RAILWAYS APPRAISED.

Valuation Increased About Seventy Eight Million Dollars.

RALPHIGH, August 4.—The appraisalment of the railways and other common carriers is the interesting event of the week. The total figures approximate quite closely the popular estimate. There were a few people who thought the valuation would go as high as $100,000,000. The Atlantic and North Carolina Railway in which the State owns no large interest, is assessed at $77,800,000.

It is understood that the railways and other corporations in interest will be given a hearing next Friday. There have been some intimations that the railways would not make any fight upon the assessment.

The most notable increase in valuation in proportion to mileage, is in the case of the Atlantic Coast Line, which system has up to this time been assessed at a lower rate than the others. The western North Carolina railway, including the Murphy branch, is assessed at $35,000 per mile, the same as the North Carolina railway.

The increase in the valuation of the railways is very nearly $38,000,000. The gross earnings of the railways in this State are about $16,000,000, and the operating expenses about $10,000,000.

GOOD MAN GONE WRONG.

A Notable Case Before The Mayor Yesterday.

It is out of style to say "not tall" now but evidently that is what Mayor Ellis thought when city attorney W D McIver appeared before his bar of justice for sentence. Mr McIver is the author of various city ordinances among them the one relative to riding bicycles on sidewalks. He made them and then like a good many other men he forgot them, or possibly he was testing the validity of his own laws, or maybe he was seeking notoriety, any way he got punished for riding his wheel on forbidden places.

Mr McIver took the matter very philosophically and heavily taxed the sun.

The Mayor was indignant and only said Mr McIver the more innocent as it was his first offense. The gentleman has probably discovered that the law is all right and that he will better than he knew, when he found that evidence.

About a half dozen colored women from the sixth ward went before the Mayor for maintaining common decency. They were let off with a reprimand and a warning to keep their parties in ordinary condition.

"Disability" laws are being rigidly enforced and the results show in the health of the city. The city is a healthy one and the results show in the health of the city. The city is a healthy one and the results show in the health of the city.

PIUS TENTH.

Patriarch of Venice Elevated to Pontifical Throne.

Conclave Makes an Unexpected
Choice After a Short Deadlock: Favorite of the Italian Government.

Special to Journal.

Roma, August 4.—After taking seven ballots, the Sacred College of Cardinals in conclave, succeeded in electing Cardinal Giuseppe Saraceni, the Patriarch of Venice as successor to Leo XIII.

The new pope-elect is what might be termed a "dark horse" as no mention had been made of his candidacy heretofore.

Cardinal Saraceni was born at Biadene, in North Italy, in 1835. Extremely independent, he has avoided politics, altogether, to patronize the arts and sciences.

On his preferment to the patriarchate of Venice in 1898, he encountered more or less opposition before he could take possession of his See. It was claimed that the patriarchate was a part of the King of Italy's patronage. But being personally a favorite of Humbert, and the government, the matter was finally dropped and the patriarch was allowed to rule his diocese in peace, beloved by Catholics, esteemed by the government, and respected by his enemies.

The Catholic institutions of Venice have prospered very much under his care. Saraceni is recognized as one of the most learned men of the day. He has always been a stickler for truth between the church and the people, and won considerable renown a few years ago by destroying certain relics of doubtful authenticity.

Cardinal Saraceni was but little known until about fifteen years ago. He was parish priest in the province of Venice the greater part of his life, became a bishop afterwards and was created a cardinal in 1893, being at the same time named Patriarch of Venice.

Saraceni chooses the title of Pius Tenth. His election gives general satisfaction especially as he is the man Pope Leo wished as his successor. He is pronounced liberal, and opposes any policy of hostility towards the Italian government.
