Adjutant General Royster Discuss Military Matters. Crops Going Backward, Republicans Talk Beldly,

Raleigh, N. C., Aug 95.—State Super intendent Joyner returned today from Wise, in Warren county, where yester day he and Prof J B Catlyle of Wake Forest College spoke to 500 people, the meeting being for the purpose of accer-taining the sentiment in regard to a ocal tax districts for public school The public schools there has the teaceers. A "hand primary" was had and three fourths of those present voted in favor of a special tax. Seven hundred dollars was raised on the spot to keep the school open eight months in the year and next June the special tax will be voted. Superintendent Joyner next goes to Wrightsville to make an address on Labor Day.

Adjutant General Royster arrived here today and had a conference with the governor on various military matters including the matter of investigation to to the killing of the two interiories enlisted men of the Third Regiment nea Goldsboro last week. General Boyste said everything was in readings for the movement of the First Regiment of Infantry to Manasses and that it will take there a little over six hundred officers and men. Capt. J. G. The sheriff of this county says he has examined crops in various sections of it and finds that they are deteriorating very fast indeed. He said they did the same thing last year, the damage then as now, being done in about ten days. He is surprised at the extent to which they have gone backward.

Today Issae M. Meekins, the Republican nominee for Lieutenant Governor was seen in the office of Revenue Col sector Duncan, the latter being the manager of Republican politics for Eastern Carolina. Meekins said he had not begun a regular campaign yet but was speaking here and there "on his own hook" and that he had spoken at Hillsboro, Tarboro and at Smithfield. He spoke at the latter place yesterday and says he had over 400 auditors. He added that Republicans assured him that they would carry Johnson county. You ondent smiled at this and said

Collector Duncan then said he under tood there had been a greet reaction in politics in Johnson county.
