large cities is similar to any electric call system. Boxes are placed in subscribes homes and places of business and when a messenger boy is wanted to get a telegram or deliver a message in the city or perform any errand all one has to do is to ring up the Western Union over this system and the messenger boy does the rest. The subscriber may send the messenger on any other errand he may wish the service is not exclusively for the telegraph business but for any call for an errand that he may need. This feature will be found to be very convenient The payment will be reckoned on the amount of time taken for the errand, or a stipulated amount will be charged.
