Middleburg Supply Company Chartered. Railroad Conductor Sent to Pen. Lawyers Off For St. Louis.

Raleigh, Sept. 20.—Col P M Pearnall private secretary to Governor Aycock announces the appointment of directors on the part of the State for the Atlantic & North Carolina railroad preparatory for the annual meeting of the company Thursday at New Bern. The only change is that L Harvey is made state's proxy in the stead of J W Grainger who succeeds Harvey as a director. The other directors are C M Busbee, Raleigh; W H Smith Goldsboro; Jas A Bryan, New Bern; W H Bagley, Raleigh; L G Daniels, Bayboro; R W Taylor, Morehead City; J O Parker.

The secretary of State charters the Middleburg Supply Co. of Middleburg, Vance county. The capital is $10,000 authorized and $2,000 subscribed by O J Barton and others.

Sheriff Rowan of Rowan county was here this morning for the purpose of committing J A Phillips, the Southern railway conductor of Salisbury to the penitentiary to serve four years for systematic stealing from the railroad while serving as freight conductor.

A large delegation of the legal profession in this State leave tomorrow for St. Louis to attend the universal congress of lawyers and jurists to be in session there Sept. 29 and 30th. Among them are A H Andrews, Jr, Raleigh; J O Riggs, Durham, Judge J E Boyd, Greensboro; Judge G H Brown, Washington; F H Busbee, Raleigh; Justice R M Douglas of the Supreme court; Clement Manly, Winston; Lindsey Patterson, Winton; J H Pou, Raleigh and others.

More Than Temporary.

The Goldsboro correspondent of the Wilmington Messenger says, "It is thought by those who are in position to know that Mr Howland contemplates making Goldsboro the general headquarters of the road. This refers to the reported temporary removal of the Atlantic and North Carolina railroad offices from New Bern."

The Hungarian Orchestra.

The concert given by the Hungarian Orchestra last night was one of the most enjoyable that has ever been heard in New Bern. There is no question that they were the best orchestra that has visited this city. Their association proclaims that they are far better than ordinary but the last night's concert demonstrated that they were far better than good—they were superb.

Each number was enthusiastically enjoyed and as an encore a popular air was rendered with as much zest as the regular program.

The concert was the first of the Lyceum Lecture Bureau's list of entertainments and we believe the lecture course will grow in popularity year by year.

GREAT BATTLE AT MUKDEN

Russian Sources State Japanese Repulsed at Port Arthur.

Rome, Sept. 20.—A dispatch to the Agenzia Libera says that a great battle between the Japanese and Russians has commenced at Mukden. Gen Kuroki the dispatch says, after a wide turning movement, crossed the Hyn river, and attacked the Russian right flank with a hundred thousand troops.

St Petersburg Sept. 20.—A report has been received from Gen Stoessel, commanding at Port Arthur, which states that on September 16th, in the afternoon a Japanese battalion attacked an acquired redoubt, but were repulsed. They were reinforced and made a second attack, but again were repulsed with heavy loss.

London, Sept. 20.—A Chee Foo correspondent of Reuters Telegraph Co. reports a general attack on Port Arthur, which began before daybreak yesterday and continued till midnight. It is believed the object of the Japs was to capture the main forts to the northeast.

Government Cotton Report.

Washington, D C, Sept 20

Complaints of cotton shedding are still received from eastern sections and to the northern portions of western sections but reports of rust are not so general except in Northern Carolina. Staple is opening rapidly in all districts. In some localities premature picking is general at though hindered by rain in portions of Texas from which states as well as from Georgia scarcity of pickers is reported. Dry weather causing injury to late cotton generally in central and eastern sections and light or no top crop is indicated in central and western districts while worms and caterpillars are causing injury in Oklahoma, Louisiana, Alabama and South Carolina. In Texas boll weevils continue as damaging in southwestern coast central eastern and a number of northern counties as advancement of season permits.

LOST IN THE WOODS.

In Such a Case Fear Is One's Most Dangerous Enemy.

Every woodman—yes, every Indian—gets lost at some time—that is, loses his bearings and has difficulty in getting out of camp. As a matter of fact, the wild birds and beasts will sometimes get lost, although they are wonderfully equipped for finding their way home.

The worst thing a person lost in the woods can do is to get frightened. The truly dangerous enemy is not the cold or the hunger so much as the fear. It is fear that robs the wanderer of his judgment and of his limb power; it is fear that turns the passing experience into a final tragedy. Only keep cool, and all will be well.

A man of little experience usually sets out at a run when he is lost. He wishes to travel as fast as usual, and of course that merely wears him out and sends him farther astray. If he sits down calmly he will not only spare himself, but will help his friends to find him, and this he can do by shouting at intervals and, above all, by getting on as high and open a place as possible and there making two smoke fires, the recognized signal, "I am lost."

ECLIPSE FORECASTS.

The First One Was Made by Thales to the Egyptians.

The eclipse of May 28, 585 B. C. (total in the east of Asia Minor), is the first that can be fixed with certainty. The prediction of it by Thales to the Ionians brought him lasting fame and excited among the Hellenes the love of science. Its occurrence during a great battle ended a five year war between the Medes and the Lydians and led to a permanent peace.

The Chinese boast of a series of eclipses recorded in their annals extending over 3,500 years. But these are of very doubtful character. The Egyptians said they had accurately observed 375 eclipses of the sun and 332 of the moon before the time of Alexander the Great, who died 323 B. C.

An eclipse observed at Nineveh, June 15, 763 B. C., is recorded on an Assyrian tablet now in the British museum. A lunar eclipse, occurring at 8:40 p. m., March 13, 721 B. C., was observed; according to Ptolemy, with much accuracy at Babylon. Each central eclipse visible in our time is one of an unbroken series, extending from the earliest historic times to the present and recurring at regular intervals.

It is very comforting to a man who is just recovering from a lingering illness and has managed to crawl out on a warm, sunny day to get air to have a neighbor come along and shout cheerily: "Hello! Been away, haven't you? Had a good time? You are looking well!"

CARNIVAL KEEPS GOING.

Its a Howling Success and Growing in Popularity all the Time.

The hot weather of yesterday had a little effect on the crowds at the carnival but the glaring daylight waned into gentle evening the streets began to fill and by night fall there was unusual activity at all points.

The shows all began business in the afternoon and all had good patronage. Uno, the wild girl has a strange liking for snakes. She is as much at home with the ugly crawling creatures as the society lady is with her pet dog. There are many supposed to be venomous serpents in the pit where she sits and she is continually whipping them around her as if they were strings of beads. That they are alive there is no doubt, that they have been poisonous there is less doubt as a number of venomous snakes have been discovered in the pits. The rattlesnake was among her guests and the unmistakable and inflexible toxin gave the spectators almost as uncomfortable a feeling as if they were to encounter one on the street.

The fact that the woman is unharmed by the reptiles is no proof that they are totally devoid of the power to bite.

A very entertaining and clever exhibition is the animal show and Harvel Lillipution theatre. It consists of performances by a monkey and a bear which are exceedingly amusing. The tricks of the animals are done with great ease and dexterity and are certain to be enjoyed by the children.

The Lillipution theatre is also very entertaining in which several jointed forms are introduced to the audience and by means of electric wires go through dancing and acrobatic evolutions which are clearly wonderful. Particularly interesting feature here is the skeleton dance. The show is a good one and should be patronized.

The Maze is an attraction which is a good deal like a spiders web. Like the old song the way into the parlor is up a winding stair, and the straighter one walks the crooked way becomes.

It takes longer for a man to get out than it does to go in whether or not there be a crowd with him.

The country store was arranged last night and is ready for business. It is located on Middle street near T A Henry's drug store. This feature is one of clear profit to the local end of the carnival and will be found a place where you can get bargains whether you get what you don't want or not. Blow in your money on the country store, but don't kick if you aim to get a barrel of flour for ten cents a chance, and get a rattle.

Almes—tent packed to the doors again last night. It took three ticket agents to handle the crowd. Special Ladies matinees, commencing today at 3 p m and 4 p m.

What is Life?

In the last analysis nobody knows, but we do know that it is under strict law. Abuse that law even slightly, pain results. Irregular living means derangement of the organs, resulting in Constipation, Headache or Liver trouble. Dr. King's New Life Pills quickly re-adjusts this. Its gentle, yet thorough. Only 25c at Bradham's drug store.
