

MISS MONIE BOWEY

A couple of winters ago I slipped on a frozen stdewalk and fell flat on my back. On being examined I found that I had sustained internal injuries which faid me up for more than two months. After that I noticed that I had pains in the back and groin which I never had before. I doctored and doctored for several months but as the pains increased instead of growing better I decided that I was not having the right treatment. Reading in the papers of the wonderful cures performed by Wine of Cardul I wrote to one of the parties and received a very satisfactory

Cardui cured Miss Bowey.
As a medicine for all women in every trying period of their lives can you think of a better medicine for yourself, your sister, your daughter or your mother? Can you think of a more acceptable present to give your friend than a bottle of this medicine which will bring her health and happiness? You are suffering? Your duty is to rid yourself of this pain. If your daughter, mother, sister or friend is sick and in need of relief, your duty is equally great to them. Many women, now well, owe their lives to friends who brought them Wine of Cardui.

Wine of Cardui is adapted to wo-

Wine of Cardul I wrote to one of the parties and received a very satisfactory reply and I immediately sent for some. In a very short time I felt generally better and after seven weeks faithful one I was once more well and strong. Thave never had a sick hour since and I daily bless your splendid medicine. Wine of Cardul is adapted to wo men at any age in any walk of life. For the working woman it gives her atrength for her tasks and better treatment than a doctor for very small MONIE BOWEY. VE OF CARDUI is one medicine that should always be kept on hand in every home for im-mediate use when female weakness first makes its appearance. Miss Bowey's painful and dangerous accident would not have resulted so seriously bad she taken Wine of Cardui promptly.

Your druggist will sell you a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui. Secure the medicine today. Take it in the privacy of your home. Relief will come to you as surely as you take it.

Arrived before the Red Llou, the only hostelry in the village, the mounte-bank paused. He made a circle about him and ordered his bear to stand upright. Then, flourishing his baton over the head of the animal, he began to dance with him, taking steps and poses which the bear imitated. One might believe the inhabitants of Hopfield very happy, for the crowd laughed heartly.

A ventriloquist who was stopping at A ventrilequist who was stopping at the Red Lion regarded from a window this spectacle of buffoonery. Arriving that morning, he had already had op-portunities of recognizing the charac-ter of the inhabitants of the place. The idea, therefore, occurred to him of amusing himself at their expense. He descended among the spectators, and, profiting by a moment when the flageolet and tambourine were silent, he approached the mountebank.

"No doubt your bear can talk," he said to him. The man regarded him fixedly,
