hree great systems of rallways in this State, namely the Southers, Atlantic Coast Line and Seaboard Air Line, find exceptions to the assessment made by the corporation commission. Today no tice was given that the exceptions are over-roled. Now, unless there is a conest in the courts, or the roads secure an njunction, the tax will have to be here on the part of properly owners at the increase of valuations of real estate and buildings in Raleigh township. It was admitted that values have in most casca been too low, but the owners deplare that the assessors have now gone much too high.

The demands for State convicts on private work was never so great as at resent. If the State had a thousand or re available it could find takers for them all. The Southern railway wants 500, no doubt for the work of double-tracking its line between Danville and Charlotte via Greensboro.
