The new grey silver, coming from the East, is the best yet.

Major Charles Manly Steadman, Confederate Veteran, Orator and Statesman, Speaker of the Day. These Taking Part in the Line of March.

Tuesday, May 10th, brings with it memories of the past, of battles long since gone to rest, but a low shade lies after them, deeds which time does not dim, and which each year arouses to patriotism those who celebrate the occasion with exercises which tell of love and reverence for the departed heroes.

Next Tuesday will witness the annual offering to the memories of the Confederate dead in this city. It will be a day of enjoyable, if sad, and impressive ceremonies, an observance which must touch the hearts of all.

Not least on this occasion is the oration to be delivered by Major Charles Manly Steadman, a Veteran himself of the War, an Orator, Statesman and Citizen, who is honored and respected throughout the Old North State. Major Steadman has a host of friends in this section, and they should all be out to hear him speak, especially the Confederate Veterans who will find in him a comrade in all the world implies.

The following is the order of exercises to be observed on Tuesday, May 10th, 1904, under the direction of the New Bern Chapter United Daughters of the Confederacy.

All persons desiring to render a tribute to the memory of the Confederate Dead are cordially invited to assemble at the Academy Green at 3.30 o'clock p. m. where a procession will be formed as follows:

Chief Marshal—J. W. Biddle. John W. Wooten. Daniel Lane. Sam'l. R. Ball.

Confederate Veterans, New Bern Camp, No 1102. SOLDIERS AND SAILORS. Sons of Confederate Veterans. 4. Chaplain, Rev G. T. Adams and Speaker.

5. New Bern Naval Reserves—Beaufort Naval Reserves. 6. New Bern Fireman. 7. Daughters of the Confederacy. 8. Jane Graham Hughes Chapter, Junior Daughters of the Confederacy.

9. State and city officials. 10. New Bern Military Academy and Carolina Business College. 11. Citizens generally children with flowers.

The procession will move promptly at 4 o'clock to Cedar Grove Cemetery where upon arrival it will halt and open ranks allowing the Daughters of the Confederacy to pass first to the Confederate monument, the other divisions following in order as above.

The ceremony at the monument will be as follows: 1. Music by the choir, "The Guard Around The Tomb." 2. Prayer by the Chaplain, Rev G. T. Adams.

3. Song by Jane Graham Hughes Chapter. 4. Poem read by Miss Nunn. 5. Music by the choir, "When the Weary Seeking Rest."

6. Address by Major Charles Manly Steadman. 7. Music by the choir, "Our Fallen Chieftains."

8. Presentation of "Crosses of Honor" by Mrs Mary McK Nash, and Mrs Frank S. Duffy. 9. Song by Quartette, "Sleep, Soldiers, Sleep."

10. Benediction by the Chaplain, Rev G. T. Adams. 11. Decoration of all graves of Confederate Soldiers, during which will be sung by the choir, "Christian Soldiers, Good Night."

Citizens and all organizations on general at the Academy Green will please report to the Chief Marshal and his assistants for assignment to proper positions.

All Daughters of the Confederacy and Confederate Veterans are earnestly requested to wear their badges. M. DeW. STEVENSON, Chief Marshal.

Funeral of Jacob Fulcher. Jacob O. Fulcher, col., departed this life May 4th, 1904 in the city of Brooklyn, N. Y., at the age of 39 years.

The deceased was esteemed as one of the most worthy young men of his race in Brooklyn. He was qualified under the regulations of the Civil Service, and was eligible for appointment either on the police force or in the fire department, and was at the time of his death an active fireman.

Many friends accompanied the remains to Jersey City, after which they were followed to this city by his sorrowing mother, Mary A. Fulcher, and eldest brother, Walter S. Fulcher.

Funeral services will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock, from St. Peter's Church. Interment in Greenwood cemetery.

A Home Mission Note. In all the years of his life John Wesley spent less than $15,000 on himself and gave away $300,000.

How our petty giving sinks into insignificance besides this. How our one tenth dwindles in the light of this unlimited giving! And yet we have numberless church members who do not even reach The Tenth.

Let us seek to lift them to their privileges and get them to pull at least one foot out of the mire by coming up to the tenth.

When they begin to realize the fullness of the gospel of Christ, then may we hope they will bring the other foot from the mire and "give as God hath prospered them." OON.
