May 18.—Mr. S. A. Sterling went to Wilmington last Thursday on business connected with firm of Slocumb & Co.
Rev. I. N. Henderson has just finished replanting and chopping off his eight acre tobacco crop, he says the cold weather killed many of his plants, the first setting.
Mrs. Maria Laughtlin of Wilmington, N. C. is visiting friends and relatives here this week. She is an aunt of Mrs.
Lewis Morton of this place. Mrs. Lough-lin and Mrs. I. N. Henderson went visiting last Tuesday to the home of Mrs.
Mary E. Hewitt of Wards Mill.
Mr. Bol Gorant of Wards Mill is 78 years old and gets about well for one of his age.
Mr. Willie Sterling, brother of S. A.
Sterling, who has been visiting his brother and family for a long time returned to his home in Sampson County last week.
Rev. I. N. Henderson is running his saw mill on this new site and says if it does rain and rain it rains soon he will have to get a new one. His mill is run by a water power saw mill, grist mill and a saw mill combined.
Mr. Robert Moore of Wards Mill is very feeble, he is now 70 years old and one of the County's best citizens, he has been doing his best all the time.
Mr. G. W. Wilson of Sampson is visiting his place at work also on N. W.
River visiting S. S. D. Wagon A. F. E. nell Ralph Brier and father, and others of Wards Mill.
Rev. C. E. Estler of Swanboro was with us last Saturday and went to Swanboro where he preaches every Sunday.
Master Jesse Sterling, son of S. A.
Sterling returned to his home on Brown Sound last Saturday, after an extended visit to his father here. Jesse lives with his grandfather, Mr. J. W. Freeman, of Brown Sound.
Mr. R. W. Irvin of Stella, is a sawyer for Henderson's saw mill here.
Mr. Richy Henderson is our boss fisherman here, last Saturday morning Dick came in with a lot of old blue fish, that he captured in his father mill pond, Dick says they are good fish, better than cat fish. That may be, but they don't sell Uncle Arnold.
Very cold weather for time of year cotton and tobacco are the worst sufferers, gardens look tolerably well, and corn crops are small but look all right.
Rev. B. H. Mathews and wife of Swansboro are visiting Dr. W. J. Montfort and family at Wards Mill.
Mr. Willie Mydgett of Oriental, was in our neighborhood last week, he went to Swanboro, redmor says, to see one of our pretty Swanboro young ladies.
Miss Cora Henderson, one of Hubert's prettiest young ladies, went to Swanboro last Saturday to the big May-day doings.
Mrs. Dr. E. L. Cox of Jacksonville, sister to Mrs. S. A. Sterling here, who has been at death's door for several weeks, is, we are glad to note, improving fast, though not able to get out yet.
Mr. Henry Morton one of our Deputy Commissioners is about well of his cancer war, we are glad to note.
Mr. Dexter Morton, our good looking "drummer boy" and of late our better looking school teacher, is next to Rich Henderson in fishing, especially with hook and line. Dock went angling yesterday, and only fished five hours, but caught one little minnow and one small fish, a roach, this was one of Dexter's best fishing days, his son went with him but didn't catch a thing.
The young ladies of Swanboro will give a lawn party next Friday night in that town for the purpose of helping to get funds to buy instruments for Swansboro's brass band, hope all will go.
Refreshments of many kinds, including ice cream, cool drinks, etc., will be dispensed. Managers, Misses Flora and Dolly Matlocks, Zula Rogers, Allice Blount, Mattie Moore, Katie Pittman, Etta Davis, Roy Lee Davis, Lulu Hat-sell and others. They expect a grand time. Let all from the county, who can, go and see and talk with some of Swanboro's prettiest girls and young ladies, some of them may want partners for life you bet.
Mrs. Kate Henderson, has a very fine milk cow, one that she raised. She gives four gallons of milk per day, the cow.
Rev. W. A. Jenkins filled his appointment at Queen Creek church last Sunday to a large congregation.

THE SOUTHERN'S WRECK.
Remarkable Escape of Passengers
From Death.
Cause of Accident, Thousands View The Wreck. List of Injured and Their Condition. A.
& M. College Commencement.

RALEIGH, May 20.—The one matter discussed here today is the frightful wreck on the Southern Railway just east of this city yesterday afternoon. The officials had a wrecking train on the scene in a few hours and a large force of hands worked all night. By 5.30 this morning new cross ties had been laid and the rails put down so that the train from Goldsboro, due here at 11.45 last night crossed over the point of the wreck at Walnut Creek and came in at 5.45 this morning.
The track was beautifully ballasted with rock on the Walnut Creek embankment and was considered a good piece of road.
Some of the cross ties were rotten, no one who has been to the scene disputes this, but some men of considerable railroad experience declare that the wreck was not caused by the condition of the ties; the forewheel of the heavy freight engine pulling a light passenger train of four coaches simply jumped the rails, they say.
Thousands of people from Raleigh went out last evening and today to view the disaster, which is the same spot as the fright wreck of two weeks ago.
The cars are still down the embankment.
When a reporter called at Rex Hospital this morning the injured were reported as doing well, though the physician had not made the morning rounds yet, having been up all night. Most specimens were for Mr. H. R. Parker, Representative from Wayne. The physician states that his spine is hurt and he has internal injuries but does not pronounce him in a critical condition.
Mr. Parker was thrown with great violence. Mr. E. E. Fanning of Wilson apparently sustained serious injuries in stomach and chest. Mrs. C. P. Fillington's spine is also said to be injured, being a free and short leg, and dislocated hip.
Five others on the train, nearly all of whom were men or less hurt were J. P.
Blund, Launburg, conductor of the train, Zack Hamilton, Greensboro, business agent; W. H. Griffin, New Bern, straight cut; W. G. Goble, conductor, cut in face and neck and shoulders bruised; W. H. Fields Selma, bruised; Mrs. Hobby and daughter both have fractures; Miss Mary Daniels, arm cut; F. A. Daniels, Goldsboro, leg cut and bruised; H. G. Griffin, baggage master, cut on the head; Oscar Gregory, Launburg, bruised slightly; A. E. Clark, Goldsboro, badly jarred; E. F. Lee, Durham, slight cut; Miss Jennie Proctor, Raleigh, shoulder hurt; J. M. Proctor, Raleigh, nose broken; W. H. Smith Jr., student at Chapel Hill, scalp cut; Artie Sumnerfield, Durham, slight bruise; Hon. E. L. Daughtridge, Edgemonte, bruise; Sheriff Sharp of Wilson, knocked unconscious, scalp wound and may be internally hurt; R. R. Duncan, Clayton, slight cut and bruise; Marvin Ellis, Raleigh, bruised; W. H. Bynum, bruised.
These are only the whites but five colored men were hurt also.
The graduating class at the North Carolina College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts number 29. These will graduate as follows: Industrial chemistry 6, mechanical engineering 6, textile engineering 7, civil engineering 5, electrical engineering 11, agriculture 1.
The commencement exercises will be held in the opera house, as Pullen Hall is not yet completed. Governor Aycock will deliver the diplomas and will address the class.

COVE.
May 20.—This is court week in Cove, only four cases came up yesterday before T. B. Ipeck J. P. for disorderly conduct on the streets Saturday night.
Mrs. Kittle Jones Misses Ona Avery, and Ruby Daugherty, returned from Dover this morning where they have been to attend the closing exercises of high school at that place.
All who attended the services at the Baptist church Sunday afternoon were very much pleased with the sermon delivered by the blind preacher.
The two stores now occupied by Ivan Riggs and W. E. Jones is being moved farther up Middle street opposite the postoffice which adds much to the appearance of the new depot.
Miss Neta Clark of New Bern is visiting the Misses Fay Lois this week.
Miss Fannie Kilpatrick of Kingston has been spending a few days with Mrs. J.
W. Kennedy, and returned home yesterday.
Crops are almost ruined around here owing to the dry weather and corn and potatoes are dying for want of rain.

Eulalia Ordered Out of Spain.
The Princess Eulalia, King Alfonso's aunt recently went to Madrid from Paris to carry out her cherished project for the extension of the royal palace in Calle Quinita, and while the preparations were proceeding a violent scene occurred between the Princess and the Queen mother, who heaped reproaches upon the Princess for the separation from her husband and ordered her out of Spain immediately.
Princess Eulalia as the Spanish Infanta visited this country during the World's Fair at Chicago.
