FAST GAME.

Best Exhibition of Season at Athletic Park Yesterday Afternoon.

Those that failed to get out to Athleti Park resterday afternoon missed one of the prottiest exhibitions of ball playing since the abaudonment of the Lesgue last year, and it might be said that the ne yesterday was far superior to some nes that were put up by the profes-nals. The game from beginning gave dence that it was to be stubbornly lought and the three runs that New

Trenton had several good chances to Trenton had several good chances to score but a fast double play and the steady pitching of Prettyman was too much for the visitors to overcome.

The work of Harris, Harper and Whitaker, F. S., for Treuton was good, while the New Bern team an a whole played good ball, but the first base play of McSorley deserves more than passing

The University Summer School. Teachers of North Carolina and ad-sining States are showing their appre-lation of the efforts made by the author-ciation of the efforts made by the author-tiles of the University to provide for them the test instruction and other ad-vantages during the Summer School, June 16, July 10. Nearly all the rooms in the Carr Building, which is reserved for ladies and under the care of Dr and Mrs Lewis, of Kinston, bave been en ed. The Mary Ann Smith Building will also be occupied by ladles, the South Building by the gentlemen. Fur-nished rooms, and good board at Comone Hall, cost only ten dollars for the m, teachers staying in the dormito ries bringing towels and bed linen.

Forty-four courses are offered, including subjects of special value to teacher of all grades. In addition to the members of the University faculty, there are among the instructors such well known scialists as Dr Herman H Horne, Professors W C A Hammel, Arthur B Murrill, Franklin L Riley, D'N Shoemaker, Maurice G Fulton, W L Poushee, Julius I Poust, Misses Margeret A Johnston and Melvile Fort. Professor Robert M Brown, and others whose instruction will be most helpful to our teachers who desire to broaden their scholarship and improve their methods. The opportuni ty for such great advantages at so small a cost has not heretofore been offered to the teachers of North Carolina or any other State.

An Honorable Man.

EDITOR JOURNAL:-I saw a day or so ago something in your paper concerning usury and one Williams (a nigger.) Did you get a favor from a man? Yes and then sue the man because he grant-

Granting this to be true, then at his teath no decent man or woman ought to follow him to his grave. I am sorry for the man who pleads usuary, and I am still more sorry for his lawyer.

Some lawyers talk about character this and character that. Well If I had a character that moved me to bring a ususious suit. I would then consider myself characteriess in the sight of all decent

We are told by some men who have a E ICE licence to practice law, that the usualous law was put on the statute book to keep the peor le slong.

I am sorry for that man who believes please say advertised and give date of this statement. The truth is, the usurious law was drawn uy and champloned through the Legislature by certain men The regulations now require that one (1 who had licence to practice law for their sole benefit. cent shall be collected on the delivery of each advertised letter.
