SMALL REGISTRATION

For Coming Municipal Elections at Raleigh.

State Laws Printing Goes Slowly. Elections For Educational Improvements, North Da keta Boud Suit. Conductors Change Runs.

RALEIGH, April 17.—Postmaster Tom-Balley when he applied for registration in the Second Ward for the coming municipal election informed the inex-perionced registrar with feigned serious-ness that since he was a Federal office holder, he might therefore be disquall-fied from voting in North Carolina. The led from voting in North Carolina. The registrar then declined to record his name. After discussion a compromise was resched and the postmaster register-ed upon the agreement that his name hould be erased if Democratic chairman fones said that he was disfranchised. Only 500 bave registered for the elecion and registration closes next week.

Chief Clerk Hackett says the work of printing the laws is progressing very alowly and they may not be out in over to be delivered on contract. We are not a month. All the copy is with the
