That a Receiver was needed to save Mr Finch is in no way borne out by the status of the railroad property, cerfainly not if the eager and anxious attempts recently made to lease this property are indicative of its value, present, or perspective, as a railroad property which would bring good returns to its lessers, hence of proved value to its stockholders.

The fact that a judge can be found to act, and that Federal statutes permit such a procedure as this A & N C Receivership move, in no way lessens the feeling that an outrage has been committed upon State, Governor and the people, of this section, especially.

That those in authority are taking quick action to nullify this Beceivership outrage, however successful the outcome, will not remove the danger of auch sots in the future, for it opens up a menace which any corporation must that means may be found to secretly inproperty, and destroy its existence,
