Inflamed Eyes

Inflamed eyes, especially if accompanied with a dull ache over the eyes or about, and drowsiness after close work or reading, are a sure sign of defective vision, which may or may not be manifest to you, and imposes a severe tax on the nerves and muscles of the eyes. Glasses are the remedy and practically make the eyes perfect. Special study and the proper instruments make it possible to fit a child as well as an adult. The cause is the eye itself.

How is this?

For the Next Two Weeks I will give with each 50 Tablets a LIQUOR BILLS DISCUSSED.

Gov. W. W. Wood's Bill. Revenue Bill. Druggists Exempt on Tax. State Fund For School Houses.

Special to Journal.

RALPH, N. C., February 24.— In the House a bill was introduced to protect landlords and tenants in Wayne and Lenoir counties; to appoint justices in Wayne county; to incorporate Tennessee and North Carolina railroad; to regulate pilotage rates on Cape Fear river; to provide for immediate sale of fruit and vegetables seized under custom and delivery; to create the county of King.

Gov. W. W. Wood's bill placing the doctrine of mental anguish upon statute books, passed, applying only to telegraph companies.

The House took up the revenue bill.
An effort was made to include druggists in the tax but it failed; the section as adopted imposes $5.00 tax on lawyers, physicians, dentists, oculists, photo opticians, osteopaths or any person practicing any pretended art of healing for fee or reward. The tax on horse dealers was made $5.

When the Senate met, London introduced a resolution, reciting that since the superintendent of public instruction had written county boards of education that deficiency existed and the second hundred thousand dollars to keep the public schools open four months was lacking, the legislature instructs the superintendent answer, that the legislature will make the deficiency good. It was referred to the appropriation committee, which reported favorably and it was adopted.

The Waste Liquor regulation bill which has passed the House was reported by committee without prejudice; to establish a State fund of $200,000 to be used to build school houses; to incorporate Swan Quarter; to incorporate the bank of Belhaven; to amend the school law by containing election of county boards of education by the legislature.

The London liquor bill was a special order, but was held back until the Senate acted on the Waste bill. Webb offered an amendment prohibiting the manufacture and sale in towns of less than 200. London offered an amendment to make the place of delivery of liquor, the place of sale, also that any person dealing in wine made from grapes grown in other than the State procure a license and sell not less than 5 gallons at a time.

Vann offered what is known as the Vann-Warren bill, a substitute for the Watts bill. Gilliam decided the Watts bill is not a moral bill, but a political scheme, aimed at Western distilleries which he declared was an abuse of the name of moral reform. He declared the Vann-Warren substitute accomplished all the Watts bill did, except it did not deprive the people of their rights.

The Vann-Warren substitute was defeated, says 18, not 22. Webb then changed his amendment so as to prohibit the manufacture and sale, excepting in towns over 200. Travis offered a substitute for Webb's amendment, so the manufacture and sale are simply prohibited in towns of less than 200, hereafter corrected. The substitute was adopted, as was also London's amendment making the place of delivery the place of sale.

RALPH, Feb. 24.—All the talk here continues to be about the slaying of Edward Shiner by Ernest Haywood. One of Haywood's lawyers said this morning "We have not formulated our plan at all as yet in regard to habeas corpus proceedings." It was learned from John E.
Woodard, of counsel for prosecution that the note that Shiner wrote Haywood on the morning of Saturday was perfectly polite and was written as the executor of his mother's estate, asking that Haywood return all the papers.
Woodard said the letter was a perfectly proper one.

James H. Poy is managing the Haywood side of this great case, and it goes without saying that he is one of the best lawyers and best managers in all North Carolina. The evidence in the case is extremely conflicting. On the one hand there are two men who swear there was a fight between Shiner and Haywood.
One of these has so given a statement to your correspondent. Another man gave on Sunday in the presence of a third person an equally positive statement that there was no fight and even a conversation between the men. Of course such conflicting statements widely divide public opinion, and while some say they believe there was a fight, others express utter disbelief of any such thing.

It was stated by one of the counsel for the prosecution that more counsel will be employed on that side. There are now so far as known only three lawyers on that side, two of them from out of town. Six lawyers, all of the local bar have so far been employed for the defense; that is that number have been in consultation on the case, but one of them remarked today that others might have been retained.

Yesterday afternoon and today Haywood had a few callers outside of his family and lawyers, at his cell in the jail but it is intimated that most of these saw him about business matters, as he was a man of large business affairs. He had for a number of years been attorney for some of the largest estates in this part of the country, and in fact last year a gentleman told me the estates he represented aggregated over four million dollars. Haywood is a man of means, and a well informed man said he thought he was worth at least $75,000. He was one of the hardest working lawyers who ever practiced here.

Governor Aycock offers $500 reward for the capture of the young white man named Young, who at Hamlet last Saturday night murdered J. E. Williams.
Two photographs of the murderer have been sent the Governor, one representing him standing and the other seated at a table saw at work.

Representative Watts, the introducer of the Waste Liquor regulation bill which has passed the House says he hoped it will also pass the Senate, but cannot make any guess as to what will be its fate there.

The North Carolina Home Insurance Co. will in a few days occupy its office

A FEELING.

Good Food Makes It.

No one so well knows the delicious feeling that comes from being well fed as the one who has suffered and then found food that really would digest and nourish.

Feed the body right and see the change. A lady of Lenoir, Penn., writes: "Some years ago I had an attack of nervous prostration and my vocation of music teacher being very trying, the nervousness affected my digestive organs so much that food could not be eaten without great distress."

"This had been my condition for years About four years ago I had a heavy cold that went to the weak parts and caused catarrh of the stomach. I took bottle after bottle of medicine but nothing seemed to help."

"I was always hungry and unsatisfied but nothing gave me strength and finally I could not even take a sip of cold water without pain and vomiting. Food distressed me so that I would throw up mouthfuls of slime and mucus."

"Well I had reached that stage of not eating much to live and still not quite able enough to die when I finally was induced to try Grape-Nuts. The food worked like a charm. There was an immediate after eating and I felt as if I had a little hold on life. This was the beginning of the end of my distress. The nervousness gradually left me and I became entirely cured of that dreadful diseased, nervous prostration. I soon regained my usual weight and soon, and now never feel it by taking Grape-Nuts now and by years, and I give Grape-Nuts to the world. I would not have known how they were so valuable to me."
