OWN YOUR HOME.

A Millionaire's Advice to Young Men.

A well known millionaire, with a national reputation for conservatism, said in conversation the other day:—"If I were a young man anxious for independence, I would invest my savings in a small piece of good real estate. When I had it paid for I would put the deed away and forget I had it. Then I would begin paying on another."
Doubtless every man has felt at some time that he would like to be a land holder. That he would like to have a little piece of this earth—of this great country that he could call his own. This is a worthy sentiment, but to select his piece of land in the heart of a populous community where the mere pressure of population is there to increase the value of his holding, perhaps many fold—this is sentiment combined with business.
It unquestionably strengthens a man's character to own property—increases his responsibility. If he can tie himself up, and is obliged to make regular payments, he is sure to save. The trouble is he allows the chance to pass. He is going to begin next month. Rich men talk of the importance of a man's first thousand dollars. Why not his first hundred or his first ten? The saving of your first $10 may be your first step to independence. THE TIME TO DO IT IS NOW.
The New Bern Investment Company offers twenty-seven lots for sale on long time and easy monthly payments. For terms apply to—

Farmers Plant For Orphans.

Orphans Friend.
Many of the true friends of the orphan cause are farmers. To these we would say a word. Will you not set apart this spring a small plot of ground, plant upon it whatever can be profitably grown, cultivate it faithfully and send the products or the proceeds from their sale to an institution which is maintaining the orphan boys and girls of the State. If you do this it will greatly aid our work and we are sure, this labor of love will be a blessing to you and your family. Feeding homeless children will never take bread from the mouths of the loved ones of your home. We have God's word for that.
If you have a son to join with you in the cultivation of an "orphan's acre" he will be taught a great and important lesson in service to humanity. It is one of the truths which must become a part of his life if it ever rises above a struggle for mere self and those bound to him by the ties of blood.
When, prompted by a pure motive, we help the helpless, our lives are enlarged. Nothing is a real, lasting blessing which falls to earth, to broaden, to deepen life. Eternally true it is that it is more blessed to give than to receive.
Each one of us has been given something in trust to be used for God's glory. Farmer friend, God's soil is given to you to be cultivated for Him. Do not overlook the claims upon you of little ones benefit of home, of the necessities of life depend upon us.
Upon our Heavenly Father we are all dependent for daily food, for all of the blessings of life—for life itself. The fertile fields are His, from Him must come the sunshine, the rain, the fruitful season, the abundant harvest. We work together with God in the production of the necessities of life. From His bounty all must be fed.
Will you not appropriate a part of your best soil to be cultivated for the benefit of these children? You will thus render to God a true thanksgiving.

FOREMAN.

April 8.—We had quite a rain and wind storm here Sunday night, accompanied by a heavy sea tide. Some damage to the roads are reported.
Mr. Charles Simpson closed his school at Russell Creek Friday.
Quite a number of young people came down from Newport Friday to attend the annual meeting of the Free Will Baptist at Mt. Zion, Saturday and Sunday.
Mr. Parker Taylor of Wildwood, was a visitor here Sunday.
Messrs W. H. Hackett and John D. Daniels of Newport, passed Wednesday, going to Beaufort.
Mr. Frank Satter of West Wards Creek was a visitor here Saturday and Sunday.
Mr. Chas. Harrington of Newport, was here for a short time Friday.
Miss Ols. Foreman left here yesterday morning for Norfolk to see her son who is in the city.
Mr. Chas. Bell of Harlowe, was in our city Wednesday.
The Rev. L. O. Garner and W. W. Lewis preached some fine sermons at Mt. Zion during the union meeting held there.
It is to be hoped that the people on this, the New Bern road and North river roads will follow up the good work that has been begun and grade and otherwise improve our roads so that the government will have no valid excuse for not giving us the much needed mail delivery. We have the required population and we desire the service and this being the case our greatest barrier is the condition of our road. When an inspector passes over a proposed route he gives special attention to the roads over which the mails would have to pass and when they are not in good or fair condition the new route is not given just then. We hope our people will give this matter special attention and then the free mail service and other advantages will come all right.

UTLEY IN PEN

Begins His Twenty Year Sentence Today.

Negro Parker Granted New Trial. Assisted Convict To Escape. Political Talk. First Crop Report.

RALEIGH, April 8.—Edward L. Utley will probably be brought here tomorrow to begin his twenty year sentence in the penitentiary. His leading counsel, Col. Jno. W. Hinesdale of Raleigh, is out of the city so the report that an effort will again be made to have Utley declared insane cannot be confirmed. Utley is now about 35 years old. He attended the State University and his family is prominent and wealthy. After Utley's conviction of the sensational murder of hotel clerk Hollingsworth in Fayetteville it will be recalled that he escaped from the Fayetteville jail by the use of money, it was charged. He spent 8 days in the swamp and then voluntarily surrendered himself for a $1,000 reward was offered for his recapture. Justice Montgomery of the Supreme Court in confirming the sentence of Utley declared that he could not possibly be guilty of a crime less than murder in the second degree.
In granting a new trial to Parker, a Durham negro, convicted of rape on a negro child, Justice Walker holds that the Solicitor in cross examining Parker in the trial had no right to refer to the evidence the prisoner gave under compulsion of oath in the preliminary hearing before the magistrate.
The Supreme Court yesterday heard reargument in Smith vs Ingram which involves possession of the land now occupied by the town of Starr in Moore county. Last year the court decided for the plaintiff but Justice Cook, before retiring from the bench, granted a petition to rehear and the suit was redocketed. In the former decision Justice Clark alone dissented.
Justice Douglas in writing the opinion of the Supreme Court arresting judgment in State against May, from Guilford holds that the bill of indictment was defective in that it only charged May with abandonment of his wife. The bill to be effective must also charge failure to support, so the court holds.
The corporation commission will hold a regular meeting April 14th. The special session April 20th, will be to hear complaints on storage, demurrage, switching and transfer charges. Senator Pharr had the act passed which empowers the commission to regulate these charges. One of the commissioners was asked when the body would take up the matter of freight discrimination against North Carolina shippers. A bill for the investigation of this matter passed the Legislature at the instance of the Chambers of Commerce of the State. The commission is waiting for some complaint or petition to be made to the body for no action can be taken until the problem is formally brought before the commission.
The Supreme Court will next Tuesday take up appeals from the Eleventh District.
County deputies last night arrested two negroes, Bright and Haywood Jones charged with assisting Larson Jones to escape. Larson skipped from the chain gang. Officers located him in a shanty and surrounded the place. The other negroes then dressed Larson up as a woman and he walked out right by the officers while the other inmates of the house held the attention of the officers by threatening them.
The engagement is announced of Miss Conklin Carroll, daughter of the late O. J. Carroll, to Mr. John Leftwich Barry of Atlanta, Ga., the marriage to take place here June 3rd in the church of the Good Shepherd.
The report is circulated that Ex-Congressman John Nichols, Republican, will be the independent candidate for Mayor against Mayor A. M. Powell, the Democratic nominee. Mr. Nichols states that this is an error, he will not enter the race.
The fact that Ex-Senator Marion Butler was on the train bound for Greensboro last evening has started politicians speculating as to whether he is trying to get a hold in the Republican meeting there tomorrow. He is said to be anxious to regain political power.
The first report of the climate and crop service of the United States department of agriculture is not encouraging. The fruit has been damaged by frost and the crops are retarded by the present bad weather.
