At The Inn. Black Mountain, N. C., June 14.—The first of the summer's visitors are beginning to put in an appearance, although few places desire to receive these sportsmen guests so early in the season, as July 1st is considered early for the mountains.

The Back Mountain Inn will not be surpassed for beauty and comfort for any place in this section, and will be in good shape by July 1st. The two main buildings are now complete and only need the additional furniture which is now on the way.

Mr. A. O. Prince of the Coast Line, of Wilmington, made a visit here and declares that no where in Western Carolina is the location equalled. Mr. Frank Hyman of New Bern was also a caller and thinks that the Inn and its surroundings are all that could be desired and is enthusiastic of the view from the piazzas.
