COMENIUS' EDUCATIONAL PRINCIPLES.

The following summary of Comenius' educational principles, given by Professor Palster in his "History of Education" will have interest and value for those who have not read the book.

Education is a development of the whole man.

Educational methods should follow the order of nature.

Both sexes should receive equal instruction, since the end of education is individual development.

Learning should be made agreeable.

If the superstructure is not to totter, the foundation must be laid well.

Many studies are to be avoided as dissipating the mental man's strength.

There should be an easy graduation of studies, the one leading naturally to the other.

Things naturally connected in themselves should be joined together in teaching.

Nothing should be taught that is not of solid utility.

Studies should be adapted to the capacity of the pupil.

Nothing is to be learned by heart that is not first thoroughly understood.

Let nothing that admits of sensible or rational demonstration be taught by authority.

Let no task be assigned till the method of doing it has been explained.

In the sciences the student should have the objects studied before him.

In languages the mother-tongue is to come first, next the languages of neighboring nations, then Latin as the language of the learned world. (This was 250 years ago.)

Languages are to be learned by practice rather than by rote. Rules should follow and confirm practice.

Words should be learned in connection with things.

The concrete should precede the abstract, the simple, the complex; the nearer, the more remote.

Things to be done should be learned by doing them.

Religion is of supreme importance; and, in addition to religious instruction the young should be accustomed to the exercise of Christian virtues, such as temperance, justice, compassion and patience.

Discipline should aim at improving character.

The teacher should be an example, in person and conduct, of what he requires of his pupils.

SENATORIAL CONVENTION

Arendell of Carteret and Ward of Craven Nominates.

Knives Were Whetted in the Convention and Their Cutting May be Felt Later. Spirited Contest Throughout.

Mid scenes of confusion W. L. Arendell of Morehead City and D. L. Ward of New Bern were nominated Democratic candidates to represent the Eighth Senatorial District in the next General Assembly. Although the weather was warm, there was no comparison to the torridity of the contest inside the Court House. As one gentleman expressed it the uproar at its height was the Greenboro convention on a small scale, the chairman finding it difficult at times to preserve order.

The convention was called to order at 12:45 by Mr. Y. T. Ormond, of Lenoir county. On motion of A. D. Ward, Geo. B. Waters was made secretary and W. S. Colton, assistant secretary.

Mr. Ormond made a few felicitous remarks to the effect that the Democratic party in the State and Nation had its face set toward victory. Never before have prospects been so bright for the return of the Democratic party to power.

He said he was glad to meet the representatives of the rank and file of Democracy under such favorable conditions. Four years ago the State was in the hands of the enemy but under the leadership of the gallant C. B. Aycock the money changers had been driven out of the temple and rascals had given place to honest men. The Democratic administration had been clean and economical without a suspicion of scandal or fraud.

Mr. V. M. Webb of Morehead moved to make the temporary organization permanent. The committee on credentials was dispensed with, the delegations being accepted in full. The following vote was accorded to each county: Carteret 27; Craven 52; Green 29; Lenoir 43; Jones 18; Onslow 31.

The first contention before the assembly was in the matter of the resolutions. Mr. M. DeW. Stevenson made a motion that a committee consisting of one member from each county to draft resolutions.

Mr. Ernest Green of Craven offered an amendment to the motion by dispensing with the committee and adopting the State and National platform.

After some discussion the original motion of Mr. Stevenson was carried and the following gentlemen were appointed on the committee on resolutions and platform: Carteret, C. L. Abernethy; Craven, A. D. Ward; Green, J. M. Ormond; Jones, T. D. Warren; Lenoir, J. A. McDaniel; Onslow, Randolph Duffy.

Mr. Ward was chosen chairman of the committee and reported that the platform of the State convention, expressed the views of the delegates and also stated that the rules governing the nomination would be the person receiving more than 90% votes should be declared the nominee. The total vote numbering 199.

During the recess Mr. O. H. Guion and Col. Pollock of Kinston made short and humorous speeches which kept the convention in good nature.

The executive committee of this Senatorial District was then appointed. They were: Carteret, W. S. Chadwick; Craven, G. V. Richardson; Green, J. E. W. Fugg; Jones, J. A. Smith; Lenoir, Y. T. Ormond; Onslow, S. B. Taylor.

THE BATTLE COMMENCES.

The assembly was then ready for the nominations. A motion was made and carried limiting the time of the speeches to five minutes.

Responding to the roll-call of counties Mr. C. L. Abernethy, of Beaufort, placed in nomination.

Mr. W. L. Arendell, he spoke in high terms of the gentleman, of his scholarly attainments, his abilities and his loyalty to party interests. Mr. M. De W. Stevenson nominated D. L. Ward. He compared the convention to the one of 1890 when the candidacy went begging for a man and no one could be found who would be willing to be a martyr for his party. He remarked on the change and the prospects of a still greater change in the nation.

He said there would be great questions to come before the next State Legislature. Questions involving the future good of the State which will require the utmost attention of the best minds of the State for that office he believed Mr. Ward was the right man for the place.

Green county had no candidates and when Jones county was called Mr. T. J. Warren nominated. Mr. E. M. Koonce of Jacksonville. He referred eloquently to the time when the Democracy was overpowered by defeat and disaster and when Unionism, Republicanism and race-baiting were rampant.

He bid how his candidate stood boldly through those dark days and encouraged and helped the Democracy of his county without asking or expecting a reward.

He bid sought the honor not without the solicitation of many friends and had been assured of their loyal support and their confidence when he deemed it time for the interests of his party to be advanced from the time he proposed to run.

Mr. M. DeW. Stevenson made a motion that a committee consisting of one member from each county to draft resolutions.

Mr. Ernest Green of Craven offered an amendment to the motion by dispensing with the committee and adopting the State and National platform.

After some discussion the original motion of Mr. Stevenson was carried and the following gentlemen were appointed on the committee on resolutions and platform: Carteret, C. L. Abernethy; Craven, A. D. Ward; Green, J. M. Ormond; Jones, T. D. Warren; Lenoir, J. A. McDaniel; Onslow, Randolph Duffy.

Mr. M. DeW. Stevenson made a motion that a committee consisting of one member from each county to draft resolutions.

Mr. Ernest Green of Craven offered an amendment to the motion by dispensing with the committee and adopting the State and National platform.

undusted and unperfected Democrat of Onslow County.

Lenoir county having no candidate, the roll of states was completed. The seconding of the nominations was then in order.

Mr. R. L. Duffy of Onslow seconded the nomination of E. M. Koonce, Suggs, of Green, followed with a few remarks endorsing the candidacy of W. L. Arendell. James A. Bryan spoke for D. L. Ward; W. M. Webb for Arendell and L. V. Morrell for Ward.

The balloting was then commenced. The result of the first ballot was as follows: Carteret, 27; Arendell; Craven, 52; Ward; Green, 29; Arendell; Lenoir 43; Arendell; Jones 18; Koonce; Onslow 31; Koonce. The total being Arendell 98, Koonce 43, Ward 52. Second ballot was cast with the same result. The convention then turned into an uncontrollable mess. Jones and Craven went into caucus but the delegations held out firm for their men. At last, Craven broke and the whole delegation with the exception of W. D. McFar went over to Arendell which gave him the nomination. He received 150 votes.

The demonstration for the victorious candidate was exciting in the extreme. The work of nominating the second candidate, Mr. Ward was accomplished in one ballot, Ward receiving 150 votes and Koonce 49.

Messrs. Arendell and Ward made speeches (thanking the convention for the honor bestowed upon them and promising that the convention their very best efforts for the party's good. Mr. Koonce made a manly speech submitting gracefully to the will of the convention and stating that while he had the pledge of votes enough to nominate him he would work for the success of the party. He said that he would never again be a candidate for the nomination of State Senator.

There was much dissatisfaction shown among the Jones and Onslow delegates because of the defeat of Mr. Koonce. They intimated that they will be revenged for the alleged treachery of the convention as it was tacitly understood that Mr. Koonce would have the support of the Craven delegates and were greatly disappointed in the turn things had taken. They charge that the prohibition element of the party conspired at the throw down.
