NATION'S BIRTHDAY.

The Passing of the 128th Anniversary of American Independence.

The Glorious Fourth was ushered in by perfect weather.

While the most of the visitors were colored people, there were a great many white people from the surrounding country.

The Old Confederate Veteran was seen also, gray and scarred, to be sure.

An excursion train was run by the A & N C road, from Goldsboro to Morehead.

There was no special demonstration throughout the day.

In the late afternoon the crowds began to leave for home.

The office hours of the custom house mentioned in the Sunday Journal.

City clerk, J. J. Tolson has been besieged by so many people who want to know at this late stage of life why he has taken to wearing gloves.

The first North Carolina grown water melons of the season.

The members of the Knights of Pythias are requested to be present at the lodge meeting tonight.

The members of the New Bern Fire Company are requested to meet in their room tonight at 8 o'clock.

THE OLD CONFEDS.

And Their Sons Guests at Annual Banquet.

The old Confederate Veterans and their sons were again made the recipients of the bounty and hospitality of the Daughters of Confederacy.

The regular annual Fourth of July dinner was served by them in Stanley Hall.

Two hundred guests sat down to the long tables laden with the good things which culinary skill produces.

The members of the band are already organized and are now awaiting the arrival of a competent instructor.
