FINANCIAL OUTLOOK

Per State Next Year Reported Good.

State Charters Granted. State Educational Loan. Frost Injures Cotton. Booker Washing ten to Visit Colored Fair at Raleigh.

Raleigh, October 27.—A charter is granted to the Pantego and Bellhaven Real Estate and Investment Company of Pantego, capital stock $15,000, John H. Small, C. P. Aycock, and others being stockholders; also a charter to the Maclure Lumber Co. of Robeson county, capital stock $20,000, T. O. McNeely and others stockholders.
State Auditor Dixon says the State's financial outlook is very good for next year. The State will pay its running expenses, the balance of debt, not provided for by the bond issue, and will have a pretty good balance this year, it seems. It takes a great burden from the shoulders of the Treasurer and Auditor when they realize that there will be money in the treasury and that the borrowing business is at an end.
The Supreme Court called the docket of appeals from the state district this morning.

The State Board of Education today made another loan this time of $9,000 in aid of school houses in 11 counties. This loan represents the building fund of $27,000, as the counties will add $18,000 of the amount last year's goes to eleven districts in Mecklenburg county. The total amount so far lent from the educational fund for the building and improvement of public school houses is $70,000.

State Treasurer Loy has been in poor health for the past five weeks, having suffered much from asthma, but today said that he felt better than in a long while.
Revenue Collector Duncan has returned from Baltimore where he was two weeks with his youngest son, who was successfully operated upon.

At the term of the United States District Court, soon to be held here, there are no cases of special importance, but there are even more than usual number of post office cases of various kinds.
There was a sharp frost this morning, which had considerable effect upon cotton.

Governor Aycock left on the morning train on his way to Hartsville, S. C., where he will speak tomorrow at the celebration of the deceased high school.

The negroes here are manifesting great interest in the visit of Booker Washington to the colored State Fair, who is to speak here next Friday.
In the Supreme Court today there was argument in a case brought to test the constitutionality of the law barring osteopaths from practicing medicine in North Carolina.

On account of the sickness of Judge Prother he was unable to hold the civil term of the Superior Court here today.

State Superintendent Joyce left today for Elizabeth City, near Hendersonville where he will speak at the graduation of a very handsome school building.

Supreme Court Opinions.
Special to Journal.

Raleigh, Oct. 27.—The Supreme Court filed the following opinions here today.
Commodore vs. A. A. L. By, from Graham, affirmed.
Hatcher vs. Dobb, from Anson, new trial.
State vs. Simpson, from Union, no error.
State vs. Frank Cook, from Union, new trial.
State vs. Jeff Cook, from Union, new trial.
Hodge vs. Western Union Telegraph Company, from Harnett, affirmed.
Lassiter vs. Hedgway, from Wake, affirmed.
Fenny vs. My, from New Hanover, affirmed.
In re Odum, from Sampson, reversed.

The following cases were disposed of by per curiam order:
State vs. Marsh, from Union, new trial.
Hilbert vs. Sykes, from Union, affirmed.
Braxton vs. White, Superior Fund Life Assurance, from Granville, defendant's appeal dismissed under rule 11.
One of Marsh from Union had case which has commonly attracted attention, because papers sent up to Supreme Court which contained important words which would kill defendant.
