

THE JOURNAL

Published every day in the year, except Monday, at 24 Middle Street.

CHARLES L. STEVENS, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: One year, in advance, $4.00; One year, not in advance, $5.00; Monthly, by carrier in the city, 50c.

Official Paper of New Bern and Craven County.

NO SHELTER NOR DISHONEST OFFICIALS.

The unquestioned truth that a public office is a trust given by the people, therefore every person holding such an office is to be held responsible to the giver, is being realized more every year.

While public offices are very largely political "gifts," the receivers of these "gifts" cannot evade responsibility, abuse their trusts by dishonest administration, and then expect to be sheltered by the political party or the politicians who placed them in power, and be kept from paying the full penalty of their misdeeds.

The Washington post office scandal appears to have a political phase, not in keeping with good government, or the demands of the service.

Official circles, to the outside public, seem to be concerned in affecting a show of exposure and expulsion, without getting at or making public the real facts and doings of those who have acted dishonestly.

The political party in power is not the solely interested party, although it is the party most to be affected by the dishonesty of its appointees.

In the Washington case, and in every case of public trust, there can be no shelter for dishonest officials.

There must be sponsors for all officials in places of public trust, and it is the duty of such sponsors, regardless of politics and sentiment, to make a full and clean public exhibit of every act of dishonesty on the part of those whom they have put in places of trust and responsibility.

Unless the Washington case is to be handled openly and with gloves off, the present administration will be held equally guilty for the dishonest acts committed, as those men whom the administration has placed in the offices, now demanding a public cleansing up.

Where Ignorance is Bliss. Miss Inez Sentz—It's true I'm engaged to Mr. Rounders. The other night he told me I was the only girl he ever loved, and—

Miss Truster—Where's the ring? Didn't he give you one?

Miss Inez Sentz—Oh, yes, the very next day, but I sent it back to the jeweler to be fixed. The stupid engraver made the inscription "Jack to Gwendoline" instead of "Inez"—Philadelphia Press.

A Busy Day. Halit—What's the matter, Klay? You look all tired out.

Klay—And no wonder. I've had a hard day of it. I don't know where I've worked so hard. I looked at the men clean up the railroad station this morning, and after that I saw three safes raised into four story windows and four loads of coal delivered in baskets.—Boston Transcript.

Her Anatomical Experience. Teacher (of class in anatomy)—How many bones are there in a chicken? Millie (youngest member of large family)—Can tell you how many there are in the neck. That's the only part I ever get.—Chicago Tribune.

HOST PATTERSON

The Proprietor of The Patterson House Gives an Interview.

Many there are in New Bern who are glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, but none whose endorsement will carry more weight than his who is quoted here today.

M. Patterson, proprietor of the Patterson House, E. Front and Pollock streets says: "I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills for I have used them in my family and found them to be as represented. I used them for my kidneys and back from which I have suffered for some years. The secretions from the kidneys were very thick and full of sediment. The whole system disappeared and I felt better than for a long time and so Doan's Kidney Pills I give all the credit. I obtained them at Bradham's Pharmacy. You can see my name at any time as one who recommends this valuable kidney medicine."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents a box. Foster-McLure Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

YESTERDAY'S MARKETS.

Cotton, Grain, Provisions and Stocks. Range in Prices, Receipts and Shipments.

The following are the market quotations, received by private wire to J. E. Latham & Co. New Bern, N. C.:

Table with columns: Wheat, Corn, Oats, Rye, Barley, etc. and rows for Chicago, May 11 and New York, May 11.

Table with columns: Brocks, Open, Amr. Sugar, Union Pacific, Mo. Pacific, etc.

Table with columns: U. S. Steel, Reading, People Gas, C. & O., etc.

Table with columns: U. S. Steel, Reading, People Gas, C. & O., etc.

Table with columns: Cotton, Open, High, Low, Close, May, June, July, etc.

Table with columns: Liverpool cotton market closed today, Mid. 5.80, Sale 15,000, Receipts 11,000, etc.

Table with columns: PORT RECEIPTS, Last week, This week, etc.

CASTORIA, The Kidney and Bladder Remedy, Sold by F. S. DUFFY.

Best Spring Remedy Ever Formulated

PAIN'S CELERY COMPOUND

Miss E. M. Swan Completely Cured of Terrible Blood Troubles That Doctors Could Not Relieve.

In the month of May, it is an absolute necessity that the body should be furnished with a richer and purer supply of blood for the establishment of a health that can successfully cope with the enervating effects of hot summer weather. Poor blood in May produces listless, ambitious, sleepless, and sallow-faced men and women, who quickly become victims of some organic disease that ends life.

ENGLISH ETCHINGS.

Dick Turpin's pistol was sold in London recently for £5 5s. In nine and a half hours the police saw 118 men, 719 women and 23 boys and girls visit a Kirkdale (Liverpool) public house.

Two oak trees have just been planted in Colchester, England, which were raised from acorns taken seven years ago from the crop of a wood pigeon.

For picking up and kissing a little boy in the street a Birmingham (England) man has been fined 40 shillings, or one month's hard labor, for assault.

In leaving his residuary estate to his sons only Mr. A. Hudson, a Bungley (England) brewer, said he did so not because his sons were dearer to him than his daughter, but because he considered that men have a harder struggle in life.

According to Sir James Crichton-Browne, the modern Englishman is physically a degenerate and chiefly because of dyspeptic troubles. The growing frequency of appendicitis is, he thinks, due to the weakened digestive apparatus and insufficient mastication of food.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and as the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous services.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

F. J. CLENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c.

Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Feline Ethics. A correspondent sends the following story to Animal Life:

"I called the kitten," writes the correspondent, "who sprang from her basket where she had been lying with her mother and followed me into the next room. The cat, following, growling wrathfully, and taking it up by the neck, I replaced it in the basket. Again I called it, and again it came at my call. This time the mother, growling still more threateningly, followed us again, but this time she seized the kitten by the tail instead of the neck, pulled it roughly along, the kitten mewling helplessly. For a third time I called, and once more it came to me, but this time the mother was silent. She came, took up the kitten, dragged it off and then began to bite it again and again in order to secure its obedience. This method was successful, and the next time I called it was in vain."

Letters from Women

Cured by the use of Kodol are received daily. Their troubles nearly all begin with indigestion or other stomach disorder. If the food you eat fails to give strength to your body, it is because the juices secreted by the stomach and digestive organs are inadequate to transform the nutrient properties of the food into blood. That is indigestion. The system is deprived of the amount of nourishment required to keep up the strength, and the result is that one or more of the delicate organs gradually grows weak, and then weaker, until finally it is diseased. Here a great mistake is made. The best doctors in the land make this very mistake. Why should they? It is so easy to see that the trouble is not there.

Kodol Cures

This famous remedy purges the stomach and digestive organs in a healthy condition so that rich, red blood is sent coursing through the veins and arteries of every muscle, tissue and fiber throughout every organ of the entire body, and by Nature's law of health, full strength and vigor is soon restored to each. Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders. I have taken Kodol for nearly two months after each meal and it is the only remedy that gave relief from the terrible pain I endured. After a time I would take it but once a day, and now, while I keep a bottle handy, I seldom need it, as it has cured me. Mrs. J. W. Cassadon, Milo Center, N. Y.

EDITORIAL FLINGS.

Speaking of war clouds, the Balkans need not feel particularly stuck up. There is just as big a crisis in the Red Cross society.—New York News.

The St. Louis fair will not be open Sundays, so that there will be nothing but a few churches to keep visitors from going to the ball games.—Boston Globe.

Mark Train approves the plan to have an old fashioned steamboat race on the Mississippi. Why not put him on the safety valve of one of the boats?—Buffalo Express.

Judge Potter of Joplin reprimanded a juror for eating peanuts while court was in session. That was entirely right. No man living can eat peanuts and attend to anything else at the same time.—Kansas City Star.

The Seventh regiment, N. G., N. Y., has just proved by documentary evidence that it was ready and willing to go to the front in 1898. But the Spaniards could not wait five years. Now, could they?—Philadelphia North American.

A Startling Test.

To save a life, Dr. T. G. Merritt, of No Mohopany, Pa., made a startling test resulting in a wonderful cure. He writes, "A patient was attacked with violent hemorrhages, caused by ulceration of the stomach. I had often found Electric Bitters excellent for acute stomach and liver troubles so I prescribed them. The patient gained from the first and has not had an attack in 14 months." Electric Bitters are positively guaranteed for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation and Kidney troubles. Try them. Only 50c at C D Bradham's.

The Dog in Egypt.

In Egypt the dog was a friend and faithful servant. He lived in the house with his master, followed him in his walks, attended the public ceremonies, sometimes fed, at other times held in leash by a slave or child or in princely families by a favorite dwarf. At his meals he had his place marked under the benches of the guests. As in Greece and Rome, he was there to dispose of bones, the fragments of meat and the pieces of bread that were thrown down and in a general way, to keep the dining room clean. These were certainly not very refined fashions, and if our house dogs had to satisfy themselves in this way they would be likely to die of hunger.

A Sure Thing

It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but that is not altogether true. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that. Mrs. C. B. VanMire of Shepherdstown, W. Va., says "I had a severe case of Bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of, but got no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery then cured me absolutely."

It is infallible for Croup, Whooping Cough, Grip, Pneumonia and Consumption. Try it. It is guaranteed by C. D. Bradham, druggist. Trial bottles free. Reg. sizes 50c, $1.00.

All Engraved Rings.

Among the legends of Greece it is told that the father of Pythagoras, the famous Greek philosopher, was a celebrated engraver of gems, and, according to classical history, both Helen of Troy and Ulysses of Greece were engraved rings. Engravings on stones that were partly precious was an art in a very remote age. The British museum proudly boasts the possession of a small square of yellow Jasper bearing the figure of a horse and the name and titles of Amnephis II, believed to date back to about the year 1450 B. C. The very finest specimen of engraved gem now in existence is a head of Nero carved on a first water diamond by the brothers Castanzi in the year 1790 A. D.

A Curious God.

Among the most extraordinary pieces of symbolism known to have been used by the early Asiatics was a figure of a donkey's head used as a representative of the deity. There is no doubt whatever that the same emblem was once used among the Hittites, the Egyptians and one or two other nations as a symbol of their red god, Sut. The superstition of the yellow donkey of India, and that of the snake and the eastern Asia and the ass of Dionysus and many other marvelous as stories are all survivals of that curious form of religious worship, the adoration of the ass's head.

Made Young Again.

One of Dr. King's New Life Pills each night for two weeks has put me in my 'teens' again' writes D H Turner, of Dempseytown, Pa. They're the best in the world for Liver, Stomach and Bowels. Purely vegetable. Never gripe. Only 25c at C D Bradham's drug store.

The Cry of the Loon.

The cry of the loon is one of the strangest, weirdest sounds in nature. Those who have heard it can scarcely wonder that it has so often been woven into song and legend. A blood red ring flung round the moon. Hung round the moon. Ah, me! Ah, me! I heard the piping of the loon. A wounded loon, Ah, me! And yet the eagle feathers rare I tremble, wove in my brave's hair. Almost all writers who have attempted to describe the cry of this bird have likened it to unmitigated laughter. This Mr. Vernon Bailey, speaking of the sound, describes it as follows: "Only on the lonely lake in the heart of the woods do you get the startling thrill of the loon's wild cry—one clear, piercing note or a long, quavering, demagogical lough that to the mind suggests a herd of screaming panthers."

Out On Their Hats.

A procession of the unemployed that took place in London in 1794 did not meet with any great success or public sympathy. In that year wigs went out of fashion, and the wig makers of London were thrown out of work and reduced to distress. They petitioned George III to compel gentlemen to wear wigs by law. As the wig makers went in procession to St. James' to present their petition it was noticed that most of those persons who wanted to compel other people to wear wigs wore no wigs themselves. This striking the London mob as very inconsistent, they stood the processionists and roughly cut off all their hair.—London Express.

From a Cat Scratch

On the 21st of the month of a burr, sore or boil, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is a quick cure. In trying Witch Hazel Salve, in particular to get DeWitt's—this is the salve that heals—without leaving a scar. A specific for blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles. Sold by F. S. DUFFY.

REV. MARY BAKER EDDY'S GIFT. NEW CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH.

Concord, N. H., May 6, 1903. Through the generous gift of the Reverend Mary Baker Eddy the Christian Scientists of Concord, N. H., are to have one of the finest church structures in the Granite State.

The meeting tonight sent to the generous donor the following letter of appreciation and gratification: "Rev. Mary Baker Eddy, Pleasant View, Concord, N. H. Beloved Teacher and Leader: The members of the Concord church are filled with profound joy and deep gratitude that your generous gift of $100,000 is to be used at once to build a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice for your followers in the Capital City of your native State. We rejoice that the property of the Concord in your home City, where, without regard to class or creed, you are so highly esteemed, makes necessary the construction of a beautiful church edifice