A Millionaire's Advice to Young Men.

A well known millionaire, with a national reputation for conservatism, said A well known includes.

Doubtless every man has felt at some time that he would like to be a land holder. That he would like to have a little piece of this earth—of this great country that he could call his own. This is a worthy sentiment, but to select his piece of land in the heart of a populous community where the mere pressure of population is there to increase the value of his holding, perhaps many fold—this is sentiment combined with business.

It unquestionably strengthens a man's character to own property-increases h It unquestionably strengthens a man's character to own property—increases his responsibility. If he can tie himself up, and is obliged to make regular payments he is sure to save. The trouble is he allows the chance to pass. He is going to begin next month. Rich men talk of the importance of a man's first Thousand Dollars. Why not his first Hundred or his first Ten? The saving of your first $10 may be your first step to independence. THE TIME TO DO IT IS NOW.

Business vs Sentiment

Tomorrow, the Democratic voters of New Bern will exercise the "privilege of selecting the next Mayor. For many weeks, the Journal has volced the correct sentiment; it has urged the need of business methods for the government of the city, and as a corollary the selection of a business man for the position of Mayor. The City government is as much a business institution as any mercantile establishment, and can no more be successfully operated by sentiment than a private enterprise. Sentiment should have a very secon dary place in a matter of this kind, and the man who is a failure in his own business affairs, ought not to be placed in charge of the city's business. For successful government, the city needs as Mayor, a man sound in body as in mind-possessing mental and physical virility,-with a knowledge of the city's needs, a familiarity with its affairs, that the mistakes of others may be avoided,needed remedies applied, and reforms inaugurated that will result in improved moral and physical conditions, such a man should be exceptionally free from "ring"; should be untrammelled by prom enabled to carry out such measures and sacrifice for half what this property has reforms, as the best interests of this community may desire and expect. cannot be swerved from performing his whole duty because of fear or fafactorily on the arrangements for the In presenting the name of Mr Thos F May Festival K. of P. Street Fair and McCarthy for this position, we claim Merchants Carnival to be held here May that he possesses all these requirements, and measures fully to the standard here-

In set up. Of pleasing and courteous personality, modest demeanor, possessing fine bus iness qualities, a property owner,-the manager of a successful mercantile es tablishment,-fine moral character, he ossesses every requirement that may be ooked for in choosing a head for our City Government. His admirable management of our City Cemeteries for the past few years is an indication of the earnestness and intelligence with which he performs public duty and is an indice to his high conception of public service.

He has for years been one of the leading spirits of that most successful New Bern institution, The Building and Loan Association, and his associates at-tribute to him no little of the success

Conservative, firm, practical, oughly conversant with the City's needs and requirements, he presents for our suffrages, a full rounded, exceptionally well fitted candidate, whose election will be a deserved recognition of modest held in absymmes, and that the patriotic citizens of New Bern will appordinate them to the city's welfare by voting for
