BREAKING UP DISTILLERIES

Are County Officers Doing Their Duty?
What Revenue Agent Chapman Says. The Law on the Subject.

Raleigh, N. C., July 21.—One of the questions of the day is, are the county officers in North Carolina doing their duty?—The Watts Law, drafted by Senator Simmons and Gov Aycock, and enacted by the Legislature, imposes a clear duty upon county officers, the duty of breaking up illicit distilling of whiskey, etc. Revenue agent Chapman of Groer's boro is here and your correspondent had a special interview with him which throws much light upon the neglect of duty along this particular line by county officers. Col Chapman is a Confederate Veteran, who was a lieutenant colonel in Mosby's famous command.
He has served in the revenue service in Tennessee for years. When asked what was being done in this State in the way of capturing moon shiners he replied:
"Last month we captured 49 illicit distilleries, an increase of 8 over the preceding months. I am not prepared to say whether moonshining is increasing in North Carolina or not, but fear that it is. Besides the stills we captured we got 2400 gallons of whiskey which was buried and which would have escaped taxation. We also captured 4 horses and 4 wagons and buggies."

I have been in Tennessee, where they have a law somewhat similar to your Watts law in this State, but there the county officers are strict in carrying the law into effect, and they have driven out the moonshiners except along the boundary of the State. From them and from Tennessee revenue officer, I now receive information of the presence of illicit distilleries which are being operated across the line in North Carolina.
Such a notice reached me yesterday. In Tennessee the county officers co-operate thoroughly with us in putting down illicit distilleries, and not only so, but they give information as to the location of stills and also co-operate with us in solving them. There is not a particle of co-operation in North Carolina and not a solitary county officer has offered the least assistance. We have appals from citizens in a number of sections that their business is being interfered with by illicit distillers and retailers, these appeals being coupled with the statement that the county officers are not paying the slightest attention to these matters. The letters call upon the Governor to capture the law breakers.
Col. Chapman when saying this was in the office of revenue collector Duncan, and said to the latter: "You have received many such complaints, I am sure."
"Yes," replied collector Duncan, "plenty of them."

No doubt this interview will attract attention and will arouse the anti saloon league to a sense of the situation. No doubt some county officers think it popular to be on the side of the moonshiners and the whiskey selling, but as one of the most popular men in the State remarked a few days ago, they will find out later what a sad mistake they have made. This gentleman went on to say that he expected within the next 4 years to see the sale of liquor prohibited or regulated in every county in North Carolina; this is that within that period there will be either prohibition or the dispensary system in all parts of the State. Perhaps the interview will arouse some of the county officials to a sense of their duty.

The Evil and Its Cure.

One particularly interesting and vital point is drawn home by Lincoln Steffens in his article on Illinois politics in the August McClure's; and that is that the great problem of the republic is to secure government by the people. It is not a question of this or that party, or this or that politician, but simply one of self-government, of the supremacy of public opinion.

Mr. Steffens tells the story of the eight years' political war in Illinois, by which the Republican party of that State has been brought to represent the people. It offers an illuminating study of politics and government which can be read with profit by every American citizen. It is a hopeful, as well as an analytic discussion of conditions, for it not only exposes the evils of republican government, but shows by illustration how they may be reached.

There is abundant food for thought for the "good citizen" on these powerful pages.

VOICE OF PEOPLE.

Where They Went.

"Where did the R. M. Koonce votes go that were promised by Craven county?" asks a "Delegate" in yesterday's Journal.

"I have nothing to say but just ask Jones."

FIELD WORKERS REPORT.

At Annual Meeting Woman's Association Betterment Public School Houses.

Raleigh, July 21.—The annual meeting of the Woman's Association for the betterment of public school houses in North Carolina ended today at the A. & M. College here. The programme today was interesting. Mrs F. L. Stevens spoke on the beautifying of school grounds and W. W. Ragsdale of Pitt county on the relation between this association and county superintendents.

The field workers made their report, there being 6 of these, Miss Leah Jones, of Craven, Miss Viola Boddie of Nash, Miss Edith Royster of Wake, Miss Mary Petty of Guilford, Mrs W. R. Hollowell of Wayne and Miss Lewis Dull of Forsythe. About 100 ladies attended the meeting and 43 reports were sent in.
Pictures have been placed in a number of schools, buildings and grounds have been improved etc.

CONSOLS DECLINE.

Showing Feeling in England On Russian Matter.

London, July 21.—A serious feeling of depression prevails on the London stock exchange today, owing to the seriousness of the Malacca affair. Consols have further declined from 104 to 103 5-16.

Jingoism is rampant throughout England today and the Balfour ministry that faces the situation requires to exercise the most careful diplomacy, if the nation is not to be plunged into a war involving all Europe. The Malacca affair has so worked on the press and people that a unanimous demand is made for drastic action. The cabinet met this afternoon to consider the situation in regard to the Malacca incident.

Folk For Governor.

Jefferson City, Mo., July 21.—Joseph Folk, circuit attorney of St. Louis was nominated for governor at 3.40 this morning by the Democratic state convention. The ballot stood: Folk 551, Hawes 114, Reed 46. The nomination on motion of Hawes was made unanimously. Folk was escorted into the hall and appeared on the speaker's stand.
The applause which greeted him exceeded that given Bryan at St. Louis.

NOTICE!

Having procured the store No 120 Middle street next door to the stables recently occupied and conducted by me, I wish to announce that on and after August 1st I will have my office located therein and will be pleased to see my old friends and add patrons.

My creditors will take due notice and govern themselves accordingly.
I have also on hand the following: 5 new "Columbia" top buggies and 3 new single horse "Renowned Auburn wagons" which I will sell at cost to close out.

I am Very Respectfully,
MEYER HAHN.

When You Get Time

bring that carriage around to us and we will soon tell you how little it costs you to repair and put it in order again. We do all kinds, and it is seldom a vehicle is so damaged that we can't make it good as new. And it won't cost anything like the price of a new one either.
We put Rubber Tires on your old or new wheels. We shrink your loose tires in a machine without cutting them, or without taking time from wheel on buggy while you wait. Everybody is invited to see the machine at work putting new bolts in old places.

BABY QUIRK'S QUICK CURE

Of Torturing Eczema
by Cuticura

When All Else Had Utterly Failed.

"My baby, Owen Herbert Quirk, was afflicted from the age of six weeks with a loathsome running eczema, almost covering his face. I took him to Drs.
— and — of Victoria Road, Aldershot, and he was treated by them for three months, but got much worse, and was a sickening sight to look at.
I saw an advertisement of the Cuticura Remedies, and got the Soap, Ointment and Resolvent.

"We noticed an improvement at once, and within a fortnight the running had ceased and the scales were nearly all dried off, and in a month his face was perfectly clear, not a spot left. I have an enclosed photograph of him when he was thirteen months old. He is now two years and four months, and has never had the slightest return of it. I am very grateful for the benefits derived from your remedies, and shall feel it a pleasure to make their value known. For corroboration of this statement you may refer any one to Mrs. Williams, 45 Michaels Road, Aldershot, or Mr. Gunstone, 40 Victoria Road, Aldershot, to whom we recommended the remedies for a skin humor, which they also cured. You are at liberty to do what you like with this statement, as I should like all to know the value of Cuticura."
