Do you ever have an accident?

If you do never mind it, for it is not your fault. It is the fault of the machine. You see nothing if not satisfied when you have your carriage repaired. You see nothing if not satisfied when you have your carriage repaired. You see nothing if not satisfied when you have your carriage repaired.

North Carolina History Prizes.

At a recent meeting of the Historical Commission it was decided to offer three prizes of a hundred dollars each to promote the discovery and investigation of the sources of North Carolina history. These may be found in the State and Colonial records, newspaper files, court and church records, public libraries and museums, private libraries and old letters and manuscripts. To this end there was offered one prize of a hundred dollars for the best history of any decade between 1781 and 1861 (excluding the period from 1791 to 1861 and from 1861 to 1864); one prize of a hundred dollars for the best history of any county in North Carolina; one prize of a hundred dollars for the best biography of any North Carolinian.

The following are the rules governing the contests for the history prizes:

1. All sketches and histories must be completed and filed with the Secretary of the Commission by the first day of November, 1904. They should be in typewriting or written in a clear and legible hand. They should be simple and connected in style; authorities for facts stated should be given at the bottom of each page.

2. Due credit will be given for correct copies of valuable unpublished documents, records, maps and portraits, relating to the subject under treatment; and where these are not essential in their entirety, to the development of the sketch or history, they still may often be appropriately added as appendices, and the value of the copies so added may be increased by having them duly certified or their authenticity attested.

3. Every manuscript should be signed by its author in some fictitious name, and he or she should send to the Secretary of the Commission, in a sealed envelope, his or her real name and address.

4. All sketches, manuscripts, maps, portraits, records and copies of such, are submitted with the understanding that they shall be the property of the Commission to be used as they may see fit, but the author or person submitting or sending them shall also be permitted to use and publish copies of the same.

5. No prize shall be awarded for any manuscript in any of the contents unless in the judgment of the commission and any of whom they may select as judges of the contest, it shall attain to a reasonable standard of importance and excellence in matter and in the manner of execution.

6. One purpose being to encourage at this time the study of subjects hitherto less considered, and it is desired that the biographies be confined to subjects whose careers were finished by 1900.

7. Any persons desiring to enter the contest can procure a copy of the rules governing the same from the Secretary of the Commission. The Commission will appreciate original and copies, and any information of valuable records, manuscripts, letters, maps and portraits, and safe repository will be provided for their preservation. When originals cannot be parted with, provision is made by the Commission for having them copied and safely returned to their owners.

HOW HYGIENE HELPS THE HEALTH

Kills the Germs of Grip, Croup and Cough. "Cough Nothing If It Pain," Says F. S. Duffy.

Now that Hygiene can be obtained in nearly every town and city in the country, it is possible to buy from druggists a health giving elixir, to be carried in the purse or pocket. By breathing it a few minutes here there a day you can soon cure grip, cough, cold and even the worst and most chronic cases of catarrh.

F. S. Duffy has seen so many remarkable cures made by the Hygiene treatment that he sells it with the positive guarantee to return the money if it fails to cure.

A complete outfit costs but $1. and includes of the product, bottles, medicine dropper and sufficient Hygiene to last several weeks.

It affords a cure in the worst case of catarrh of the throat and is the best remedy for a cold or the grip, which it cures quickly and prevents return. Hygiene bottles of Hygiene are obtained for 5c.

When breathed through the nostrils, the germ-killing and health-giving Hygiene goes to the throat, reaches into the throat and lungs, killing all the bacteria germs, and thus the throat and lungs are kept clean and healthy.

All that nature of the year, every one should have a Hygiene bottle to prevent and cure colds, coughs, and all other ailments of the throat and lungs.

Respectfully,
J. J. TOLSON.
