CONFLICT OF AUTHORITY

between Federal and Civil on Blaisdel Case.

Raleigh, May 26.—An odd case has developed at New Bern, which involves a conflict between Federal and State authority. Lt. W. G. Blaisdel of the United States Revenue Cutter Boutwell was sued by Alfred Ryman, formerly coxswain of the cutter, for malicious prosecution, in proceedings of arrest and bail. Lt. Blaisdel was arrested on the streets of New Bern by the Sheriff. He then asked the latter to go to the cutter with him. The Sheriff did so. As soon as Lt. Blaisdel got aboard he put himself under the protection of the Captain, who has ever since given him protection. The Sheriff demanded of the Secretary of the Treasury the person of Blaisdel, but the Secretary said he could not be arrested while in the discharge of his official duties. District Attorney Harry Skinner is directed by the Secretary to have the case removed to the federal court and the situation relieved. Until this is effected Lt. Blaisdel has to remain on board the cutter or the sheriff will attempt to arrest him. District Attorney Skinner has made out the proper papers.

Weekly Crop Bulletin

For Week Ending Monday, May 25, 1903.

Over a large portion of the State severe drought continued to prevail during the past week, and the prospect for crops has become extremely grave. In many counties, especially in the central and western portions, no appreciable rain has fallen for nearly four weeks, and on account of the small size of the plants and their inability to withstand drought, present conditions may prove to be very disastrous. At Raleigh the number of consecutive days without rain was 23, the longest period of drought on record. Where no rain occurred the great increase in temperature which otherwise would have been very favorable, served only to intensify the drought. Conditions began to be favorable for local showers about the 21st, and since then in some cases chiefly eastern counties irregularly distributed showers have fallen, generally in amounts quite inadequate, only two places, Lumberton and Raleigh receiving over an inch. The small amount of rain that did occur was very beneficial. The temperature averaged over 10 degrees above the daily normal, the maximum exceeded 90 degrees during the last half of the week, reaching an extreme of 98 degrees at Marion. Every day was warm and sunny. The drought has caused the practical suspension of all farm work, as the soil is in bad condition. For the time of the year crops are generally quite small and inferior.

On this basis we will continue to grow. We are in business to make money, but know full well that we must earn our confidence before we can get your patronage.

FARMERS ALLIANCE

Says Will Not Again Go Into Politics.

Baptists On State Aid To Colleges. Effect Watis Bill on Moonshining. Voted For Graded School.

RALEIGH, May 26.—At Wake Forest college today editor J. William Bailey made an address at the alumni banquet, which in some respects is a notable utterance. He discussed the policy of the Baptists regarding State aid to higher education and said a denominational college is not an institution to create specialists; that the church does not abandon the principle of opposition to State aid but that the latter will be continued, and yet that while the State University will continue to injure the denominational colleges, the latter will continue to prosper.

The cancellation of farm mortgages in this county is remarkably large. It is learned from the officials that there is less indebtedness than in many years past. The number of new mortgages given is very small. Much buying of land is being done.

Adjutant General Royster says complete rosters of the officers and enlisted men of the North Carolina National Guard are now being made out for the war department. He says the companies are being recruited to the standard, and that the strength of the Guard, including the four divisions of naval reserves, will very probably aggregate 2100. There are besides the four divisions, 93 infantry companies and one light battery of artillery.

Business agent T. B. Parker of the State Farmers Alliance says that order is now growing quite rapidly; that lecturer H. M. Cates is organizing it county by county, and finds the people glad to reorganize. He says the order will not again go into politics; and adds that it did not in 1893-97 get into politics but that politics got into it. The State convention will be held at Hillsboro in August. The Alliance buildings there may then be sold.

Clerk Grant of the federal court here, which is now in session, says there are only 88 cases of moonshining while 100 is the average number. He says that as yet it can't be told whether the Watis bill will increase moonshining; that there is a difference of opinion; that the western district an increase is expected; that a maker of stills there has repaired 25 in the past 20 days; that there are now more moonshining cases at Wilmington court here, this being due to the nearness of four prohibition counties to Wilmington.

Insurance Commissioner Young has been to the piedmont section where he got two warrants for R. B. Withers, charged with collecting insurance premiums without license and not making any return of such premiums. Withers is now out of the State.

A charter is granted the Elm City bank, of Wilson county, capital $30,000, John L. Bailey holding nearly all the stock.

The board of agriculture met today. One of the chief matters before it is the relation of the A. & M. College to the board and how to make the college expenses fall within the college income.

News was received here today that the town of Kenly had by a handsome majority voted for a local tax for graded schools.

FOREMAN.

May 25.—The continued drought was somewhat broken by showers last night and Friday night.

Messrs Wm Campen and W F Guthrie report having dug potatoes and both report a pretty fair yield.

Our farmers are pretty well under way with their cotton chopping, but are somewhat behind owing to the first planting not coming up.

The recent drought has so damaged oats in some places in this section that they are beyond redemption, but the low lands will make a fair crop if the showers continue.

Quite a number of our young people went to North River last Friday night to attend the closing exercises of Mrs. Lillian Foreman's school.

The topic of the day among our villagers is the proposed rail road by the Roper Lumber Company which promises to be of great interest to our people, in that it will greatly stimulate truck farming and other enterprises.

Quite a number of our people went to Russell's Creek Sunday to attend the funeral of Mr. P. P. Dicklason of that place who died Friday night of dropsy. The deceased had been ill for about two months; during which time he gradually grew worse until the end. He was seventy years of age and leaves a wife and three children.

Much credit is due our good citizens for the recent improvements made on public roads. We would suggest that a little more care be taken in leveling the grading done on section 2. There is nothing that will advertise a piece more than its highways.

The Crown Bottling Works has just received another solid car of Porters famous beer direct from the brewery in a refrigerating car.

A CELEBRATED CASE

That of Ernest Haywood. Habeas Corpus Proceedings Argument

RALEIGH, May 26.—The Ernest Haywood murder case will be argued here Thursday, on habeas corpus proceedings. A number of photographs of the streets and buildings in the vicinity of the crime have been taken, and also very careful measurements of distances. Both sides appear confident; the State, that bail will not be granted by Associate Justice Douglas, the defense that it will win out in this matter.

There are a score of important matters which will be brought out at this hearing. It all bears strongly on the great trial to be held later on. Weeks ago attorneys for the State said they were willing to let down the bars and go into all the private matters back of the killing. There is intense interest in the case not only in North Carolina but in other States. It is really a celebrated case.

MERRITT.

May 26.—We have had fine weather for the last week.

The steamer Blanche carried off the first potatoes shipped from this place Saturday morning, there were about 100 barrels. The seed who dug potatoes reported a yield of about 80 barrels to the acre.

We had some rain Sunday night which was badly needed in our section.

Three colored boys ran away from their homes Sunday. They think they will have a good time abroad, but they will get fooled.

The son of Mr. F. P. Gatlin who sprained his foot some time ago is out again.

We are expecting a right heavy shipment of potatoes from here today.

June National Magazine

The beautiful girl graduate, whose likeness adorns the cover of the June National, reflects the lightness and charm of the first Summer number of the popular Boston monthly. Following June-time, a picture-and-panopom frontispiece by Louise Lewin Matthews, the number opens with Mr. Capple's Affairs at Washington, fifteen pages of snapshot sketches and pictures of life at the nation's capital. John Hicks, in Our Island in the Tropics, depicts life at the nation's capital. John Hicks, in Our Island in the Tropics, depicts life at the nation's capital. Curiously intimate are the Personal Recollections of General Grant's Life in the Field, by "An Officer of His Personal Staff." Charles Ferguson continues his brilliant exposition of The Genius of Business; Frank Eberle tells how fortunes have been won and lost in the Kansas-Missouri Zinc District; Dallas Lore Sharp contributes a stirring story of his encounter with a huge black snake—first of a dozen nature papers he has written for The National; F. W. Coburn discusses The Reactionists in Art; Frank Putnam's Note and Comment touches lightly on various phases of American life, and General Charles Dick and Albert L. Olough write of Akron, Ohio, and Manchester, New Hampshire, respectively. Two readable articles on American railroading, a sketch of one of America's greatest advertising experts and a page engraving of the new cup defender Bellanca are timely features. Eva Hampton Prather of Atlanta contributes a remarkable novelette of old slavery days—Little Brown Ann—and other fine stories are printed from the pens of Norman H. Crowell of Iowa, F. H. Lancaster of Louisiana, Davon C. Cheney of Wisconsin, Clarence Hawkes of Massachusetts and M. MacLean Hellwell of Ontario. The number is lavishly illustrated.
