KUROPATKIN ARRIVES.

Russian Reports Say Army is to Move Against Japanese at Once.

Special to Journal.

St. Petersburg, March 26.—General Kurapatkin, the new commander of the Russian forces, reached Mukden, the headquarters of the army in the far east this evening. He stopped at Harbin this morning and inspired the troops there.

The massing of the army is complete, according to dispatches received today, and with the arrival of Kurapatkin, the first great move is about to be made. The forces over which Kurapatkin has command are said to number 300,000. The main bodies will immediately be ordered to move against the Japanese. The Russians have decided to make a strong stand against the Japanese near Antung on the Yalu river.

A Tokyo dispatch says the Russians have completed seven fortresses and are erecting six others. Four battalions of Russian artillery are established at Chihang Sang on the Korean side of the Yalu, about forty miles above Antung and W. Ju.

BIRTH OF A FLOWER.

The Pretty Legend That Tells the Story of the Rose.

Years and years ago, and over so many years before they lived far away in a lovely country a youth who was the most beautiful man in the world. His name was Narcissus, and he had a sister as beautiful as himself, whom he loved very dearly. Narcissus often used to go hunting in the woods with his sister. Each of them knew that the other one was very beautiful, but they did not know the same about themselves. You see, they had no looking glass in those days at least—only the combs that had them, and they never just them to say one size. One day the girl died, and poor Narcissus was very unhappy, and after that he had to go hunting by himself. Once when he was thirsty he came to a stream and was just bending down to drink when he saw his own face in the water. He had never seen it before and thought it was the face of his dear sister. So he tried to catch hold of her, but could not. When he had tried for a long time he was so disappointed that he killed himself. Then the flowers came in the night to bury him, but they only found a pretty white flower, which is still called Narcissus—London Name.

FINCH BOUND

To Appear With McBee Before Wake Court.

Sensational Proceedings at Yesterday's Trial. Testimony Given that Agreements Were Made Not to Prosecute McBee.

Special to Journal.

Raleigh, March 26.—The hearing of the Finch matter before Judge Walter Clark ended this p. m. when Finch was required to give a $2,000 justified bond, to appear in the Superior court here, to answer with V E McBee, the charge of conspiracy against the State.

Nearly all the morning session was devoted to W H Day, one of the counsel for McBee and Finch, a State witness. He became angry, and said an agreement had been made between Gov Aycock and attorney Robinson of McBee's counsel by which the recovery matter was dropped. McBee would not be prosecuted. The matter here took a queer turn, attorney Robinson took the witness stand, and told what the Governor had said, and then the Governor gave his testimony. Robinson said at the time arrangement which he considered an agreement, was made, he had in his pocket a supplemental order signed by Judge Purnell, making one Cuyler of New York a co-plaintiff with Finch, and also subpoenas for witnesses from New Bern as to the condition of the A & N C railroad.

Gov Aycock said he was not surprised that Robinson's associate, taking the first opportunity to make a statement, that there was a conference and an agreement not to prosecute. Day being very angry and said the Governor would not make that remark to him on the street, man to man. The Governor said there was no agreement not to prosecute. Robinson said that Robinson had said to him that McBee was in a hole, and he would consent to anything. Robinson said he thought there was an agreement and so told his associate, and that otherwise there would not have been such an ending of the Recoveryship.

Judge Clark said he could not let pass the intimations of some private arrangement, by which, if Finch and McBee were bound over to court, the sole for was to send in a bill, that he had no knowledge upon this subject, and that it could not possibly be a party to it. That the collector would do his duty when the case reaches his jurisdiction. Finch gave bond, with Chief Clerk Moody of the State Treasurer as surety.
