ONCE RAN WAR BLOCKADES.

New York Sun. Another old timer, the former blockade running steamship and Confederate warship Victory, now sailing under the name of the Gulf Stream, is probably doomed to leave her, bones on the New Jersey coast at Avalon, near Cape May. She left this port yesterday with a general cargo for Philadelphia and got aground during the dense fog. The life savers went to her in their surf boat and took off the crew, as it was eared the vessel would break up.

The Gulf Stream was built in Philadelphia in 1861 and started her voyage under the name of the North Carolina Afterward her name was changed to the Victory. Wher the Federal Government got hold of her she was named th

ATLANTIC] CITY, N. J., Jan. 30. While running by dead reckoning through the dense fog which envelope his coast last night the steamship Gulf Stream, plying between New York and Philadelphia grounded on the bar opposite Latham's life saving station wenty miles south of this city. The steamship lies in a very bad condition and will most likely be a total loss. The life saving crew from Latham's station landed the steamship crew of twenty men. The task was a very difficult one owing to the very high seas and the position of the steamer on the bar.

A FINE RECOMMENDATION

For Kingsbury Piano. Studio of Peticolas Richmond, Va., Dec. 24, 1900.

The Cable Company, City:

Gentlemen-I have had frequent occa sion to notice the extraordinary staying quality of the CABLE planes, and par ticularly of the Kingsbury grade.

One of these, I examined recently seems worthy of special remark. The pitch of the instrument was only a shade below the coriginal tuning, and quite even throughout, so that fairly good mu sic could still be produced; it was, in fact, not more out of tune than planes usually get in twelve months. owner of this one assured me that it had not been tuned for six years.

In my experience of thirty years with all makes and grades of Pianos, this is unique. Having had perfect satisfaction in my own purchase, it affords me pleas ure to give a voluntary testimonial to the excellence of the instrument sold by you, which will assure intending pur chasers of planos that they will be fairly dealt with by The Cable Company.

Yours respectfully, C. L. PETICOLAS, Professor of Music

New York. Feb. 2.-For awhile about seen it looked as though the marke would break wide open. This was due to stop loss orders, and selling carried May down to 8.80 and through that figure, while March ran down to 8.72 and this all took place without what might be called free selling. If a few thousands can send the market down. what will happen when receipts continue this way for some days? We are to have a week of free movement, free when compared with last year. On this comparison we are not likely to advance much. It means a strong market if prices do not react more than ic. As long as conditions favor a decline for time being at least, we believe in that view there is nothing to induce buying at this level just now. There is more on the selling side than on the buying artificial bulling is not a good sign. If the market can not go up on so strong a position there is likely to be a break. There is every inducement to take profits and hold off for this week. In the event of a sharp break at opening tonorrow we would buy for quick profits, but would take profits on the reaction looking for quick break later in the
