whooping cough, measles, etc. No mumps attacks, no fevers, no skin diseases. The children are all plump and in good condition. Often complain, not so yellow or muddy looking than well, we have had no sickness for two years, except such as they contract at school like whooping cough, measles, etc. We always make Postum variety according to directions and it gives pleasure and health to all."

Invaluable for cuts, burns, bruises, sprains, lacerations, eczema, better, salt rheum, and all other skin diseases. Look for the name DeWitt on the package—all others are cheap, worth less counterfeits. F. S. Duff.

Cosmopolitan for November.
 It is said that the world cannot expect to see a great general officer than about once in a century. This country certainly has outgrown that role, for possibly the great "Captains of Industry" have all the qualities of generalship, and the roll of their names goes up into the heavens. Five of them are described in the November Cosmopolitan—James R. Keen, the masterful strategist of Wall Street; Robert Hoe, who has advanced the art of printing as far as Gutenberg himself did in his day; Winfield Scott Stratton, the carpenter, who uncovered the riches of the Colorado mountains; Tom Johnson, the singular compound of idealism and business, and Ferdinand William Roebing, who can cross the continent by five different routes without ever losing sight of the wires by which he has bound the most distant communities together.

Presence of Head.
 M. Grey when president of France on one occasion extricated himself from a predicament with wonderful presence of mind. He was being conducted around the salon by an eminent artist, when he saw a painting which displeased him. "What a dandy!" he exclaimed. "Whose is it?" "That picture," M. de President, "is my own work." "Ah!" said the president without any sign of embarrassment at his awkward mistake, "in one country, when we particularly wish to purchase a thing, we always begin by running it down." And, true to his part, he purchased the offending painting there and then.

His Many Thoughts.
 "Don't you sometimes have thoughts," asked the youthful young thing, "that are absolutely unnumberable?"
 "I do, indeed," answered the old poet. "And sometimes when I am sitting for a rhyme that won't come I have thoughts that are absolutely unnumberable." —Chicago Tribune.

The Soap.
 Daintiest (at the boarding house) had gotten Mrs. Simmons, but last night she was gone. She had yesterday, washed over?
 "Not at all," answered Miss Carolyn. "I was too generous to want the apple all for herself, and Adam was not gentleman enough to let her have it." —Washington Star.

RALEIGH.

Lighting Rod Agents Must Pay A Tax.
 Pastor To Be Called. Secretary Bruner Sick. Advised of Small Fox at Charlotte. Examination of Penitentiary. Republican Claim.
 RALEIGH, Nov. 10.—The Supreme Court will tomorrow call the appeal docket from the 13th district.
 It is understood that Rev. Dr. Cave of Paducah, Kentucky, will be invited to become pastor of the First Presbyterian church here.
 The State today authorized the Roanoke Rapids Power company to reduce its shares to $10 each.
 State Treasurer Lacy today made a ruling that all lightning rod agents, no matter in what way they obtain the rods must pay license tax. The tax is upon their business of putting up the rods, and not for the material.
 Secretary T. K. Bruner of the State Agricultural department, is quite sick at his home here.
 Both of the sick children of Gov. Aycock were better today.
 The State board of health is advised of the existence of a number of cases of small pox at Charlotte and its vicinity.
 The State board of examiners of public institutions is here, and is now examining the penitentiary. This is the last of the institutions and it will make up its report and place it in the hands of the Governor this week or early next week.
 The Republicans are claiming now that they got more white votes at the election last Tuesday than they did in 1900.

Two Points of Difference.
 "The difference between the cow and the milkman," said the gentleman with a rare memory—for jests, "is that the cow gives pure milk."
 "There is another difference," retorted the milkman. "The cow doesn't give credit."
 For every self made man in the world there are ten who are self unmade.—Chicago News.
