AROUND AND ABOUT.
 The river is again running low but no boats have gone aground.
 The two masted schooner Susan A. Bryan is on the way for repairs.
 The city street hands are digging up the sewer in Moonshine alley. It was in a very bad condition.
 Owing to the absence of the pastor, Rev. H. S. Bradshaw, there will be no services in the Presbyterian church to day.
 Capt. John Cotton, is on the A. O. U. S. run between this city and Wilmington, in the absence of Capt. Geo. M. Crayton, who is enjoying a few days vacation.
 Joe Bryant and Sanford Jones, two colored boys were before the Mayor yesterday charged with disorderly conduct. They were fined the costs, $2.75 each.
 The E. C. D. Line will sell tickets to Baltimore and return Monday, (tomorrow) for $3.00. Tickets good for going on Monday only, and returnable July 30th.
 The T. J. Turner Furniture Company, will only occupy the building next the Planters temporarily, that is until the completion of the brick block that Dr. P. W. Hughes is having erected on lower Middle street.
 The juvenile population of New Bern are still struggling in the throes of whooping cough. The disease is said to be more annoying and serious than ever before. Several grown people are suffering with it also.
 The weather during the past week has been almost perfect. Although many other places have suffered from the heat, it has been mild here, the mean temperature being 86 degrees. The forecast for today is fair weather.
 The sharp Pauline T. Capt. Sanders, arrived here yesterday with a load of very nice watermelons, from Bogue Sound. It is said that the cool dry weather almost ruined the early crop, but the late crop is more promising.
 The knitting mill here closed yesterday at noon for its annual vacation, and will not open up again until Monday, August 3rd. It is a custom with the management of the mills to allow their operatives a vacation of two or three weeks every summer.
 Mr. Robert Alexander, of Jersey City who is visiting Mr. T. F. McCarthy, says that Devil, third baseman for Newark in Eastern League, is one of the stars of the League. Mr. Alexander says that "Dev." goes after everything that comes his way, and his batting is a feature.
 As usual, everybody that could get away, went down to Morehead and Beaufort last night. Those that didn't go last night will probably do so this morning. A few stay-at-homes will remain, in order to give the others a return about the delightful breezes that prevailed here during their absence.
 In our Pollockville letter, Thursday, the correspondent reported the death of "Mr. Bryce Scott, of Palo Alto." It should have read "Mr. Bryce Trot, of Palo Alto." Mr. Trot was the son of Mr. B. W. Trot, one of Onslow county's most worthy, and prominent citizens, and the Journal extends its sympathy to the bereaved father.
In Memory of Vera Bond.
 On Sunday afternoon July 13, 1908, at 4:30 o'clock, the life on earth of little Vera Bond, the seven year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Farrow, came to a close. Vera was a child intellectually bright, quick and active. The strong love she had for her parents made obedience to their wishes a joy. She was happy every day and we feel that her little life was complete. The seed of truth sown in her young mind sprang up and bore fruit to perfection. Her life was permeated with the mellowing influence of the love of Jesus. Often in observing this we regarded her as almost angelic, she is not dead—her influence lives, and will live forever.
 There was an Angel hand in Heaven That was not quite complete, So God took darling Vera, To fill the vacant seat.
Will Denote Memorial Building.
 Charity and Children.
 Mr. J. O. Whitty, of New Bern, has determined to build a house at the Baptist Orphanage, Thomasville, in memory of his beloved daughter who has gone from her earthly home, happy as it was to the home not made with hands. Brother Whitty could hardly have done a nobler or a wiser thing. We hope he will feel in his heart the glow of a higher joy than he ever felt before as he thus honors the dead by helping the living.
RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.
 Adopted by the Board of Aldermen on Death of Wallace Ross.
 Whereas, An all wise God has been fit to take from our number brother Wallace Ross, he is resolved by the Board of Aldermen in meeting assembled.
 1. That we mourn our loss solemnly and deeply, and bow in submission to His will in taking him from us.
 2. While just entering upon the public duties, he was a faithful and diligent worker for the interest of this community.
 3. That we extend to his beloved wife our hearty sympathy and desire to give aid to her in her bereavement.
 4. That a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to his family, published in the Journal and spread upon the altars.

HAPPY SOCIAL AFFAIR.
 Brilliant Reception Given by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lee Craig in Honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Watson, of New Bern.
 Gastonia Gazette, July 17th.
 Rarely does Gastonia society have an opportunity to participate in so pleasant and brilliant an occasion as was the reception given Tuesday evening, by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lee Craig, in honor of Mrs. Craig's brother, Mr. J. W. Watson, and his bride, of New Bern. Mr. and Mrs. Watson were married two weeks and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Craig on their return home from an extended bridal tour in the mountains of Western North Carolina.
 The handsome Craig residence, corner of York and Main streets, was brilliant with many lights, which shone over a large assemblage of happy young society people and the best-footed hours sped by all too quickly. The lavish hospitality of the Craig home is proverbial and this occasion was no exception.
 The guests, who numbered two hundred in all, came in two sections, the hours being from 8:30 to 9:30 and from 10 to 11 o'clock.
 In an alcove of palms just outside the front door little Miss Lillian Watson, dressed in pink silk, assisted by little Miss Sarah Mallon, dressed in white organdy, received the cards and the guests were greeted at the door by Miss Adelle Christensen. From the front hall, which was prettily decorated in carolans and palms, the guests were introduced into the parlor by Mrs. G. W. Regan where they met the receiving party, Mr. and Mrs. Craig, and Mr. and Mrs. Watson. Here the decorations consisted of carnations, ferns and amallax.
 The guests were then ushered into the library. The colors used in decorating the library, which was originally in oriental colors, were red and yellow.
 From the library the guests were ushered into the sitting room, beautifully decorated with rhododendron blossoms from the mountains where Miss Lottie Blake, assisted by little Miss Florence Edna Watson, dispensed punch from a handsome bowl resting on a bed of ferns and panicles. The guests were then conducted to the dining room where refreshments in heart shapes were served. Here the colors used were white and green, a profusion of ferns and palms furnishing a most pleasing decorative effect. A large bed of sweet peas formed a center piece for the table.
 The gowns worn by the ladies of the receiving party were handsome and costly. Mrs. Watson wore a gown of pearl grey pique de crepe richly embroidered with pink roses, her jewels being pearls. Mrs. Craig's gown was of black silk voile with point duchesse lace, with diamonds.
OFF FOR CONVENT.
 Messrs. John H. Weddell and Tom C. Daniels, delegates from New Bern lodge leave tonight for Baltimore where they will attend the Grand Reunion of the Elks in that city.
 New line of Panama Hats just received at J. J. Baxter's.

OBITUARY.
 Miss Mary Catherine Glover died at her home, corner of East Front and Union streets, at 5 o'clock a. m. July 15th, 1908. Her sickness was of brief duration, and her sudden death came with a great shock, and spread gloom and sorrow throughout the entire community.
 Such was the deep feeling engendered by the sudden departure of this loved one and friend that these words fitly describe the condition of every one in its presence: "It was dumb, I cannot not my mouth; because Thou didst it."
 Hence almost still prevails, when we would speak a word, adequate setting forth the excellence of her character, and the beauty of her sweet life.
 She was of the noblest type of the exemplification of modest, christian womanhood. A sublime simplicity characterized all her life and ways, which is a greatness above the possible expression of tongue or pen.
 Her praises are on every lip, and will live an abiding memorial in the hearts of all who knew her and loved her.
 She united with the Presbyterian church in the '60's, and was from that time effectually interested in, and identified with, all church life and progress.
 For many years a teacher in the Sabbath School, she maintained a continuous devotion to the welfare of the youth of the church and community.
 In her heart there always was found a tender sympathy for the suffering and needy, and her gifts were equally ready and liberal. She bore in her person the graces of the Spirit, and expressed the principles of the Gospel in her practice, now, she rests from her labors, and her works do follow her.
 At the rising dawn of the Sabbath Earth's ties were severed, and her Spirit was called home to God, where family ties no more are broken, and where sabbaths have no end.
 She is survived by two sisters and two brothers, and a number of near relations.
 May the heavenly Father deal very tenderly with them, and give them peace!
