DANIELS REFUSE TO PAY

Fine imposed by Judge Purnell. Custody of United States Marshal Will Apply For Habeas Corpus.

Special to Journal. Raleigh May 31.—Judge Purnell after hearing the powerful argument by Robert W. Winston for Josephus Daniels, held the latter guilty of contempt, and imposed a two thousand dollar fine. Daniels attorneys asked to have appeal, but motion was over-ruled, as was also motion to be allowed a bond, and Marshal Dockery took Daniels in personal custody. Daniels in his answer denied any contempt. His counsel argued that Federal Court and District courts have no power since act of Congress of 1881 to punish newspapers for contempt. Daniels was taken to Yarbrough house and home. Was later in Federal court room, and Marshal's office where he wrote editorials. He refused to pay any fine, saying the question was one of principle in which every newspaper in the country is vitally interested. He says offers over hundred thousand dollars had been made him to pay the fine but he declined. He expected and wanted to go to jail, but Marshal Dockery took him with him to Yarbrough for night. R. T. Gray one of his attorneys goes to Washington tonight, with application to Chief Justice Fuller for writ of habeas corpus. Daniels friends say he will be free by tomorrow evening. After a long conference of attorneys in Daniels case, it was decided that R. T. Gray should leave tonight for Washington, with application for writ of habeas corpus to Chief Justice Fuller. The latter may ask full bench to sit with him.

USPENDED RECEIVERS

ON ORDER CHIEF JUSTICE FULLER.

State Takes Its Own Property. Legislation Will Be Called Before A N C Goes To Receiver.

Text Supreme Court Order.

Special to Journal. Raleigh, May 31.—Governor Aycock was seen regarding the status of Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad. He said he had received an order from Chief Justice Fuller of United States Supreme Court suspending the order of Judge Purnell in appointing a receiver, and leaving the road in the hands of the State. He said a $25,000 bond will be given tomorrow morning signed by James A. Bryan, W. M. Smith, J. W. Granger, L. Harvey, R. W. Taylor and others, these will arrive here tonight.

The Governor was asked if he expected this road to ever again pass from State's custody, and replied, "If it does the Legislature will be immediately called together for a thorough investigation for the people, and the motives back of them. If this order of Chief Justice Fuller had not come, the Legislature would have been called together with a view to laying bare every fact connected with this receivership matter."

Great satisfaction is expressed at the news of the abrupt termination of the receivership. B. C. Beckwith, Chairman of Board of Internal Improvements said: "Referring to Meares, McBee, Cuyler, Finch and others, they never will get control of road."

Following is text of order of Judge Fuller, telegraphed to Gov. Aycock: "It is ordered that operation of the order of Circuit Court of United States for Eastern District of North Carolina of May 28th, appointing a receiver be stayed and suspended, and that the properties of A & N C Railway Co. be left in hands of its officers, until further order of U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals at its next term, the appellants giving bond in penal sum of twenty-five thousand dollars, continued according to law, and with good and sufficient security, to be approved as to form and sufficiency of sureties by District Judge of U. S. for Eastern District of N. C. Signed Melville W. Fuller, Chief Justice of U. S., allotted to Fourth Circuit."

MAN UP A TREE.

Observations From An Altitude On Different Topics of Public Interest.

There is some similarity between politics and sticky fly paper. Flies are lured to their fate by the sweet composition spread upon the paper. Men are no less foolish who rush in where they will surely get stuck.

A bachelor in Iowa recently received a proposal to marriage from thirteen beautiful women all at once. He was superstitious therefore he was lucky.

There is no substitute for the Sweet Girl Graduate. All limitations are consummate frauds.

In view of the published interview with the "late" Mr. K. B. Finch, it is pertinent to state that whom the gods would destroy they first made mad.

It is curious fact that nobody believes the war news that comes by way of St. Petersburg unless it favors the Japanese cause. If the Russians must lie about the war they should do so in a way that they wouldn't be so easily found out.

The flying machine is going to be a success and within twenty-five years the air will be filled with flying machine routes. Syndicates will control the air and we will have to buy it by the cubic inch for breathing purposes.

One of the aspirants for the nomination for the presidency on the prohibition ticket is a minister named Swallow. That name would be a hoodoo to the cause.

MAN UP A TREE.

Death of Mrs. Simons.

Mrs. Sidney Simons, died at her home near Olympia, April 30th 1904 at the advanced age of 78 years. Mrs. Simons was the widow of Ebenezer Simons, who preceded her to the grave two years or so ago.

She leaves three sons and four daughters and a host of friends to mourn the loss of a good woman. She was a member of the Free Will Baptist church and was a consistent, devout christian, ever ready to lend a helping hand or speak a kind and cheering word. Her place in her beloved community will be hard to fill. We feel that our loss is irreparable, but she has gained an eternal happiness in the realms of Heavenly bliss.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Alford of the Free Will Baptist church, and the interment was made in the cemetery at Olympia. The sorrowing relatives have the sincere and heartfelt sympathy of the entire community in their bereavement.
