RALEIGH

Increased Assessments Will Provide Taxes Enough to Meet Requirements. South Carolina and Virginia to Help Fight Trust.

Raleigh, Aug. 25.—State Auditor Dix says that he feels reasonably sure the valuation of all the property in this State will be increased from 85 to 95 per cent, this including the tax on railroads. He thinks that the total amount of taxes will be sufficient to meet the State's expenditures and thus relieve the situation which last year and so far this year has been quite a troublesome one. He expects considerable revenue from the whisky tax under the new law. Of course no man can tell yet what this tax will be and still less what it will be next year as so many towns are going dry. Still, there is liability for the tax until the saloons and distilleries are closed.

The Masons are certainly going to work most earnestly to promote their great masonic temple fair here. All sorts of new schemes are being brought out. It is the hope that something like $10,000 will be realized from the fair.

At the penitentiary work in the brick yards is now very active. The machines are found to do well. There is a large demand for brick.

The Insurance Commissioner continues his good work of running down fire-bugs, who do incendiary work. Several cases are pending before the courts against this class of people, and in the past three years over a dozen have been put in the penitentiary or in jail.

The leading negroes in this State seem to be very earnest in their effort to get down those who bring discredit upon their color. They claim that they will be able to do a great deal along this line, and naturally the white people are looking with interest upon the steps they take.

It is now certain that South Carolina and Virginia will co-operate with this State in the effort to fight the tobacco trust. It is not yet known whether there will be co-operation in the effort to get the Federal government to attack this trust in the courts.

Twenty five convicts have been sent from the penitentiary to the Cape Fear and Northern railway in order to extend it from Angier to Dunn.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

Another View of Tobacco Matter.

Ed JOURNAL.—The farmers and merchants have met and talked over the tobacco situation, but the tobacco trust stands out like a great octopus with its long feelers cast around the tobacco raisers as prominently as before, sucking the life blood out of them. How shall we escape, how shall we protect ourselves?

Very pertinent questions, who will answer them? The farmers have a right to grow tobacco, no one will question it, the manufacturers and dealers have the right to buy or leave it alone when it is put on the market. We are not in a position to dictate prices, so what are we going to do?

I think we will do like Philip did in the whirlwind, "do the best we can." The question of boycott is non-sensical, could not be executed. In our present condition I see nothing to do but wait for development. But we have a remedy for the future, let every farmer use that remedy. Do not plant money crops to the exclusion of home supply crops.

Be sure to raise plenty corn, hay, potatoes and all other crops necessary for home supplies, and then divide your crops, don't raise all tobacco nor all cotton, you will be sure of fair prices for some of them.

The farmers feel very kindly toward our merchants who have met us with extended hands and offers of assistance to take our great trouble with one of our staple products is bringing in the market less than cost of production. We hope it will grow to a still stronger attachment, our interest is closely allied. We thank the merchants of New Bern very much for doing all they can to get us a fair price for our tobacco. We believe that the "convention" of merchants and farmers will be of material benefit to the farmers.

There is a class of business men, the grain dealers, we think should take an active part in the interest of the farmer, or that he may receive fair prices for his product. They give their names to the list of their goods to the farmers. The largest dealer in the town is the grain dealer. We thank the interest for its active work in our interest.

VICTORIOUS AGAIN.

The Reliance Defeats the Shamrock by Nearly Two Minutes. Special to Journal.

New York, Aug. 25.—The second race between the Reliance and the Shamrock resulted in a second victory for the American yacht. The course was the triangular course, and the wind was light blowing at the start about seven miles an hour.

The start was:
Shamrock 11-01-30
Reliance 11-02-30

The Reliance gained at the start and passed the Irish boat but the light wind was to the Shamrock's advantage. Riggie, Captain of Shamrock, seemed to keep uncomfortably close to the Reliance and kept up a pretty race.

At 12:10 the Reliance took a spurt ahead and took quite a lead, and while her adversary went on port tack she increased her lead.

At the turning stake the Reliance was three-fourths of a mile ahead of the Shamrock and still gaining.

Reliance rounded stake boat 12-24-55; Shamrock 12-25-55, and the first leg of the race was completed. A haze filled the air and it was difficult to distinguish the boats for some time.

Reliance turned second mark three minutes ahead of the Shamrock. At 1:40 the boats were headed direct for the finishing line, Reliance increasing her lead.

Shamrock sailed faster and lessened the distance between her and the Reliance almost one half. Although Reliance was almost a mile in the lead the chances seemed to make the finish a close one. Shamrock behaved splendidly.

At 1:58 Reliance gained the long reach and was five miles from the finishing line.

At 2 o'clock the wind shifted from westward, blowing at the rate of 10 miles per hour.

Shamrock gained a slight advantage on that account.

Reliance crossed the line at 2-15-30; Shamrock, 2-19-30. Reckoning the time allowance the Reliance beat the Shamrock by one minute and thirty-eight seconds.

The fire was started in a kitchen drawer in a room in the second story. It is believed to have been caused by some smoking material in their use.

The entire damage is estimated to be about $200. The damage to the house being $150 and to the furniture $50. There was no loss of life.

BILL ARP GONE.

After Many Months of Suffering, The Quaint Humorist and Homely Philosopher Finds Rest.

Cartersville, Ga., Aug. 25.—Major Charles H. Smith, known and loved all over the South as "Bill Arp," died at his home "The Shadows" in a Monday evening, August 24th, after a painful illness of many months.

An operation was performed a few days ago, since which time Major Smith has been growing weaker, being also unconscious until the end came.

Major Charles Hensley Smith was born of Scotch-Irish parentage at Lawrenceville Ga., June 18, 1836, and was therefore 77 years of age.

Major Smith enlisted in the Confederate service in the first days of the war, and filled various positions in the service, both in the army and as a field-lieutenant.

After the war he took up the practice of law, but as age began to creep on him, and his children grew up and married, or as he termed it "the crop was laid by," he gave up his practice, and retired to a farm.

For twenty-five years he has been a contributor to the Atlantic Constitution, and his quaint and humorous letters have delighted and charmed thousands of readers, until his name has become familiar in nearly every household of the land.
