Public School Appropriation. Acts of Legislature Exceed These of Legislature 1901. Five Distillery Towns. Haywood

RALEIGH, March 10 .- The Supreme Court today took up the appeals from the 6th District. Only a few attorneys are here, among these being, W C Mon roe, Frank Daniels and Isaac F Dortch all of Goldsboro.

The State Superintendent of Public Instruction says that as soon as the applications from counties for aid from the $100,000 appropriated to keep the public schools open 4 months in the year can be scaled the warrants will be ssued. The applications amount to

Everyone is delighted with the new system of typewriting the acts of the legislature, the work being beautifully done, and a great saving effected. Besides this, a copy is furnished in carbon which is prepared by a lawyer and ther goes to the public printer, while the original is bound, to be filed.

There was surprise that the number o acts of this Legislature should have exseded that of two years ago, but it is so for the number is 1230, or 23 more than in 1901. As to the cost of enrolling the acts the saving is very great, amounting to $1,575. Yesterday 840 bills and 12 resolutions were ratified, this being a great day's work. 20 young lady typewriters worked all day Sunday in order to get the acts ready for ratification yesterday. Three convicts arrived at the penitentlary today from Bladen and Edgecombe The number received this year has been very small.

RAISTON, Mch $1-Auditor Dixon said to day that in his opinion the only thing in which the legislature slipped up was the amount of the bond issue.

He thinks the smallest of the lasue a mistake, that it would have been far better to have issued enough to prevent getting in a hole again; that a million ioliars issued would have put all the intitutions in the best possible condition.
