TORTURING DISFIGURING

Skin, Scalp and Blood
Humours

Speedily Cured by Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills

When the Best Physicians and All Else Fail.

The agonizing itching and burning of the skin, as in eczema; the frightful scaling, as in psoriasis; the loss of hair and crusting of the scalp, as in scald head; the facial disfigurements, as in pimples and ringworm; the awful suffering of infants, and anxiety of worn-out parents, as in milk crust, tetter and salt rheum,—all demand a remedy of almost superhuman virtues to successfully cope with them. That Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills are such stands proven beyond all doubt. No statement is made regarding them that is not justified by the strongest evidence. The purity and sweetness, the power to afford immediate relief, the certainty of speedy and permanent cure, the absolute safety and great economy have made them the standard skin cures, blood purifiers and humour remedies of the civilized world.

Bathe the affected parts with hot water and Cuticura Soap, to cleanse the surface of crusts and scales, and soften the thickened cuticle. Dry, without hard rubbing, and apply Cuticura Ointment freely, to allay itching, irritation and inflammation, and soothe and heal, and, lastly, take the Cuticura Resolvent Pills, to cool and cleanse the blood.
This complete treatment, costing but one dollar, affords instant relief, permits rest and sleep in the severest forms of eczema and other itching, burning and scaly humours of the skin, scalp and blood, and points to a speedy, permanent and economical cure when all other remedies and the best physicians fail.

To Raise The Dead.

Dr. Kemp, a New York physician claims to have made the discovery that a dead person can be disengaged back to life.

The method is to make a small incision between the ribs without cutting the bone. The fingers are then thrust into the opening behind the heart. A few gentle pressures on the heart is all that is required. It is claimed to revive the circulation.

The doctor cannot be too careful about the selection of his subject. Some are best left alone.

May 30th Celebration.

CHURCH DEDICATION.

Imposing Ceremonies and Prominent Personages.

Gifts to the Catholic Church. Baccalaureate Sermons. Confedicate Veterans Leave on Special Pullman
Train. Bazaar
at Weldon.

RALPH, May 18.—The Church of the Holy Name of Jesus at Nazareth, the location of the Catholic Orphanage, two miles west of Raleigh, was dedicated Sunday by Bishop Hald of Belmont.
Among the large congregation present were Gov. Chas. B. Aycock, Chief Justice Walter Clark, Associate Justices R. M.
Douglas and H. G. Connor, Attorney General R. D. Gilmer and others. In the morning Bishop Hald administered the sacrament of confirmation to a class of 15. Solemn High Mass was sung with Father Price, celebrant, Father Griffin, deacon, and Father Stapleton, sub-deacon.

The dedication then followed according to the ritual of the Catholic church.
The church of the Holy Name of Jesus is very handsome though comparatively small, 90x40 feet. The ceiling is white enamel with delicate blue trimmings.
The sanctuary and altar are remarkably beautiful.

The gifts ornamenting this unique church, where 50 little fatherless boys and those who minister unto and guide them will worship, are as follows: A life size painting of the crucifixion, over the main altar, painted by the Sisters of Mercy at Belmont. Fourteen paintings of the sufferings of Christ, handsomely mounted in walnut frames and sold to be worth over $2,000; a statue of the Madonna and child from Baltimore and considered one of the handsomest in the country. A richly ornamented casket of Christ in the tomb, under the main altar.

Rev. Dr. Barron of Charlotte preached the baccalaureate sermon before the graduating class of the Baptist Female University yesterday from the text "I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision." At night Rev. Dr. J. W. Lynch of Wake Forest presided before the missionary society of the University on "The coming of the Perfect."

Rev. Dr. Egbert Smith of Greensboro preached the baccalaureate sermon before the Peace Institute graduates on "I came not to be ministered unto but to minister."

The special Southern Railway train for the Confederate reunion at New Orleans left here at 4 p. m. yesterday.
It consisted of 5 Pullman cars. On the cars were the inscriptions "Tar Heel Veterans Pilgrimage to New Orleans," "Carolina, Carolina, Heavens Blessings Attend Her," and "First at Bethel, Flooring at Gettysburg, Farthest at Chick amaugau, Last at Appomattox."

Miss Mary Armstrong Jones, Miss Daisy Smith of Goldsboro, Miss Roberts of Gateville, Miss Evelyn Ballard of Franklin were among the sponsors going from here. The drum corps of the L. O. B. Branch Camp also went.

Bishop Hald of the Catholic church stated last night that he would leave in a few days for Rome to have an audience with the Pope. There is no politics in his visit but merely to report the spiritual condition of his charge which is required every ten years. He said North Carolina had the smallest Catholic population of any State, only 1 per cent but the faith is spreading.

State Auditor Dixon opens the bazaar at Weldon today to raise money to build a monument to the Confederate soldiers of Halifax and Northampton at Weldon.

Ticket Scalpers Enjoyed New Orleans, May 18.—Judge Boardman, in the federal court today, issued a sweeping injunction against the local ticket scalpers forbidding them to deal in any way in the reduced tickets sold for the Confederate reunion in this city.

Child Injured at Pollockville.

Pollockville, May 18.
A sad and painful accident befell little Ozi, the 8 year old son of Mr and Mrs Hayes A. Chadwick of this place Monday evening. While playing on the platform at the depot here, he fell a distance of 5 feet breaking his arm between the wrist bone joint and elbow of his right arm.

Dr. Duguid rendered medical aid and bandaged the limb. Little Ozi is an interesting bright little boy but is very delicate, being an invalid most of his life.
The family have the deepest sympathy of the community in this their protracted trouble.

Marion Democrat.

The section of country in the vicinity of Eberman, N. C., is greatly stirred up over the find of gold, which assays claim will pan out not less than $20.00 per ton and probably more. The representative of an English Co. was here Wednesday, taking options on all the adjoining land and promises to have at least 200 men at work within six and says that the prospects for gold are the best anywhere east of the Mississippi.

Capt. Algie Dead.

Asheville Citizen.

Sallsbury, N. C., May 16.—Capt. Algie, the keeper of the Federal Cemetery at this place died here today after three days illness from inflammation of the stomach. He was a native of New York and about sixty years of age. He came to Sallsbury from Raleigh and was highly esteemed. He was a prominent member of the Elks, and leaves an aged mother and a sister who are resident in New Bern.

North Carolina Bonds in Demand.

Messrs. Townsend Scott & Son and Wilson, Colston & Co., bankers, advertise in The Baltimore Sun the issue of $300,000 of North Carolina State 4 per cent bonds, which they recently bought from the State.

At the time that these bonds were offered for sale by the State the bids amounted to about 14 times the issue of bonds, and nine firms of prominent bankers bid for the whole issue.

The bankers state that a very large amount of the issue has already been sold.
