STATE REPUBLICAN LEADER

stion of Importance. Who Suc ceeds Pritchard ?

Charlotte Dr. Hartman's Free Advice to Women-A Generous

Washington correspondence this morning that ex-Senator Pritchard might succeed Chief Justice Bingham, of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, in the event of the latter gentleman's have known for some time that Mr. Pritchard would probably fall heir to a identity of the man who would succeed Mr Pritchard as leader of the Republican press in North Carolina. The moment it is made known that the present leader is to retire, the majority of North Carolina Republicans, and especially those who hold office and those who wish to ome office-holders, [will begin to bestir themselves in behalf of this or that man who would like to become chief patronage dispenser for the G. O. P. in

Already several gentlemen have their ears to the ground, and when Mr. Pritch ard steps down and out, if he does, the fun will begin. It will be one of the maddest political scrambies ever seen in Morth Carolina, for the prize is no small thing. When a prominent Republican was saked today who would be the new leader. he would not venture a prediction, but said that Mesers. A. F. Holton Harry Skinner, Carl Duncan, Henry Dockery, H. S. Harkins, Thomas Settle and Spencer Blackburn, and possibly a few others, would participate in the struggle. It is not at all probable that the coveted prize would fall to the lot of any one in the eastern part of the

Among many the belief prevails that District Attorney Holton, who formerly served the party acceptably as State chairman, is the most available man He is considered safe and conservative and possesses other qualifications essential to good leadership. Many of the friends of Judge W. P. Bynum, Jr., believe that gentleman would make a splendid leader, but, as was stated in this correspondence a few weeks ago, Judge Bynum cares far more for the practice of law than for the uncertainties of politics. A man who can turn down a nomination for Governor with as much unconcern as he would decline an invitation to deliver a commencemen oration at Spreading Oak Academy cannot be said to possess any burning politi cal ambition.
