WEDNESDAY'S LEGISLATURE.

Farmers Protective Association. Incorporating Stokes. Special Tax Levy Jones County. Municipal Election Bill.
Special to Journal.
Raleigh, February 4.—In the House today the Wetts liquor regulation bill was reported by the committee favorably, as amended, and was made a special order next Tuesday, noon.
A bill was introduced to incorporate the North Carolina Farmers Protective Association, giving it the right to build warehouses and elevators, to do a fire insurance business, and many other things, including manufacturing and mercantile agencies. The incorporators named in the bill are, John B Cunningham, J J Laughinghouse, R B Spelght and W F Parker.
Bills were also introduced by Murphy to define perjury, by making it perjury to swear falsely to anything in giving evidence, whether germane to the case or not; by Fuller to amend the Code by including fowls and live stock.
Bills were passed incorporating Stokes Pitt county, establishing graded schools at LaGrange; to prohibit the sale of fire crackers over three inches long, air and spring guns, and toy pistols, dealers being given thirty days to dispose of stock on hand; to prevent the spread of contagious disease among domestic animals, to prevent seduction and abduction of married women; to prohibit timber dealers; to repeal act relating to felling of trees in certain streams in Beaufort county.
In the Senate bills were introduced by Hoey to provide holding municipal election, by Webb to encourage professional school teachers; by Allison to refund to State Treasurer Lacy the $300 stolen from him by W. H. Martin ex-clerk of treasurer.
Bills were passed establishing graded schools at Swan Quarter; to allow Jones County to levy a special tax; to allow Washington to levy a special tax; to make it unnecessary to kiss the Bible in taking the oath.
Fuller's union depot bill was made a special order for Thursday week. Hoey's bill provides that registrars and judges of Municipal elections shall be named by county boards of election.

RALEIGH.

Wilkes County Makes Liquor Only to Sell.
Changes in Present Insurance Law. Charged With Murder. Child Labor Bill. Laws B. & L. Associations. Food Adulterations.
Raleigh, February 4.—A number of representatives, Fire Insurance agents were here today and met in the office of Insurance Commissioner Young, their purpose being to secure some desired changes in the present insurance law and to present those in the shape of a bill after conference with the commissioner.
State Treasurer Lacy was asked today if the sub-committee on finance had so far made or rather suggested any changes of importance in the revenue act. He replied that it had not, but up to this time had been working on what may be called the small thing, and relieving any friction. As yet it has not reached the important matters. For example, the present peddler's license law is nearly valueless. The Supreme Court quite recently said in defining peddler that the law left out the words, on foot. The committee has inserted the words.
James H Pou left for Wilson today to assist in the defence of J D Farris, a rich and prominent man charged with murdering on the streets of Wilson a negro named Hunt. The latter had been accused of attempting to burn the town of Wilson directly after the election of 1889. It is said that Farris had received some threatening letters and had an idea that they came from Hunt. It is further said that the attempted incendiarism had preyed upon Farris's mind.
The bill regarding the labor of children in factories comes up in the Legislature in a few days. One member was heard to say today that he did not know of any demand for such a bill, but others speak very differently about the matter. It is very safe to guess that a very plain law will be passed, and that it will be pretty closely along the lines of Gov. Aycock's message.
The bill to give all of Wilkes county prohibition came up in the House today. At one time, and not so very long ago, it used to be said that Wilkes was the hardest drinking county in the State, but yesterday in a speech before the committee which had up the liquor regulation bill for the whole State, a member said that no liquor was drunk in that county; that the people only made it and shipped it out for other people to drink. This raised a great laugh.
It is very sure that the law officers all over the State greatly favor the movement to restrict the manufacture and sale of liquor to incorporated towns. Here in Wake, one of the largest counties in the State there is not a bar room outside of Raleigh, but there are distilleries, both licensed and unlicensed.
The joint committee to investigate the alleged cruelty to convicts near Marion today through chairman Warren, notified the person making the charges and also the penitentiary people to have their respective witnesses on hand at Marion next Tuesday.
It is said that a remodeling of the laws regarding building and loan association is desirable; that the law is contained in the code and is 20 years behind the time that these associations are organized before clerks of court, who report to the corporation committee. It is said that the proper way to do would be to have the report come directly to a State official, or rather to the corporation commission.
During the last fiscal year of the United States Revenue Department, 900 illicit distilleries were destroyed by deputy collectors.
In a few days a bulletin of the State Agricultural Department will be published on adulteration of foods. It is learned from one of the chemists who made the analyses that the work done before hand is having a good effect. For example—in the previous report it was shown that of the samples of certain kinds of canned goods, 81% were adulterated, while this report will show only 12%. The chemist says the cause of this great improvement is the exposure of this dangerous and outrageous fraud, and the fear of still further exposure.

Harlowe and North Harlowe.

Jan. 4.—Mrs. J. H. Forbes, of North Harlowe has returned after short visit to her former home bringing her daughter Esther, with her. Miss Laura Conner, Riverdale, is making a visit to Miss Bessie Morton and other friends of North Harlowe. Mr. L. M. Egerton the bicycle man of New Bern was in our burg on last Monday on his gasoline wheel which was quite a sight and noise while running our roads and attracted much attention.
Mr. Joseph W. Pigott, our county Superintendent is making his yearly rounds visiting the schools of his county and paid his visit to the school of Miss Madie Bell yesterday and spent the night with Jas. R. Bell Esq.
Mr. Eddie Taylor of Bachelor and Mr. George Willis of Morehead City were visitors at our school last Sabbath.
Miss Vera Hancock of New Bern is visiting her cousin Miss Nellie Hancock.
Mr. Jesse G. Taylor spent last Monday in the city of Elms.
Mr. Ben J. Bell of Beaufort came up Monday on some business and we were glad to have him remaining for a night in our burg.
Mr. Charles Ward has taken a place on a barge which carries lumber from Blades Mill to Philadelphia.
Mr. W. L. Robertson accompanied by Mr. Charlie Thomas of Beaufort came up Monday for lumber for some improvement which he is making.
Mr. M. R. Spring of Russell Creek, came up to North Harlowe Tuesday bringing Mrs. Parsons with him and taking her daughter back to make a visit to her aunt Mrs. Spring.
Messrs M. R. Moore and Jas. R. Bell were on business in New Bern on last Wednesday.

Market Letter on Cotton.
By private wire, J. E. Latham & Co.

New York, February 4.—May sold between 8.90 and 8.84 most of the day. It sold at 8.79 on Monday, 8.79 on Tuesday and at 8.83 this a. m. Then covering and the usual support started a firmer tone. There is nothing on which to base arguments for higher or lower prices. Every one is bullish and no one short, all want to buy. The movement this week is known to be free and no break is possible under such circumstances; but the real test will come later. As we have said this week's market is not likely to break nor likely to advance as far as we can discover. Next week we may run against 300,000 bales last year, and the figures will not be as large in comparison. We may have 220,000 or 225,000 bales, smaller than this week, but larger than last year just the same. This might prevent much of an advance for the time being. If we do not continue the comparison in a favorable fashion prices will start on an advance. If movement keeps full there will be a reaction. In the meantime it is likely to be a see-saw market, and one to take profits on, on any upturn.
C. W. Lee & Co.

ASKIN.

Jan 4.—The weather has been warm for the past week.
The farmers are busy getting ready for their crops. Some are breaking the soil, some are hulling dirt and some have planted their tobacco beds. We will have plenty of tobacco for the farms.
Mrs Eugene Tucker, son and daughter Roy and Jennie were the guests of Mrs Alpheus Felcher last Friday, Saturday and Sunday.
There was a party at Mrs Laura Gaskins last Friday night, the crowd was small but every body seemed to enjoy it.
Mr W R Arthur was in New Bern today.
Mr Booty filled his regular appointment at Antioch last Saturday and Sunday. There was a very large crowd present.
Mr Fred Scott and Mr Cheney passed through Askins yesterday.
We would like to hear from T C E and Joshua again. They must have fallen in the ditch and could not get out.
Johnnie Jones.

THE EDITOR'S BRAIN.

Did Not Work Well Under Coffee.
A brain worker's health is often injured by coffee, bad selected food and sedentary habits. The experience of the Managing Editor of one of the most prosperous newspapers in the Middle West, with Postum Food Coffee illustrates the necessity of proper feeding for the man who depends on his brain for living.
"Up to three years ago," writes this gentleman, "I was a heavy coffee drinker. I know it was injuring me. It directly affected my stomach and I was threatened with chronic dyspepsia. It was then that my wife persuaded me to try Postum Food Coffee. The good results were so marked that I cannot say too much for it. When first prepared I did not fancy it, but inquiry developed the fact that coffee had not bolted it long enough, so next time I had it properly made and was charmed with it. Since that time coffee has had no place on my table save for guests. Both myself and wife are fond of this new cup which 'cheers but does not inebriate' in a much truer and siter sense than coffee. My stomach has resumed its normal functions and I am now well and strong again mentally and physically."
"I am confident that coffee is a poison to many stomachs, and I have recommended Postum with great success to a number of my friends who were suffering from the use of coffee. None given by Postum Co., Seattle, Wash.
