

Society Women

The Grand-Niece of
U. S. PRESIDENT JAMES K. POLK,
MRS. IDA ROSER,

Induced to relate Her Experiences for Benefit of Other Women.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have been married for nearly two years, and so far have not been blessed with a child. I have, however, suffered with a complication of female troubles and painful menstruation, until very recently. The value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was called to my attention by an intimate friend, whose life had simply been a torture with inflammation and ulceration, and a few bottles of your Compound cured her; she can hardly believe it herself to-day, she enjoys such blessed health. I took four bottles of your Compound and consider myself cured. I am once more in fine health and spirits; my domestic and official duties all seem easy now, for I feel so strong I can do three times what I used to do. You have a host of friends in Denver, and among the best count. Yours gratefully,
Mrs. Ida L. Roser, 326 E. 18th Ave. Denver, Col."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

seems to be the universal woman's medicine for the high and low, rich and poor; and why not? The organism of all women is alike, and the society woman is just as susceptible to the ills of womankind as are her less favored sisters, but owing to their inherent distaste for advertised articles will resort to all other methods for a cure first. Yet it is a fact worth recording that Mrs. Pinkham is constantly receiving letters from women of high social position, saying as a last resort and without any faith, they tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and were completely cured by it. She actually has thousands of such letters.

Mountains of gold could not purchase such testimony—or take the place of the health and happiness which Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought to these women. No woman should suffer with such a remedy at hand.

SPECIAL ADVICE TO YOUNG WOMEN FREE.

If you need such help, write her. She will be glad to answer you confidentially and free of charge. Address Lynn, Mass.

IMPOLITIC ATTACKS UPON HEARST.

The National Democracy in every State is just now actively engaged in the search for an available Presidential candidate, a man to be named by the Democratic Party, when it meets in convention in St. Louis, next July.

The most noticeable thing about this search for an available man by the Democratic party, is the really bitter spirit which is being aroused among Democrats, those favoring certain men for the Presidential nomination attacking the candidates of others.

In this controversy and rivalry over the man to be named at St. Louis, there seems to be most indecent conduct on some sides, and both an unwise and impolitic course in making personal attacks upon men who are seeking the Democratic nomination for President.

Notably in these attacks, are those being made against William Randolph Hearst, the Congressman from New York, and the proprietor of leading daily newspapers in New York City, Boston, Chicago and San Francisco.

If there is any good reason why Mr. Hearst should not aspire to a Presidential nomination at the hands of the National Democratic party, the reason has not yet been advanced. That Mr. Hearst aspiring for the nomination should set out to secure it, is no surprise to those who know the aggressiveness of this newspaper proprietor, and that he is spending money is not against him, it might be if he did not have his own money to spend, or was taking that of his friends, to advance his own personal interests.

It was only a few years ago, in 1896, when Democratic interests were at a low ebb, that W. R. Hearst, through his newspaper in New York City stood practically alone in advocating the democratic issues of that national political campaign. Mr. Hearst was a good enough democrat then to receive applause from the democrats elsewhere. His money was spent at that time, and yet today because he aspires to high political recognition, many of his own party associates proceed to cast stones at him.

Certainly, if the newspapers which Mr. Hearst owns are to be accepted as representing his political sentiments, he is as much a democrat today as he was in 1896 or 1900.

So far as the St. Louis nomination goes, it is for the national Democracy to declare its choice. And for the present for democrats to inveigh or insinuate against those within the party ranks seeking the nomination, nothing could be more impolitic or calculated to do more injury to the party's interests before and after the St. Louis convention, than these personal animosities which are being aroused.

The Gristly in the Old Days. In the old days, before the deadly magazine ride was invented, hunting the grizzly was a very different affair, and so animal as the American continent was more dreaded, his ferocity and vital force when wounded filling the most reckless hunters with a wholesome dread. It was not at all unusual for a grizzly with a bullet through his heart to pursue and tear to pieces the hunter, whose long, single barbed, muscle-twisting rifle, with its one round lead bullet, was altogether inadequate for such a contest. It is a strange thing, too, that while the grizzly bear is an omnivorous feeder, living on anything from roots and nuts to steer and buffalo meat, he has been known to devour human flesh.—St. Nicholas.

A Thoughtful Man

M. H. Austin of Winchester, Ind., says what he is in the hour of need. He writes that he has several cases of Rheumatism, and after trying many of the advertised remedies, he has been cured by Troche's Colchicine Salicylate Capsules.

CASTORIA.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

It is the only element of the climate of the Rocky Mountain region that impresses the newcomer most deeply and also most pleasantly in that of the abundance of sunshine. In this particular, both in winter and in summer alike, this is not only the Italy of America; it outshines Italy and equals northern Egypt.

Colorado Springs and Manitou average 240 sunny days in a year—that is, nearly 66 per cent of their daylight is bright sunshine. While they have twenty-five cloudy days, Chicago has 114, New York 103 and Asheville 106. And equally important is the fact that the shortest days of winter will afford eight hours of sunshine. Contrast this with the four and a half hours, the most you can hope to gain, in the celebrated valley of Davos, Switzerland. Salt Lake City averages 215 days bright and clear.—World's Today.

That it is bad for the heart to be waked up suddenly in the morning is the contention of a certain writer, who bases his opinion on the fact that to be suddenly awakened from sound sleep sends a great rush of blood to the heart, thus overtaxing and straining it. People whose business necessitates their being awakened early have long suspected the practice of being an evil one and have tried to rid themselves of it. But heretofore they have had no better reason for wishing to continue to be waked up at an early hour than that they found it inconvenient or unpleasant to rise early. Evidently they have right on their side. It is an unhygienic practice this being waked up at an early hour in the dark of the early morning. It is bad for the heart.

Nothing Equal to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for Bowel Complaints in Children.

"We have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in our family for years," says Mrs. J. B. Cooke, of Nederland, Texas. "We have given it to all the children. We have used other medicines for the same purpose, but never found anything to equal Chamberlain's. If you will use it as directed it will always cure." For sale by all Druggists.

Happy When They Are In Jail. "Many a prisoner as soon as he steps foot in the outer office," said a Charles street jail officer, "throws himself into a chair with a sigh of relief, muttering, 'This is the first happy hour in many months.' This is especially true of men charged with large embezzlements. Their consciences seem to be on the verge of collapse until they arrive under the shadow of the jail, when they then see their future clearly."—Boston Record.

The Best Family Salve. DeWitt's Witch Hazel gives instant relief from Burns, Cuts, Corns, Blisters, Sores, Eczema, Tetter and all abrasions of the skin. Two Clever Approaches. It is reported that a man appointed state auditor of the treasury subject to examination was asked to state the distance of the moon from the earth. His written answer was: "Twenty miles, about the distance of the moon from the earth." He was asked to explain the functions of a sixth sense. He answered: "No. 6 is another who, being examined for employment in the treasury, was asked how many soldiers England sent to this country during the Revolution. His answer was, 'A blizzard eight miles than ever got back.'"

Snapped Up. "You're looking gloomy today, Tomkins. What's the matter?" "Matter? You know Miss Passee, the old maid that lives down the way. Dawkins told me she was engaged to him, so just for the fun of the thing I proposed to her, and she accepted me. Now I'm looking for Dawkins."—London Telegraph.

A Growing Climate. The Professor—Do things grow rapidly in your part of the country? Young Housekeeper—I should say they do. When I order lamb from the butcher it always grows to mutton on the way home.—Woman's Home Companion.

Robbed The Grave. A startling incident, as narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim. No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at C. D. Bradham's drug store.

The Friends. "I see you are wearing my old engagement ring." "Yes; isn't it perfectly lovely to be engaged to Jack?" "Yes, indeed! He's so deliciously serious about it, isn't he?"—Detroit Free Press.

His Practice. Little Elmer—Papa, what do the letters "D. D." after a man's name mean? Professor Broadhead—"That is a doctor who makes a practice of preaching, my son.—Town Topics.

Best Cough Medicine For Children.

When you buy a cough medicine for small children you want one in which you can place implicit confidence. You want one that not only relieves but cures. You want one that is unquestionably harmless. You want one that is pleasant to take. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy meets all of these conditions. There is nothing so good for the coughs and colds incident to childhood. It is also a certain preventive and cure for croup, and there is no danger whatever from whooping cough when it is given. It has been used in many epidemics of that disease with perfect success. For sale by all Druggists.

Lying at Feet. A man who would speak in truth is anywhere also does not hesitate to do it at the poker table, which recognizes the big stories we hear now and then about losses or winnings. It is a common practice for habitual players in clubs to multiply the value of their chips by 100 so that their gains or losses are multiplied correspondingly. The man at the table in a game is to make up Jack pot, with 25 to come to. When a player throws in a white he says, "It's a hundred." When it is red he says, "It's let you 500," and when a white, "It's let you 500." The exact lie comes, bearing this talk, goes away surprised that the lady game is a tall one today.—New York Times.

A Cure For Headache.

Always realized when you ride in a woman's carriage, whether you're happy or sad, that she has a headache. There are these women who ride in these carriages with their heads throbbing, and you see them rubbing their eyes and their temples, and you think, "How do you feel?" "Oh, I feel just like you do," she says, and you think, "That's a headache." "DO IT TO-DAY."

The time-worn injunction, "Never put off till to-morrow what you can do to-day," is now generally presented in this form: "Do it to-day!" That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy for it TO-DAY—and let that remedy be Dr. Boscawen's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of long trouble. New trial bottles, 15¢ regular size, 75¢. At all druggists. F. B. Duff.
