TAX PAYER IS ENTITLED TO IN-FORMATION.

The smallness of the vote cast for the new board of aldermen on last Tuesday, at the city polls, cannot be used as a comparison to prove the interest the tax payer has in his municipal affairs.

The primary contest some weeks ago determined the nomination of the aidermen, at the same time practically elected the nominees, Tuesday's election being merely the legal vote.

With the new city officials elected, and only waiting to be sworn in and enter Amr. AT A HORSE AUCTION.

The Proceedings as Viewed From the Horse's Standpoint. Skipper was a police horse and the pride of the mounted squad until he acquired a spavin. Then he was sent to a sales stable. His experience there as told by Sewell Ford in "Horses Nine" were as follows:

Skipper was led into a big ring be fore a lot of men. A man on a box shouted out a number and began to talk very fast. Skipper gathered that he was talking about him. Skinner learned that he was still only six years old and that he had been owned as saddle horse by a lady who was about to sail for Europe and was plosing ou ner stable. This was news to Skipper The man talked very nicely about Skipper. He said he was kind gentle ound in wind and limb and was no only frained to the saddle, but would work either shalle or double. The man wanted to know how much the gentle men were willing to pay for a bay gelding of this description. Some one ou the outer edge of th rowd said, "Ten dollars." At this the man on the box grew quite indignant. He asked if the other man wouldn't like a silver mounted harness and a lap robe thrown in. "Fifteen," said another man.

Somebody else said "Twenty," at other man said "Twenty-five," and still another "Thirty." Then there was a hitch. The man on the box began to talk very fast indeed.

"Thutty, thutty, thutty, thutty! Do hear the five? Thutty, thutty, thut ty, thutty. Will you make it five?"

"Thirty-five," said a red faced man who had pushed his way to the from and was looking Skipper over sharply. The man on the box said "Thutty five!" a good many times and asked it he "heard forty." Evidently be did not, for he stopped and said very slowly and distinctly, looking expectantly around: "Are you all done? Thirty five-once; thirty-five-twice; thirdand last call-sold for $35!"

When Skipper heard this, he hung his head. When you have been a $250 blue ribboner and the pride of the force, it is sad to be "knocked down'

HIGH PRICED COFFEE.

The the Statel Steerard Paramet Con Charge Was Medicate. "So you think we charge too much for colles, do you?" asked the steward tels in response to a mild complaint from a guest. "You paid 85 cents for all pot of coffee with cream, didn't you? You admit that there was nothing the matter with the coffee, but you say you didn't use all of the cream. Maybe you didn't, but some other guest might have wanted more than you did. The coffeepet, pitchers for het milk and cream and the sugar bowl were of sliver. Your cup and saucer were of the very best china. It costs something to make that coffee, and wa have to get some return on our invest ment in the silverware and china. There are two cups of coffee in a small pot, and we would lose money if we sold it at 10 cents a cup.

"There is another thing you must consider - when you go into a high class cafe you are given a table by yourself. No matter how badly we are crowded no one is placed at the table with you. Suppose we sold coffee at popular prices. Don't you know that hundreds of people would be dropping into the cafe just for a cup of coffee in order to see the crowd? They would monopolize all the tables. Don't say a word, but one reason why we put up the price is to keep the coffee drinkers out, so that you may have a table when you want to sit down to champagne and terrapin."-New York Press.

Sex of Gema. The Romans, following the Greek nineralogists, divided gems into males and females according to the depth or lightness of their color. These terms are thus alluded to by Theophrastus: "Both these (beryl, carbuncle, omphax crystal and amethyst) and the sard are found on breaking open certain rocks, presenting certain differences, agreeing in name with each other For of the sard the transparent and blood red sort is called the female, while the less transparent and darker kind is termed the male, and the cyanus also is named one sort the male and the other the female, but the male is the deeper in color of the two." The cyanus, or cyanos, of the ancients is said, though probably incorrectly, by many modern mineralogists

The Letter "M" In Mother It has been pointed out as a curious fact that the letter "M" in almost all known languages — English, French Latin, Spanish, Greek, Hebson, Chi ness and the others—is to be found in the word which stands for mother or nurse. Perhaps this is owing to its representing a sound which exists in every spoken speech and has the same pronunciation in them all. It is also exceedingly easy to utter and is one of the first sounds that children make, and it therefore naturally enters into the appellation given to the auraing parent in the first cries of recognition and affection. There is no doubt at all that "ma" and the other bahy names for mother originated directly from the child.

One man in New York had social as pirations which somewhat warped his admiration of his homespun father. The father actually sometimes relates acid, "only stupid people est with itr knives." "How can you say that, mma?" cried the child. "Grandpe
