James H Pou who has returned from three weeks visit to New York and vicinity says there is now far more talk in the North about politics than there is here. He says he is willing to bet any mount that the Low administration will be beaten in New York. He says it is entirely plain that if the Democrate would vote for Cleveland they could sauly elect him and defeat Rossevelt, but he does not believe they will vete for Cleveland. The independents in New York and elsewhere are saying very plainly that if the Democrats put up ing today in the city of Eims on busi
