SHORT PASSING EVENTS.

The weather today will be fair and warm. Contractor J L Hancock is building a commodious cottage on Dunn's Avenue for Mr Richard Davis.

The yard surrounding the residence of Mr W B Blades has been lastingly graded and sown to grass seed.

The district convention of the Knights of Pythias tomorrow night will be held in the Odd Fellows hall instead of the Court house.

Mr L B Habicht is having a large building erected on Crescent street to be used as a store and dwelling. Mr Habicht has five nice new completed houses on that street also.

Master Robert S Oarway has won a "Mother Goose Paint Book" in the puzzle contest which appeared in the Child-rens Page of the Richmond Times-Dispatch of Feb. 21st.

Mr B L Brook has severed his connection with the Citizens bank where he was book-keeper and returned to his former home in Trenton, Jones county.

Spring broke forth in all her radiant loveliness yesterday. She has undoubtedly come to stay for the hobo and the Jay bird are here and they get thawed out about the last of any thing that goes into winter quarters.

Inquiry at the General Office of the A and N O. Railway yesterday showed that there was nothing new in the situation, everything was quiet and no changes of any consequence had been made by Receiver McBea.

The Hammett Animal Show drew great crowds at the opera house yesterday afternoon. It was a fine exhibition of cleverly trained animals. The birds were especially pleasing. The whole show was interesting and instructive from beginning to end.

One of the horses belonging to Mr L G Daniels stable was killed Sunday. It was being driven by Mr Ellis Williams and as he was giving it water at a place below James City, the animal broke away and ran down the A & N Craven and fell through a cattle guard sustaining injuries from which it died.

CASTORIA. The Kind You Have Always Bought. Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass., U.S.A.

DIED. Mrs Rebecca Adams passed away quietly at her home on the morning of the 28th of February in the 66th year of her age. She had been in bad health for some time but yet her death was not expected by her friends.

She was taken suddenly ill on Sunday and gradually grew worse till the end came. She was a consistent member of the Freewill Baptist Church and was a kind and loving Christian. She was born in Brunswick county N. C. and married Mr Archibald Adams, at Charlotte, in 1837 and came to Tuscarora after the civil war. She was loved by all who knew her. She was buried Saturday evening in the family burying ground. She is survived by her husband and four sons Messrs Samuel Adams of Bachelor Creek, W. A. and E. R. Adams who are thrifty merchants of Tuscarora, and Mr R O Adams, of Tuscarora. She is also survived by two brothers, Mr J M and R P Stanley of Shallotts Brunswick county and one sister Mrs T A Carroll of Charlotte N. C. We sympathize with the bereaved family and friends.

ROYAL Baking Powder. Makes the food more wholesome, and more nutritious to both brain and muscle.

I have given the Training Table to the Cornell University for five years very satisfactorily, and am certain that much of the success has depended upon the quality of articles used. In baking powder, I use the Royal, for it is undoubtedly the best. I have occasionally given others a trial, and have demonstrated to my satisfaction that there is but one always reliable, always making perfect, delicious and wholesome food, — The Old Reliable "Royal." (Mrs.) Amelia Morey Atkins.

THEY COME AND GO.

Mrs A R Jennings who has been visiting her mother Mrs R D Hancock, has left for New York City sailing on March 8th for her home in Berlin Germany.

Dr J H Benton returned from Washington D C Sunday where he had been attending the meeting of the Southern Dental Association.

Mrs W B Chadwick of Beaufort was in the city yesterday.

Misses Mary Hartt and Elma Rowe returned Sunday from New York where they have been in the interest of the military department of Barfoot Bros store.

Miss Mary Oglesby left last evening for Raleigh where she will receive treatment for the eyes.

Miss Margie Tingle returned to her home at Alliance yesterday after a few days visit with relatives here.

Rev J B Farmer, Editor of the Biblical Recorder was the guest of Rev W H Rich Sunday and Monday and preached in the First Baptist Church Sunday morning.

Mr G A Barfoot returned from New York and Baltimore on Sunday.

Mr J H Bryan returned from a business trip to New York, Sunday.

Mr M L Hollowell returned from New York, Sunday.

Police Court Services. There was a goodly number attending the service held daily in the police court yesterday. Pastor Ellis preached and Chief Hargett led in the singing. Deacons Bowden, Lupton, Bryant and Montague took up the collection and Mr J O Lewis ushered the audience.

Owing to a misunderstanding, there were some who failed to appear but as this kind of religious meeting is of the protracted order and if the people don't come when they're called they are hardly ever absent at the next meeting whether they go to that church or not.

Israhel Roberts was charged with the larceny of tobacco. The necessary evidence being lacking his case was continued until today.

John Grady, drayman, was taxed the costs for cursing.

Romulus Mann and William Nelson were drunk and disorderly at Five Points Saturday night. Nelson was dismissed and Mann was required to pay the costs.

Jerry Fox was found drunk and driven on Crooked street. Judgment was suspended on payment of costs.

Fire At Trenton. Sunday morning between the hour of one and two o'clock the photo gallery of W H Coble & Son was burned to the ground. Nothing at all was given to the loss. $1,000 will cover the loss of building and contents. There was no insurance.

The fact that the building fell from the side of the store and it is a finding of unburned planks, that was taken from the blinds at the side of the house go to prove that the store was entered first and then set on fire by an incendiary.

Also the eight leading pieces of the Trenton Current Mail which had been left in there the night before were burned. The boys are not dissatisfied at all so they are now making arrangements for a larger and better building.

Mr W H Coble is the mayor of Trenton and many think that his village is keeping the law, was the cause of this destruction.

It will be remembered that last year some one paid $25,000 for the copyright in Mr R Parker's life, who was mayor at that time. The proprietors of this village should be honest men and give the full return of his.

Burned Out in Atlanta.

Mr Jesse Claypole received a letter from his friend, Mr Joe Fulford, who recently went to Atlanta, Sunday in which he stated that he was one of the victims of the hotel Ballard fire which occurred early Saturday morning. Mr Fulford succeeded in saving a part of his clothing but a good many of the guests were not able to save anything.

The Ballard is under the same management as the hotel Arragon and is one of the finest hotels in the South. The building was entirely destroyed.
