Big Representation of Counsel For Conspirators'

Affidavita Made by Counsel as to leged Agreement by Governor Aycock. Namorous Allegations as to Misman agement of A. &. N. C.

Special to Journal. Raleigh, Apr 2.-Marked interest shown in hearing of motions in case of Finch and McBee before Judge Brown in Superior court. They were present with their attorneys, W H Day, W W Clark, T M Argo, F H Busbee, and W C Maxwell, John W Hinsdale and W O B Robinson not further appearing in case. The State was represented by Attorney General Gilmer and Solicitor

He asked order for bills. to quash indictment. It was further stated that defense would demur in jurisdiction of court, contending that according to US statute it is if anything a crime to conspire to wrongfully influence Federal court. He then added motion to continue. He stated he had several affidavits bearing upon motion to continue. So lettor Jones moved that the motions be passed upon before affidavits were read. This was declined and affidavits were read by W W Clark, McBee and other ncluding J A Turner, manager of th total of Morehead City and Mary Baker its cashier. W W Clark in his affidavi went into detail as to allege agreement by Governor Aycock that if suit of Finch for a permanent receivership of A & N CRR were dropped in Federal court the prosecution against McBee would be dropped in State court.

Solicitor had refused to grant request

Clark swore he was sure they had tion, and unless this had been done, the Finch bill would not have been dishave been filed, and the witnesses subpoened. McBee in affidavit cays he was under appointment by Judge Purnell, was arrested by Sheriff at New Bern on bench warrant, and hurrled sere and upon arrival, informed John W Hinsdale his only counsel within reach had been subposaned as a wilsees for the State. His motion to waive examination was not allowed and hearing was had at which Hinsdale, his counsel, under fear of con tempt of Court, and in absence of his McBee and other witnesses and required .$ 584,711 21 to give evidence of his knowledge of 7,201 (& case. Agreement to settle and sign a decree was done under direct duress 85,100 00 of Criminal prosecution, that the bench warrant was sworn to Attorney Gen-4018 25 gral, lesued by Judge Clark and served for the sole purpose of obstructing action of Federal Court, by forcing 11,494 22 withdrawal of suit then pending. absolving receivership under duress, forofbly taking Hallway out of Federal court, and returning it to officers. Me Bee filed another affidavit that it is material for his defense to prove truth fulness of allegations set in Finch till for receiver regarding misman of A & N C Rallway.
