New Building at State Fair Grounds Raleigh, Nov 14.—New buildings have been completed at the Poultry experi-ment station here, which is now west of and adjoining the State Fair grounds, be ing really a part of that property. An incubator house, two stories high with cellar, has been built, and also a house for the setting fowls, this being some seventy feet in length.

New poultry houses have been built while an orchard has been fenced so as to give ample space for the fowls, of which there are hundreds; all the best of breeds being represented. Swamp Lands in Demand. Raleigh, Nov 14.—The demand for the State's swamp lands seems to be greater han heretofore' this being due to the pressing need for timbers of all kinds.

HARLOWE AND N HARLOWE. Nov 14.—Quarterly meeting last Saturday and Sunday was well attended and the large congregations were highly en-tertained and profited by the able ser-mons presched by Dr Swindell.

Mr John Hewett of Newport, was our visitor last Sunday and was giving his best attention to one of our fairest Miss Iola Dickinson died at Core Creek yesterday. She has for many years been a constant sufferer.

Mrs A F Bell after a weeks visit to her slaterin New Bern returned home last Friday with her son, Jas R Eell, Esq. who spent the day in New Bern.

We were glad to have the following attendance at our Quarterly meeting:-Mr Devid McCain and Misses Elliot and McCain of Newport; G L Hardison and daughter, Miss Carrie of Thurman Messers Jas L Taylor and A J Whitehead

Mesdames J Land JA Morton. Mr Clyde Morton, Mrs Caroline Bangert and Mesers Albert and E Da Bangert accompanied the remains of Mrs Barbara Ban Paul's Catholic church, and where the body was interred in the Cedar Grove Cemetery. She had only lived among us a few years but she was one of thos rare christian characters who brighten and make sweeter the lives of others even in passing, and those of us who knew her even now when she has gone feel the impress of her touch, and know that we are better for her having passed our way. While we recognize our lives still we feel assured that after her long years of suffering she has reached a heaven where there is no pain, and where she may live forever in the beauty of

Quite a number of our people follow ed Edwin Swindell to Oak Grove Sunday afternoon where they again enjoyed this eloquant discourse.

Mr E D Bangert, Mrs J S Morton and Miss Bessie Morton spent Thursday in New Bern making purchases.

Mrs Geo D Conner of Riverdale, made a visit to her relatives here last week. Mrs H W Bell of New Bern is spending the day with us.
