A Surprise Marriage.

A romantic and pretty wedding occurred in St. Thomas Pro-Cathedral in Wilmington Thursday afternoon in which Mr. James H. Cowan and Miss Katherine Elizabeth Mayo were joined in marriage by Rev. Father Denner. The affair was kept a profound secret until Mr. and Mrs. Cowan were well on their way to New York, not even the parents of the contracting parties knowing of the affair. The announcement of the engagement had recently been made but the wedding was not expected to occur until September.

Mr. Cowan who was obliged to go to New York on some theatrical business conceived the romantic idea and the bride acquiesced to his wishes. The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Cowan, who are legion were of course taken by surprise at this announcement but their good wishes for the future happiness of the young couple are none the less sincere.

Mr. Cowan is one of the most popular young men in Wilmington. He was formerly the city editor of the Messenger and in that position he acquitted himself very ably.

Later he has been engaged in the theatrical business with his brother Mr. Robert H. Cowan. They leased the Academy of Music in Wilmington and have conducted the affairs of that institution to the satisfaction of all.

They are also the possessors of the New Masonic Opera house here.

Mr. Cowan is well known in New Bern having made several visits here in connection with his theatrical venture and has made many friends.

The bride is a lovely and accomplished young woman and admired by all who know her.

Mr. and Mrs. Cowan will return to Wilmington about July 2nd and occupy a cottage at Wrightsville Beach.

New Hampshire Adopts License.

(ADV.)

New Hampshire tried prohibition for half a century. Her experience did not differ materially from that of Vermont. Here, too, legislative ingenuity was taxed to the utmost to devise means for its enforcement; here, too, extraordinary, ineffectual and tyrannical laws were enacted and vindictive punishments decreed and, here also, the failure was complete.

As in Vermont, every effort to repeal the law in New Hampshire was opposed by its beneficiaries--the illicit sellers--and by the politicians who had exploited the law for the sake of office and that class of lawyers who profited by it. In 1880, the friends of prohibition tried to force it into the constitution of the State so as to make its overthrow difficult, but the people voted this proposition down by an enormous majority.

As the years went on, the law became more and more of a farce, more and more harmful to the temperance, morals and prosperity of the State and more and more odious to the citizens, until last year the popular demand for repeal became too great to go longer unheeded.

On March 18th, 1903, the Lower House of the legislature passed a license bill by a vote of 94 to 107. A few days later the bill passed the Senate by a vote of 31 to 1, and on March 27th, received the entire approval and became the law of the State. The vote, both in the House and Senate, was significant. The cities of the State stood overwhelmingly for license, their vote in the Legislature being 121 to 8 in its favor. Still more noteworthy is the circumstance that the rural members, taken separately, voted for license in the proportion of 97 to 76. Representatives of both political parties were also in a majority in favor of the act.

Rev. Dr. Harwood, Trinity Church, New Haven, Conn.

"I think the doctrine of prohibition is at war with all the ideas and teachings of the English-speaking race. We never can tolerate the idea that because one man does not want to use a certain thing no one else is to be allowed to use it--provided, of course, that it is not wrong in itself. If you take the ground that the use of anything containing alcohol is sinful and criminal, then the doctrine of prohibition might be considered. But even the question might arise whether the State could interfere with the individual conscience. The great majority of the good and wise men the world over, men whose characters are respected, and whose opinions are likewise respected, do not consider the use of alcoholic drink in itself either sinful or criminal. There can be no question about the side on which the wisdom and intelligence of the world's greatest and best men is enlisted in this matter. Here and there a wise man may be found who is in favor of prohibition, but these are the exceptions and are very few. The conscience of the world goes against this doctrine."

Rev. Dr. S. D. McConnell, St. Stephen's Church, Philadelphia.

"I oppose prohibition in the interest of temperance. I have personally observed the effects of prohibition in Rhode Island and Maine and I know that in the country districts as well as in the city any one who wants rum can easily get it."

Close the saloons in New Bern, and the tax payers would have to tax their property sufficient to raise the $10,734 per year, which is now being paid by the saloons the city and county for license.

Close the saloons and the Water and Light department will lose $1,400 per year which is now being paid by the saloons.

The Ice company will also lose $1,900 per year patronage. Forty four men who are now steadily employed will lose their jobs.

Close the saloons and twelve business houses and two bottling establishments which employ eight or ten men each will be closed, and twenty-five dwellings which are now occupied by employees of these establishments will be vacated because the tenants will be forced to go else where for work.

As shown in this column yesterday morning, the reduction of the post office salary at Durham was because the receipts of the post office had fallen off during the past year, a matter of $10,000 or more. Durham as "Greater Durham" that is taking in its suburbs is shown by the last government census to have a population of 14,000.

Taken in the suburbs of New Bern and it will have as large a population. If the receipts of the Durham post office have fallen off $10,000 per year because of prohibition is that city (they didn't fall off any before the adoption of that law) then isn't it possible and quite probable that the same thing might occur in New Bern? An investigation shows that a falling off of the receipts at this post office of less than $6,000 will be sufficient to discontinue the carrier system.

Are the citizens ready for that?

Perhaps you are in need of a beer which is beautiful and pure--just the kind you will find good to serve at a table beverage. Get Patent.

TO VISIT MAINE.

Governor Aycock and F. D. Winston to Make Educational Tour in That State.

Special to Journal. Raleigh, June 25.--Governor Aycock, and Francis D. Winston, the Democratic nominees for Lieutenant governor, have accepted an invitation from Mr. Stetson State superintendent of public instruction of Maine, to make an educational tour in that State.

They will make twelve speeches at as many points in that State.

The Fourth At Raleigh

Arrangements have been completed for a grand celebration of the Fourth of July at Raleigh. It will be a unique and magnificent demonstration and the patriotic significance of the day will be the leading feature. It will be under the auspices of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics and Chamber of Commerce, who have among their numbers and have also engaged a fine array talent and attractions for the day.

The program is lengthy and elaborate. Addresses will be delivered by Gov. Aycock, Chief Justice Clark, and President Winston. A chorus of 100 voices will sing splendid patriotic selections. Mrs. Horace R. Dowells, one of the Southlands sweetest singers will sing a solo. The only confederate drum corps in existence has been induced to play at this time.

There are innumerable other things for the pleasure of the occasion. The Japanese day light fireworks, something new and beautiful, drills by military companies and an exhibition by the fire department. The day will close with a magnificent display of Pains' Manhattan Beach fire works.

The city of Raleigh extends a cordial invitation to all to attend this grand celebration and have a good time within her walls. Railroads will allow reduced fares for the day.

A Unique Souvenir

The Journal acknowledges with thanks the receipt of a handsome and pretty souvenir from Fred G. Nixon, Nerdlinger, manager of the comic opera Miss Bob White. It commemorates the 775th performance of that popular attraction at Park Theatre, Philadelphia, May 20th.

It is a small nickel figure meant to represent a churn. The idea combines the useful with the ornamental for it can be used either as a paper weight or both.

The 775th performance souvenir was a handsome sofa pillow with "Miss Bob White" as a central figure.

The souvenirs thus sent out by this company are ideals of art and usefulness.

Miss Bob White will appear at the new Macon Opera House October 20th and will present a large company consisting of a very fine chorus and a splendid array of other musical talent.

BARLEY

is one of the oldest cereals known to history. But the barley grown today is the product of centuries of cultivation. Although it is a hardy cereal, and can be grown in many temperate climates. It is best cultivated in our Northern States, where the soil is peculiarly adapted to produce the most nutritious species.

Milwaukee, the home of the Pabst Brewing Company, is located on the edge of a vast barley district, where the best barley in America is grown. Pabst has his own buyers, who have had years experience in selecting barley, and whose exclusive employment is to purchase the most million bushels of this grain needed every year.

Every bushel of barley used by the Pabst Brewing Company is the best the land affords, and this insures the greatest possible nutrition. In the malt from which Pabst beer is made. The hops likewise are obtained by special employees whose office it is to inspect the crops of this flower each year, and their purchase is governed by their practical knowledge of the best localities of growth, and also the quality which possesses the correct amount of aroma and "hop principle" necessary to produce good beer. Pabst Beer is always pure because it is brewed from only the choicest materials.

Before any vat, brew kettle, keg or bottle is used a second time, vast corps of men and women wash, cleanse and scour these receptacles until they are sweet and clean and free from all contamination.

System, the best color and the latest scientific machinery are used throughout the great Pabst plant. Cleanliness and quality are above all else cherished to the extreme.

"The doors of the Pabst plant are always open to visitors, who may inspect for themselves the superior methods employed in the manufacture of Pabst Beer which could not be made better if double the price were offered."
