TWENTY-SECOND YEAR

THE OLD RELIABLE

THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE

Newport Book Club.
April 30.
The second meeting of the Newport Book Club entertained by Miss Calla Mann Wednesday evening April 30th was a charming repetition of the first. When the minutes of the last meeting had been read, our hostess handed to each member present, a very unique puzzle in the form of misarranged spelling of names of some familiar authors. Miss Saunders was the most successful in the proper re-arrangement of these names, and won the prize, a pretty sterling silver nail file.
The next in order was the reading of the First Act of "Merchant of Venice" by selected club members.
After this (to lend variety to the program) Miss Mann played with great impression, "The Storm" by Weber.
While exchanging the books, the jingle of silver and the ring of out class announced that the appetite as well as the mind should be soothed.
The delicious wines and refreshing loss left nothing to be desired in the way of those things which most please the palate.
We bade adieu to our charming hostess with sincere thanks for the pleasant evening she had given us. W.

INCOME TAX CASE

In Matter of Judge Farnell's Paying His.

Will Be Contested. Tax Listers Meeting. Increase in Distilling. Prohibits Manufacture of Liquor But No Penalty For Violation.

Raleigh, May 1.—Chairman McNeill and Commissioner Rogers of the corporation commission did not learn until this morning of Judge Farnell's decision with reference to the injunction against Sheriff Page collecting the State income tax on the salary of United States Judge T. R. Farnell, Judge Farnell declared such a tax on a Federal officer's income unconstitutional but at the same time held that the Federal Court had no jurisdiction because the amount of the tax was less than $3,000.

Chairman McNeill was asked what course would be taken now and he replied "We will proceed to collect the tax on Judge Farnell's salary and if he resists further the courts will have to decide the question. Since Judge Farnell's decision shows that Judge Farnell was mistaken as to where he could begin his action maybe Judge Farnell is mistaken as to the tax being unconstitutional."

Judge Farnell will have to fight in the State Courts now but he could doubtless carry the case from the North Carolina Supreme Court to the United States Courts.

Chairman McNeill and Commissioner Rogers declared that the meetings of tax listers and assessors in the counties visited were well attended. The assessors in towns of over 5,000 inhabitants may begin work next Monday, according to the law. Next week the commissioners will announce their May appointments and all the counties will be visited by June 1st. Mr. McNeill says that at the meetings in counties that receive special attention is being called to the fact before the assessors. A circular letter will be issued shortly emphasizing the law that property must be assessed at its actual cash value and not at what it would bring on a forced sale.

Governor Chas B. Aycock will go to Chapel Hill tomorrow and preside at the joint debate between the University of North Carolina and Johns Hopkins. Monday, after opening the Knights of Pythias and Merchants Carnival here, he will go to Randolph county.

It is found from the Collector of Internal Revenue's books here that there is a big increase in distilling now. The increase this month over April last year is nearly 30 per cent and the alleged cause is that the distillers are making all the liquor they can before the Writ bill goes into effect two months hence. Over 100 stills are now in operation in this district.

A curious discovery was made today with reference to Harnett county. The Legislature passed an act "to prohibit the sale and manufacture of liquor in Harnett county" but no penalty is prescribed. This special act keeps the Writ bill from applying to Harnett. Therefore it seems that while it is unlawful to manufacture liquor in the county the violation of the law has no penalty attached. What the result will be remains to be seen.

Col. W. B. Rodman, Mr. N. Y. Gullett and Judge T. B. Womack entered upon their duties as Code Commissioners today. The salary is $1,500. They are here and will organize this afternoon.

Col. John S. Cunningham, president of the North Carolina Farmers Mutual Protective Association calls a State convention of farmers to meet here July 27 to 31.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought.

A Physical Drawback.
No one can concentrate his energies and succeed at any thing with an uncorrected eye trouble.
If you when reading have an uncomfortable feeling, are drowsy, print blurs, an ache over the eyes afterwards, you have an eye defect and should have it corrected at once, there is an excess of nerve force expended on this organ, the eye, that should be sent by the brain elsewhere.
Females often wonder why their children are not so bright as others, and why they have a natural dislike for books, it may be they are laboring under a great disadvantage on account of eye strain caused by a study of the exact amount of energy required to keep up clear vision, a pair of glasses will soon stop their needless straining and put them on an equal footing with their playmates, if properly fitted.

DAN GROSVENOR SAYS:

"Peruna is an Excellent Spring Catarrh Remedy—I am as Well as Ever."

HON. DAN. A. GROSVENOR, OF THE FAMOUS OHIO FAMILY.

Hon. Dan. A. Grosvenor, Deputy Auditor for the War Department, in a letter written from Washington, D. C., says:

"Allow me to express my gratitude to you for the benefit derived from one bottle of Peruna. One week has brought wonderful changes and I am now as well as ever. Besides being one of the very best spring tonics it is an excellent catarrh remedy."—DAN A. GROSVENOR.

In a recent letter he says:

"I consider Peruna really more meritorious than I did when I wrote you last. I receive numerous letters from acquaintances all over the country asking me if my certificate is genuine. I invariably answer, 'yes.'—Dan. A. Grosvenor.

A County Commissioner's Letter.

Hon. John Williams, County Commissioner, of 617 West Second street, Duluth, Minn., says the following in regard to Peruna:

"As a remedy for catarrh I can cheerfully recommend Peruna. I know what it is to suffer from that terrible disease and I feel that it is my duty to speak a good word for the tonic that brought me immediate relief. Peruna cured me of a bad case of catarrh and I know it will cure any other sufferer from that disease."—John Williams.

Miss Mattie L. Guild, President Illinois Young People's Christian Temperance Union, in a recent letter from Chicago, Ill., says:

"I doubt if Peruna has a rival in all the remedies recommended to-day for catarrh of the system. A remedy that will cure catarrh of the stomach will cure the same condition of the mucous membrane anywhere. I have found it the best remedy I have ever tried for catarrh, and believing it worthy my endorsement I gladly accord it.—Mattie L. Guild.

A Congressman's Letter.

Hon. W. P. Brownlow, Congressman from Tennessee, writes from Washington, D. C., the following:

"I have suffered from catarrh of the stomach for several years, and for the past twelve months was in an exceedingly critical condition. My attention was called to your Peruna, and I began to use it, and my improvement was noticeable after the first three days. I have taken three bottles of the medicine and I feel satisfied that I am now almost, if not permanently, cured. In connection with the Peruna, I have used your Manalin for biliousness and torpid liver. I regard it as the best medicine for this purpose that I have ever used. Having been benefited so much myself, I give you this statement, that others may be likewise benefited."—W. P. Brownlow, M. C., Jonesboro, Tenn.

Mrs. Elmer Fleming, orator of Reservoir Council No. 198, Northwestern Legion of Honor, of Minneapolis, Minn., writes from 2355 Polk street, N. E.:

"I have been troubled all my life with catarrh in my head. I took Peruna for about three months, and now think I am permanently cured. I believe that for catarrh in all its forms Peruna is the medicine of the age. It cures when all other remedies fail. I can heartily recommend Peruna as a catarrh remedy."—Mrs. Elmer Fleming.

Treat Catarrh in Spring.

The spring is the time to treat catarrh. Cold, wet winter weather often retards a cure of catarrh. If a course of Peruna is taken during the early spring months the cure will be prompt and permanent. There can be no failures if Peruna is taken intelligently during the favorable weather of spring.

As a systemic catarrh remedy Peruna eradicates catarrh from the system wherever it may be located. It cures catarrh of the stomach or bowels with the same certainty as catarrh of the head.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.
